A GOOD HOME AGRICULTURAL PAPER
"The Farmer's Home Journal," published at Lexington, is one of the best agricultural papers in the country. Ten columns will be added to it on the first of January, in order to give space for more matter. It will then be one of the largest agricultural papers in the country. Now is the time to subscribe, for by subscribing before 1870 the paper will be sent free for Oct. 1st to January, 1870. To clubs of six or more the paper will be $2.00 per annum. To those

PROLIFIC.—A highly esteemed lady friend, living in Elizaville, Fleming county, has a hen which, for prolificacy, beats anything we have ever heard of. It was hatched last February, and already had two broods. The last brood is now on the wing, and the hen, notwithstanding the weather, is laying again above the old brood.
