The campaign has opened in Ohio and will be fully contested.

We will have two THOMPSONS in the next Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature, besides our own beloved G. H. B.

Ms. W. W. Rowlett, of Lagrange, Ky., editor of the Oldham Era, will be a candidate before the next Legislature for the office of assistant clerk of the Lower House.

In the last legislature of Kentucky the Republicans had not members enough in the Senate or House of Representatives to form a quorum.

The body of James H. Mackey, of Brooklyn, New York, a young lawyer, was found in a well about two months from Newport, Kentucky. He shall had been murdered. How the body came there and who are his murderers is a mystery. He had on his person $150.

A BATTLE between Turkey and Russia is looked for soon in which it is expected that over two hundred thousand men will be engaged. A severe engagement took place on Sunday which lasted about eight hours without intermission, resulting in the Turks being driven out of their intrenchments at the point of the bayonet. The Russians had 900 men killed and the Turks 1,000.

Every detail of operation shows the Russians have made up their minds for a long war, and are preparing great depots of firewood. The Roumanian Government is also making tenders for the supply of great quantities of clothing and stores.

Went as a Red Republican.

The following in reference to the Republican candidate for the Governorship of Ohio, is taken from the Philadelphia North American:

Mr. Ward stumbled in a Cleveland speech, not long since, but many times; and if he did not at last fall from between the very derided work-bench of the platform, he got back into may be somewhat in the position of the plaster of the crowd that listened, but he got back into it somehow, and what it was all about. He was said to be a railroad officer, and never would, as the journals have railroad orders to bond, and never would own any. His wonderful unstated favoritism binds, and they never intended to own any. He owned no bank stock then, and never intended to own any. He had, in fact, attained to the first fanciful condition among men to which a certain Scripture text worthy expert—neither a bad boy nor poor. And, therefore, Mr. West conceives the 5 he made no long between expansion capital and suppressed labor, and there at present to hold his grand court of arbitration. We are entering upon an era of unprincipled parties. What does Mr. West mean? We hope nobody thinks of it. We are saying what the platform means; but what does the candidate mean? Does he think it wrong to hold any official relation with a restricted enterprise? Does he regard it wrong to assert in opening the 20th century, as we did in the beginning of the 19th? Does he think the Declaration of Independence have been as rich and powerful as it is to-day had everybody held such views and governed themselves accordingly? Is it a matter of indifference between having a railroad which is owned by the people and having no railroad at all? Does he sound ready to tell the people what sort of man he is guilty of who enters into legitimate banking as a business? Will he define the difference between lending $1,000 to the Government and doing its premium work, and lending a like sum to John Smith and taking his note of hand? If there is no difference, all that Mr. West means is that he did not intend to murder the Constitution. He was only guilty of a technical misdemeanor in connection with railway enterprises owning railway and Government bond bonds and bank stocks was disreputable, what did he mean?

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

MILLERSBURG.

We regret to have to report the serious illness of Drs. H. C. Burroughs and Gentry.

We are sorry to lose so estimable a citizen as Elder S. R. Mayfield, who, though acting as pastor of the Christian church at this place, has thought best to move to the country near Cynthiana.

Gen. W. Bryan spent most of last week in Louisville, Kentucky, in the interest of his real estate located at that point. He says 75.00 now started toward opening a street through his property which is worth $5,000.

"Pollee" says he's "about non suit" now. When he gets to be one, we hope he'll tell us who he is. He quite mystifies us. We think he "limits" absolutions" and poetry.

Rev. H. Winslow Abbott, formerly of the Millersburg Female College, and family, left on Monday morning for Wellston, Missouri, where, we learn, he expects to open a select school for young ladies. Prof. Abbott is a very found scholar of rare attainments, and will make the school a success. He has our best wishes.

John W. Boulden has an insurance agency composed of the Ætna of Hartford, Home, of New York, Franklin of Philadelphia and the Phœnix of Hartford, a quartet of fire insurance companies unsurpassed in the world for fair dealing and reliable indemnity. When in Millersburg call on him and he will be pleased to issue a policy for you, for from 1 to 5 years as cheap as any frauduleus company.

