THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1871.

Democratic papers throughout the country are announcing that Governor Woodward will be renominated by the Democracy of Pennsylvania. We predicted 25,000 majority for him, and we've no prophet either. Fifty counties gave Democratic majorities, and thirty-seven gave Republican majorities. Harden county was a tie, and all other tickets polled 35,000 votes. Tilden, Hendricks and Vogdes' ticket ran behind their ticket.

A COLLIERY explosion occurred at Pelham Blantyre, near Glasgow, on the 22d, burying four hundred men, all of whom, it is thought, will be killed.

MRS. GARDNER, of Frankfort, whom we mentioned in a fat lady, sued two gentlemen for $6,000 for slandering her daughter. When the court adjourned Sexton did lady attempted to shoot a gentleman who had sworn against her girl.

COMMUNICATED.

Mr Chinn Declines.

To the Citizens of the District:

In response to the solicitations of my friends to become a candidate for the office of County Judge, I must respectfully decline, and, with the highest appreciation and most grateful remembrances, return to each of them my sincere thanks.

Some Account of the Concert.

Allow me, through the columns of the Mercury, to return thanks to my friends who on last Friday evening favored me with their presence at the concert given by the ladies of the Methodist Church. However undeserving I may be, yet I cannot but feel grateful for the compliment of your suffrage on that occasion. I shall keep the ornamented chimp as a memento of your kindness and generosity. A thing of beauty is a joy forever, and the gift shall have a place, and ere when I'm young and support when I'm old.

JOHN M. BEAR.

That Coming A Card from Mr. Bear.

It is just to my friends, and to the church that I represent, to state that my name was put down as a competitor for the gold-headed cane, presented to Knights Templar Hall, on the 4th day o sight, without my knowledge or consent. I was entered for the the prize, hence I could not withdraw but I had my name stricken from the list. I have no bitter feelings for any one. I pray to excite no unkindness. I am not a candidate for charity without which peace and friendship are impossible.

But there are two classes with which I wish to reason. On the one hand there are those who condemn me for having my name erased; on the other, there are those who have used abroad ready to denounce me because I refused to be made a spectacle for sport. I am not a spectacle
