THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1890

THE Farmers' Alliance of Mason County, have nominated Howard Fox, of Germantown, for Representative.

THE Independent Republicans of Shelby County, in BULLITT, will raise $12,000 to be money voted to railroads none of which were never built.

REPUBLICAN Stupidity is shown in as strong a way as was Democratic New York under Tweed. Even the Republicans seem to have been too by a set of thieves.

HON. W. O. BRADLEY says he was not present at the last Harrison meeting at Independence last week, but that he is a strong supporter of Harrison over any one.

HON. R. B. HAIF has been nominated for Representative from Fleming county. Mr. Haif has had one term in the House, and the experience gained will make him one of the leading members of the next House.

COL. PRESTON BARNES has declined the nomination of the People's Party for Governor of Kentucky. Mr. John G. Blair, of this County informs us that he has no intention of choking the rare for Clerk of the Court of Appeals on the same ticket.

TOM PHYFE, a candidate for the Legislature in Daviess county, has come out in favor of the sub-Treasury scheme. Tom is destined to come out of the race as the sub-candidate. He is sound, though, on the money question. Tom's idea of finance is that if a man can get a little money, and know the ins and outs of contracting or maintaining bridges, turnpike roads or gravel roads. It will be seen that no provision is made for buying any road, no matter how cheap it might be offered for sale, and making it free of toll. The fact is the people are given very little authority to do anything.

By the way, would it not be a good idea for the patriotic supporters of the New Constitution to read that instrument, in order that they may give some reasons for the faith that is within them? It may be popular to the sneers: those who oppose it are in the interest of the corporations, and a hireling' is not argument, and a hireling would not convince. Give us some solid arguments, gentlemen. Give us some reasons, gentlemen.—Frank Leslie's.

EVERY paper in Kentucky in favor of the new Constitution has taken up the cry that the corporations and monopolies are all opposed to it. How they have found this out we do not know, and do not believe they know. They have seen it as stated in some paper, and thinking it would be a good way to make votes have repeated the cry until they really think it true. Give us some real sound arguments, gentlemen. Explain the reasons why it will a Constitution.

TALK about railroads being in favor of the new Constitution, we have our doubts. Under the new Constitution the railroads will be taxed according to law to be hereafter made by the legislature, while the property of every other citizen is taxed at its value. Would not everyone of the intelligent railroads have some chance to lobby a bill through for their benefit, into people have no such chance, and the necessary of the law are made so rough will have to pay take breathe. These are facts and the people should understand them.

THE Republicans of Nicholas County are requested to meet in Convention at the Court house in Carlisle on Saturday, June 27th, at 2:00 p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the District Convention, to be held at Springs on July 4th, 1890, to fill an independent congressman to be elected.

H. B. BATSON, Ch'm'n.

Hon. E. H. Taylor, Jr., who has been nominated Representative from the County of Pendleton, will be a candidate for Speaker.

A large list of applicants have been made for the various State vacancies. No appointment has been made for Nicholas, which is a compliment to our Democracy and we accept it.

THE Democratic Senatorial Conference in Bourbon County, on a row at Paris, combining two candidates Mr. T. Bradford and W. V. Weldon, both of Bourbon County.

JUDGE E. WHITAKER, of Maysville, and Hon. Hanson Kennedy, of this city, addressed the people of Bethel on Monday on the new Constitution. Both gentlemen are engaged in a canvass of this county.

FAILURE of the new Constitution are making their fight against Henry Watterson, and hope to pull through on Mr. Watterson's supposed unpopularity. Gentlemen, this is a serious game and reason, not prejudice, should rule.

MANY of the best lawyers in the State are thinking that the new Constitution is adopted that all the laws made under it will be void. Why, we know it to be true, but the doubt will be all probability cause much trouble in the minds of temperance people. The fact of the business is that the new Constitution leaves everything in doubt.

A SECRET meeting of Republican Congressmen was held at Washington on Monday to decide on a Speaker. Prominent representatives from half a dozen States were present and discussed the means to shelve Mr. Reed and take up Secretary Blaine. A general executive committee was appointed with authority to call the meeting and take such other steps as may be thought necessary.

THE Barbourville Mail takes a sensible view of the matter. It says: "The new Constitution is being extensively discussed by the press and the people. It has many strong supporters, and a number of intense enemies in the State. There is no use to call either side hard names, for each side is honest in the belief that either side is composed of the most patriotic men in the State. Many of the best and purest men of the State are in favor of the new Constitution."

NOW comes the news that Nicholas Shannon and other Bourbon agents will hold a grand pow-wow up at Bowling Green, July 4th next. Blatant Watterson! What a description of the Democrats who are opposed to ratification of the Constitution of Hon. Hanson Kennedy.

HON. R. B. HAIF has been nominated for Representative from Fleming county. Mr. Haif has had one term in the House, and the experience gained will make him one of the leading members of the next House.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

(From the Lexington Gazette.)

The objections to the new Constitution set up by Convention as a Constitution for the people of Kentucky are so numerous that it is not worth while to discuss them. It may answer to say and any one of the most moderate intelligence, that the new Constitution will not do. It was adopted by the Convention in the interest of the corporations and monopolies of Kentucky. How they have found this out we do not know, but we believe they know. They have seen it as stated in some paper, and thinking it would be a good way to make votes have repeated the cry until they really think it true. Give us some real sound arguments, gentlemen. COMMITTEE ADDRESS.

"Office of the Democratic State Committee, Louisville, Ky., June 11—To the Democracy of Kentucky: The approaching National election and the great interests involved—interests for the maintenance of which you more than the Democrats of any other State, have been made responsible—render the result of the pending election of the greatest importance.

"From the election of Second Cleveland in 1885, to the defeat of Cleveland in 1888, you kept out in the cold, and the Democrats in office could by your presence do no good in behalf of the people the principles for which you have contended have become popularly known as the Kentucky idea."

"In 1886 the honest purpose of the people's President to carry out the principles embodied in your St. Louis platform was thwarted by the refusal of the country in support of Democrats who had acted in thirty years went down in a vain effort to carry out the principles for which you contended for.

"The fight is still being waged for the supremacy of the right to reduce your taxes to a legitimate limit, and at a time when prosperity ought to maintain a contented and free position before the country, we beg that you will be at odds more divert your allegiance to the party which has been so unfortunate for the protection of particular interests of the old or new Democrats in this old or new Constitution to be will concern with your democracy. Our is now the time a Democrat who entertains whatever opinion he may entertain on these questions. He is a Democrat that votes the Democratic ticket.

"Your committee at the outset desires to be understood as speaking in behalf only responsibility for the organization of the Constitutional Convention; that convention was a party body, and when you meet in Democratic convention in May last you declined to submit the question of the old or the new Constitution a party issue to the primary voters.

"Democrats of Kentucky, are to this the majority in August at your ballots, let tremble, and the children of your posterity will be ashamed of the work of your hands.

"Democratic ranks are making the strongest and most determined rally the back tertiem. Well, if Jack Frost and Old Mother Nature do their duty, we will have a Democratic victory