Quite a number of persons were detained here by the railroad washout and we think the management might have taken the pains to send a telegram to this point in regard to the running of the train Tuesday, as we have no telegraph operator here. Several parties waited at the depot until noon for the train North.

BUCK GLOVE.

CRAFFELL.

Not having seen anything in your paper for some time from this section of the country, I thought I would take the liberty to give you the news.

We have harvested and threshed a bounteous wheat crop. Corn is looking well, but not so with tobacco. There has been but a small acreage planted, and the worms are destroying the entire crop. What has been set out has been entirely destroyed.

Mr. Granville Ritchie had his arm broken by falling from the mow of his stable a few days since.

Mr. Jacob Bowles, the popular station at the elbow, which was done by Dr. Lindsay, of your town, and though I have seen many operations performed by physicians and also by unlicensed surgeons, I must say, for the credit and reputation of the latter, that he uses the knife with great skill and dexterity, and is a capital operator. He did for Mr. Ritchie as neat an amputation as I ever saw performed by any surgeon. The operation was performed between 12 and 1 o'clock at night, and Mr. Ritchie gathered himself up and started home in a wagon, and, he hopes, a safer one. He thought a mule kicked him. He will recover, but at present he and his family would not do him justice.

A party of Mayes-ites on Sunday last chartered Mr. W. W. Weeks's hack, and attended the Camp meeting going on there. Just as the party arrived within the encampment the hack upset, and delivered the occupants safely on the ground—a Mr. Woodward being the only one to do. Fortunately, no one was seriously injured. Mr. Jake Bowles had his shoulder dislocated, and Little Sam King was bruised slightly, but by a few applications of some paint they soon recovered. Mr. Weeks's hack and harness I hear were little also. One thing is certain, that party will not charter Mr. Weeks's hack for a long time, at least, through the kindness of the driver. Mr. Weeks is a liberal supply of hacks, and keeping a horse-trade in connection therewith, will visit us again early in the spring.

Everybody seemed to have become at the campmeeting last Sunday, except Mr. Jim Bowles, who, I am sorry to say, was indisposed. He is a liberal supply of hacks, and keeping a horse-trade in connection therewith, will visit us again early in the spring.

Mr. Jacob Beckley, of Washington, attended the Camp meeting in Brown Mills, Ohio on Sunday and by all that his conduct were the observed of all observers.

Henry Wood and Robt. Stockton with Moore Hardy and Lallie Lytle have returned from the Blue Lick Springs, where they have been sojourning several days.

The Patchwork cigar manufactured by M. F. Kehoe is becoming quite popular with the lovers of a good smoke. He thought a mule kicked him. He will recover, but at present he and his family would not do him justice.

An old Quaker gentleman from Virginia was in our town last week, and it was the first time he had been in Sharpsburg since 1829. The place where the town now stands was then, he says, a dense forest of large timber.

In going from Moorefield to Darning Camp Meeting via Greenley Town the only cross road creek forty-six times in a distance of twelve miles. There was one of riding behind the fine Government and Darning steamers of Mr. Jesse Brown, and leaving a like sum to John Smith and taking his note of hand? If there is no difference, all that Mr. West means is that he did not intend to murder the Constitution. ELIZAVILLE.

No fights, muss-fits, marriages or births to report.

S. F. Maddix has gone to Illinois to visit his brother, Dr. Maddix.

Capt. Sinser had purchased, up to date, about 1,000 bbls. of apples from the home harvest. Not a bad showing for Elizaville.

The 9-o'clock camp-meeting train from Mayslick was discontinued on account of the bridge disaster. Accommodations for return could be appointed, but they had the consoling reflection that they were saving time, labor, and saw the country.

Many Representatives are already seeking the Legislature. It is worthy of remark that Messrs. Thomas, Campbell and Parrish, as good as Democrats can be found, have certainly more straightforward constituency than any other three Whigs. What's a good as Democrat.

Patton's grove was illuminated with the campaign fire of the Democratic and conquest party. When the torch and the fire-brand were applied, the fire would not burn to knock every one down with a club. Democracy is the true principle, and the Democratic party were born to rule.
