ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS.

[illegible]

We have a rogue's gallery in the Mercury office—Hayes and his Cabinet.

The poll books show that about fifty voters, in both parties refused to record their votes for Judge.

A PROMINENT Democrat in Blue Licks who did not indorse our opinion of the regulators, has stopped his paper. How many lovers of law and order will make it good by sending us their names, accompanied with two dollars. We will always be found on the side of civilization, hurt who it may.

As we have been trying to furnish the people with news every morning by the publication of the Camp Meeting Daily, we hope our readers will excuse us if we have not an entirely different lot of items from that contained [illegible]

Johnson and Martin.

On motion of L. M. Campbell, Judge B. G. Willis was chosen chairman and A. W. Bascom secretary.

On motion of H. C. Bruce September 12, 1878, was chosen as the day and Vanceburg as the place for holding said convention.

On motion of L. M. Campbell it was decided to allow each county one delegate for each 100 votes and for fraction over 50 votes cast for J. B. McCreary for Governor.

On motion of same it was ordered that county meetings be held in each county to select delegates in a uniform mode, and mass meetings be the mode, and the time to hold said County Convention be left to the various County Committees.

In view of Judge James Smith declining to act as Chairman of the District Committee Judge B. G. Willis, of Bracken county, was appointed to act in that capacity until after the Congressional Convention.

B. G. WILLIS, Chairman.
A. W. BASCOM, Secretary.

MRS. EMMA and Miss Carrie Boyd left Wednesday afternoon for Blue Lick Springs, where they will reign the balance of the week.

MR. T. P. TURMAN returned from the city on Monday, bringing a new lot of goods, among which was a new ceiling lamp for the Mercury office.

THE Clark County Democrat has a head which reads "Mouth of the Red River Items." The items have a head, "i's," mouth, "knows," "ears," and body, with sense and intelligence, and are therefore alive.

Col. J. N. Currant, of Forest Military Academy, of Anchorage, Ky., by mistake exchanged valises with a couple of sisters of charity who got off the train here Saturday, but the mistake was soon discovered by the kind sisters who sent him word to the camp ground of the whereabouts of his property.

SIXTY-FIVE houses were destroyed by the Catlettsburg fire. The total loss is $165,000—insurance, $44,450.

A SACRILEGIOUS typo, who has been employed on the Camp meeting Daily, gave in his experience with the Camp meeting as follows: "The first year I attended the Camp meeting I went with Tom Blank. He had a pint and I had a quart of whisky, and the wolves who didn't take any followed us around the [illegible]
