...Bonnie would n surprise you very much if Heidi you that I loved you? Why, I've loved you ever since that...
...ne, it would you surprise you very much to hear you say so; but I should n't wonder a bit.
...Yes, you were convinced of it long ago. Don't you remember how I used to...
...Well, I thought I'd let them think so. But, Barry, I do not love you well enough to make you my husband. I...
...I'm sorry for you."
...He turned her wondrously truthful eyes toward him, and kept them there for his face. The steady gaze...
...thought the color in them...
...It was hard; I ever done to forbear your respect?" he answered, after a painful pause.
...Nothing. And you have done nothing to gain it. You have...
...education, support of...ne anything to fit you for a useful life. You ought to be ashamed of yourself, Barry, instead of...
...ing on the offer of...ou cannot appreciate. You have...
...ed your self-respect, and...ne else has earned, and to...
...ne time which might be put to...
...Your mind seems to be...
...ed entirely with thoughts of...
...and appearance. You never did an hour's work in your life, Barry, you have not grown into the habit of working, and you are not going to do so, on ambition. I hate...
...ly, and I despise you."
...There's a letter to do, Bessie. That will be over; there isn't any doubt of it. Bessie is a hero nowadays. And Eaton knows that there is any thing to which he will not go to win...
...which he does not go handsomely. You would not become a machinist, like Ted Finch, would you?"
...I would have you become any thing you wished she...to show you how much I...
...and glory of the Autumn tresses of Lucifer...ne world, ringing in his ears...
...ing of 1870 brought with it...
...ness to the country generally, and to Abney Manson. One morning the...
...locks of Barlborough struck seven, but the whistle of the Barlborough iron-works did not echo the hour. The...
...the skirl of machinery was heard. There is the furnaces were out. The...
...were closed. Men stood about in...
...ly knots, anxious eyed and...
...ly. No fresh of them made their...
...ay's labor that they might not...
...ed for.
...Barlborough Barry Manson was still...
...ed, and that he should do to attend to the...
...ld, behold, the world...
...ed to him, and he...
...himself and famous but poor. And he...
...that fully knew what poverty meant, a great sorrow fell upon him, whose black shadow darkened his life...
...that could be known.
...The body of Abney Manson was found, stark and lifeless, in the office of the Barlborough iron works. On the floor, by all side, lay a pistol.
...The coroner's jury returned a verdict against the estate left the family of Abney Manson a...ne dollar.
..."We must give up the house, the furniture, everything, Barry," said Mrs. Manson, the next morning, bitterly.
...Then Barry pressed the hand of his mother, mid-...
...ing to say much and your best. Let them take all else. Trust provide for us both."
...The Barlborough iron works passed into the hands of a joint stock company. A experienced manager was engaged, who had practical knowledge of the business, and competent to raise the works to their old level of prosperity. For this responsible position there were duly applications. The directors were glad to select a man who had made to application.
...This was Frank Finch.
..."He's young," said the president of the board, "but he's reliable as an iron."
...The portly president intended to make that comparison "stand," but an irony struck him as more appropriate.
..."He is old enough to have known Barry Manson in search of employment.
..."I should have sent for you," said Tom, "but I didn't suppose you would accept the place. You shall take charge of the books, if you will, and help me in many ways. The position will pay you $1,200 a year only, but this is better than nothing."
..."Definitely," said Barry.
...And with that he threw away his eyes glasses, gave up all thoughts of authorship, and went to work in his father's old office, for the modest salary of twelve hundred dollars a week. It was to be presumed that book-keeping was not altogether a failure, but nobody ever heard his grumble; and he worked so diligently to learn the work that Tom Finch declared from the first that without Barry he should have a positive failure of the...
...superintendency. As it was he made the...ight concern of the Barlborough iron-works weathered the storm, and found smooth waters.
...Reading over his books Barry Manson recalled often that memorable afternoon when he and Bessie walked side by side under the overarching elms. He saw her but rarely now. The pride of College which a year had sent her, the one on responsibility which had come to him since that October day, had driven thoughts of self from their minds. As ever in his care-...
...rang those words. "I would have you become any thing to show yourself a man, Barry!"
...What shambles could he hope to achieve in the narrow confines of that office? What chance for learning over those musty books? What hope for fame adding long columns of figures? What noble aim in life by...ood earing for his dependent mother.
...Eighty three murderers, all men, were executed in the United States in 1877.
...Charles Sumner's father was the officer who guarded Major Andre at his execution.
...The debt of the city of New York reaches the enormous sum of $131,000,000.
...The cost to the State of Pennsylvania for the Fully cure in just down at $700,000.
...The Georgia House of Representatives there contains but three Republican members.
...The population of France on the last date of last year was 36,905,840; Paris 1,851,792.
...There is one saloon to every two hundred and eighty inhabitants in the United States.
...The premium on peas in Beecher's church, New York, fell off $1.00 on the second sale.
...Aimee is going to Brazil, and Mrs. Paiva wants Don to pack up and go traveling again.
...The oldest house in New England is said to be in Stamford, Connecticut. It was built in 1640.
...Joseph Wilcox, of Virginia, is said to be engaged marrying off his family of daughters.
