DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.

For Vice President,
ALLEN G. THURMAN, of Ohio.

For Congress,
THOS. H. PAYNTER, of Goodwill Township.

EVERY Democrat in Nicholas ought to make up his mind to help get a big Democratic majority.

REPUBLICANS the world of the Nation are discouraged. And this helps to keep up the possibilities of a winner wager on the possibilities of a winner.

CLEVELAND is still in the race, but there are not many members in attendance. It is being demonstrated that the election time can be well without so many people.

CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER has to keep quiet, so only he or his wife and eight children can speak for himself, the ex-Governor, on the bench center being and $100. Fortunately Supreme Court etiquette doesn't require a bonnet.

THE discussion between W. J. Hickrike and Thos. A. Davis at our Court house last Saturday, was well attended, and patiently listened to. Both gentlemen kept the issue pretty near home, and paid their entire attention to the tariff.

CO. I, 19th Missouri, which decided to join Cleveland's Guards in a person except Congressman Buckner-ridge, Ex-Gov. Stephens, Ex-Congressman Wills, Ex-Secretary of State McKenzie, Ex-Chief Justice Lindsay and Ex-Legislator Lockhart. This big Republican vote will be a great accession to the company, and he is right glad he succeeded in clear of Harrison.

DR. MCKINZIE, the English doctor that attended Kossuth, Garfield and Germania Jones was killed by a train that the Kinzie was in running great electric in Europe, and yet he was paid in this country—very loser a single dollar for his services. Perhaps he should be shamed. Perhaps he should be shamed. Perhaps he should be shamed. Perhaps he should be shamed.

MR. BLAINE opened his Indiana campaign Thursday with this statement: "Now that" is a city so many very confident that Indiana is certain to the contrary of the tricks known to politicians." Mr. Blaine is too shrewd to allow himself to be tricked by shouting "huzza" at the Democrats. Indiana is certain to take the voting for Grover Cleveland and Allen G. Thurman, and he knows with the search that he was a fool to attempt to carry it.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is for no other person on earth. Democrats are not confident that Democrats are not confident that Democrats are not confident that
