DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

AUGUST ELECTION, 1888.

For Sheriff—F. E. HUNT.
Deputy Sheriff—ALEX. ROBERTS.
Assessor—JOHN HARVEY.

In canvassing the chances of Congressional possibilities Hon. Thos. H. Paynter, of Greenup, should not be overlooked. He has many warm partisans all over the district who believe he can redeem the district.

Gen. Phil. Sheridan, the Lt. General of the United states army has been near death's door for the past week suffering from heart affection. He is not yet out of danger, and his death may occur at any moment.

Tom County boy in Bath County this year has been forced up to 70 cents on the $100. In Fleming County the levy is but 20 cents on the $100. In Mason it is 35 cents, and in Nicholas it is 41 cents.

The Covington Commonwealth says: "The jobs of assessor and tax collector, mentioned in a statement of the Commonwealth, show that the Union Labor party is defaulting because the republicans are recognizing the fact that the Republican party is the true champion of the Laboring man."

Gov. Hill has issued a proclamation declaring that contagious pleuro-pneumonia is prevalent among the cattle in New York, Kings, Queens, Richmond and a part of Westchester counties, and prohibiting them quarantined under the Federal animal industry act.

Ten Kentucky congressional delegation, headed by Senator Blackburn, accompanied by ex-Governor J. Proctor Knott, Col. Stanton Duncan and other distinguished Kentuckians, called upon President Cleveland, Tuesday, and invited him to visit Kentucky in the early fall.

Mason County has ordered a copy of the latest edition of the General Statutes and a copy of the Code for each of her Magistrates. This is the correct thing for every county to do, since the pay of Magistrates is so meager they cannot afford to buy these books themselves. The Magistrates are the personal peace officers in the State.

The people of Robertson express themselves as well pleased with the work of their Representative and Representative in the last Legislature, and if the Legislature had not a surplus the blame is not laid to them. Hopkins county think the Legislature did good work, and deserves much credit; some credit then it will ever get.—Mt. Olivet Democrat.

A despatch from Flemingsburg, May 28, says: R. E. Kendall was nominated for re-election for Sheriff of this (Fleming) County, by the Democratic convention. He will probably have no opposition. The County Convention adopted a resolution approving the action of the Legislature in enacting Jaggers & A. Co-Tax remedy in his administration of justice in Robertson County.

Hon. G. W. Castle, of Lawrence County, was in Louisville from Saturday and Monday. Mr. Castle was Speaker pro tem of the Kentucky Senate at 20 last session. He has been presented by the Democrats of his district for Congress, and he was here for the purpose of meeting our people. He presents the claims of the Big Sandy region for Congressional recognition, and has the prestige of having never suffered defeat in a political race. He went from here to Fleming County.

Because James W. Tate was away with a big wad of the people' money the Republicans are going to assert that every Democrat in the State is a thief or wants to that effect. When they undertake this they will begin early in Ky, and every Democrat will jump in and go to work and run Republicans out unpopularity up to such a degree. Our product now 36,000 majority for Governor. The great interest already beginning to show to a great awakening meeting points to a general awakening that Nicholas will be on hand with her five hundred majority, and don't you forget her.

The Congressional Committee which investigated the strike on the Reading railroad, will it is said, recommend some railroad legislation, the principal points of which will be: First, an absolute provision for placing in the hands of a receiver any railroad company which, as a result of differences with its employes, fails for a period of ten days to operate the road; second, that a requirement of all train crews, but no other class of employes, should work days notice of an intention to quit work, and third, that the railroad companies must give ten days notice to their employes of a reduction of wages.

A special from Louisville says the the largest meeting of the Kentucky Distillers ever held was in session in this city Tuesday and saw at night—R. N. Walker, of Lebanon, Chairman and T. M. Gilmore, of Boston's Spirit Circular, Secretary. They formulated an agreement to restrict the production of 1888 "90 to 11,000,000 gallons. This is to be allocated among the distilleries according to registered capacity. A percentage of distilleries from which there is an surplus, to be allocated among those entitled to legal and binding when 80 per cent of the distilleries have signed. Nearly five per cent were represented and nearly all signed.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RACE.

Good Advice From the Editor of the Carlisle Mercury—Paept Put Bibb Mason Out Work.

[From the Maysville Bulletin Nov 20th.]

Editor Bulletin: I am obliged to you for your kind mention of my name in connection with the race for Congress from this district. I am not going to deny that I would be pleased to go to Congress, for you would know I was fabricating, but I am going to say to all earnestness that I would, under no circumstances, enter into a personal contest for the nomination, and thereby cause dissatisfaction and dissension in the Democratic party.

Nothing County is going to present a candidate, but it is not a foregone conclusion that it will be put in nomination. We are going to present our claims for recognition on sectional grounds. We are going to present our candidate for the example of what a county can do when her Democrats make up their minds to let the dead past bury its dead. We mean we are more completely divided into factions than Nicholas was for several years. But by mutual concessions and Democratic patriotism we have laid aside all and personal grievances for Democratic strength and harmony. Without personal resentment that remains, in unofficial capacity I am supporting my friend Paept. We propose to ask our Democratic neighbors to recognize us in this great work. We propose to lay our position before the Democracy of the old Ninth District and ask that set steadfastness, patriotism and sacrifice are as worthy of consideration. We shall ask that those counties where candidates have been the recipients of our strength and support, will return the favor in the coming contest. As I said before I am in no way personal or decided question that I will be Nicholas' candidate, but it will be all our same effort to make Nicholas county the banner Democratic county in the district.

I T. Hord said a 2-year-old saddle gelding, T. B. Blanchard last week at moderate figures.

We understand that Brush Morris is going to have a new story and half added to his house on Main Street, Maysville. Contract for building it.

Mrs. Mary Ann Bell, of Cincinnati, formerly of Maysville, died at her home last Tuesday, aged 72 years. Mrs. Bell was a sister of the late Capt. Jas. Wallace, and a cousin of Mrs. Ashton.

Mr. Joseph Bury is at home from Lexington school.

Mrs. Wm. Hildreth returns to Maysville after a visit to her mother near Lexington.

Mr. Wm. Alexander visited the home of her father, last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. James Stanger, the boy preacher, who was so successful in the revival of our local church membership a few years ago, is now in Lexington, and is a very enthusiastic worker in the Sunday school, Epworth League, Christianity, and the service of God. Lexington is fortunate in the possession of such a man.

Mr. Lock Horton and Mrs. Jane Wesson were married last Sunday at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. Jas. Wesson, near Orangeburg. We accept our hearty congratulations and best wishes for your future happiness and prosperity.

"ESTO PERPETUA."

On Tuesday afternoon J. A. Chappell took the last train for Cincinnati to buy some nice new summer fabrics, such as Cheviots, Cassimeres, Challies, Batistes, Lawns, &c. We shall open out this week a new stock of these goods at popular prices. A handsome printed chalite at 10 cents and up. Remember we have now but little over four weeks till July 1st. This is the time we take our annual inventory and we begin this week a grand clearance sale of all our spring goods. Lots of remnants of Dress goods of Silk goods, White Pique, Ginghams, Calicos, Cotton goods, Woolen goods, and Linens. We cannot mention all possible items in this space. Remember we close July 1st, Mens Plow Shoes, Mens calf Shoes, Mens' Calf Boots at $1.50 per pair, facts Sire, Men's Calf Boots at $3.50 (I don't believe it cents and we intend to astonish the natives on this grand clearance sale. We have got the stock and all particulars ready to sell at a big sacrifice of money and bring it to the City Cash store during the month of June. Don't forget the time, all through the month of June. Remember the place Chappell's City Cash Store. The goals to be sold—the immense Stock of Dry goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats, Caps, and Oil Cloths. Remnant of Carpets for sale. Remnants of Oil Cloths, Drugs Lace Curtains, cheap every thing. There are times when we want to convert money into Dry goods, into goods into money. When our July invoice is made we want to see the figures mostly five dollars and less than today. It is our wish that the whole population share in the benefits of this clearance sale. No matter who you are, no difference as to the amount you want to buy or to spend, no matter what you want come to the City Cash. It is only a piece of pins, we will give you our pins for five dollars the month of June. Also the best pin for a dime, our boy's Cassimeres at cut rates, our men's Cassimeres at cut rates. Cottonades and Linens for men and boys at cut rates. Our dress goods have been large all through the spring, and Mrs. Hokill has been simply overrun. Forty dresses ahead in the last week, is common thing. The wonder is she keep up at all. The department has proven to be a great convenience to the ladies. So large, airy and handsome a suit of rooms and so easy of access is not found in every town. Here ladies can find a place to rest, a small potato business about the City Store. We love the whole world, especially the women. If you could see us through, you would think we very bottom of our heart. Now let the great unloading sale go on and let the whole population come in and join the bright eyed host who are marching under the starry flags of the City Cash Store on to victory and eternal fame.