...James Gordon Bennett is reported to be engaged to a barbedwire young French Baroness of Paris.
...William Cullen Bryant and Thurlow Weed are the oldest journalists in the United States, except Cridikers.
...Kansas farmers estimate corn at fifteen cents a bushel, at which price it is a cheaper fuel than wood or coal.
...Two more cases of cancer are reported in the town of Cleveland, Ohio, making the...
...Twenty-six Tid distilleries, thirty seven breweries, 240 wholesale liquor dealers and 4,324 saloons in Kentucky.
...The difference between a model woman and a women model is, one is a lady possessing virtues, the other is a naked fact.
...If the Philadelphia Ledger divided according to population there would be twenty-six manufacturers of paper bags earning money.
...Knapp, the cannon maker, says that Lord has been good to him, and makes less if war to help my poor family.
...A short time previous to the death of Pope, the Emperor Napoleon III, on the 5th of November, 1870, to the incredible flight of one hundred and twenty miles, in the short space of two hours. Custom House, and their surrender by an Administration which had...
...There is all doubt as to the passage through the Panama by a two-thirds vote, of the Silver Bill. It is the better opinion, perhaps that the necessary two-thirds is sure to carry the measure through over a veto, will not be forthcoming.
...Secretary Sherman and Controller Banks will receive subscriptions for the 4 per cent Government bonds to-day. Subscriptions will be received at eight depositories from any bank in sub-...
...Subscriptions will be received by the Secretary of the Treasury.
...During a thunderstorm two days ago the steeple of a church at Lexington, Ky., was struck by lightning and killed. Howling dogs attracted out this and gave an alarm in time here.
...Indian woman 100 years old died at Cincinnati recently, not so...ed in the interment of an Arapahoe woman whose last week, leading a procession of a dozen to mourn the...
...During a thunderstorm two days ago the steeple of a church at Lexington, Ky., was struck by lightning and killed. Howling dogs attracted out this and gave an alarm in time here.
...Indian woman 100 years old died at Cincinnati recently, not so...ed in the interment of an Arapahoe woman whose last week, leading a procession of a dozen to mourn the...
...Mr. Sumner, of the Chicago Times, is the latest authority for the fact that the Chicago fire was not caused by Mrs. O'Leary's cow. He says that the cow story was...
...Senator Wm. Montgomer came down to Old Kentucky with $5,000 to invest in blue grass, and declared all night at a dance that he was a Democrat.
...Mr. Sumner, of the Chicago Times, is the latest authority for the fact that the Chicago fire was not caused by Mrs. O'Leary's cow. He says that the cow story was...
...A curious Chicago lover wrote letters to a young woman on three different days, and accidentally put the wrong letter in each envelope. He comes at an acquaintance with the fact that the ladies showed have the work well started.
...The Duke of Argyle's ford now...
...Fred. D. Stuart, died on Saturday. He first came before the country in connection with the famous Whiskey Ring...
...Postmaster of Cincinnati at the time of the...
...against the estate left the family of Abney Manson a...ne dollar.
..."We must give up the house, the furniture, everything, Barry," said Mrs. Manson, the next morning, bitterly.
...Then Barry pressed the hand of his mother, mid-...
...ing to say much and your best. Let them take all else. Trust provide for us both."
...The Barlborough iron works passed into the hands of a joint stock company. A experienced manager was engaged, who had practical knowledge of the business, and competent to raise the works to their old level of prosperity. For this responsible position there were duly applications. The directors were glad to select a man who had made to application.
...This was Frank Finch.
..."He's young," said the president of the board, "but he's reliable as an iron."
...The portly president intended to make that comparison "stand," but an irony struck him as more appropriate.
..."He is old enough to have known Barry Manson in search of employment.
..."I should have sent for you," said Tom, "but I didn't suppose you would accept the place. You shall take charge of the books, if you will, and help me in many ways. The position will pay you $1,200 a year only, but this is better than nothing."
..."Definitely," said Barry.
...And with that he threw away his eyes glasses, gave up all thoughts of authorship, and went to work in his father's old office, for the modest salary of twelve hundred dollars a week. It was to be presumed that book-keeping was not altogether a failure, but nobody ever heard his grumble; and he worked so diligently to learn the work that Tom Finch declared from the first that without Barry he should have a positive failure of the...
...superintendency. As it was he made the...ight concern of the Barlborough iron-works weathered the storm, and found smooth waters.
...Reading over his books Barry Manson recalled often that memorable afternoon when he and Bessie walked side by side under the overarching elms. He saw her but rarely now. The pride of College which a year had sent her, the one on responsibility which had come to him since that Oc

WASHINGTON LETTER

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF COURIER JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29, 1878.

Secretary Sherman's subordinates in New Orleans, including J. Madison Wells, are now in this city. Wells is a bought refugee in the United States from the charges he has offended in one of the State of Louisiana. It is fitting that the Custom House, the Louisiana Recurring Board. The...ember is due to the reform...ministration of Mr. Hayes, which is the direction of the...ers of those criminals, did not...ent to...ge to the...ulent...ers of Louisiana. Under the...ers Custom House, and their surrender by an Administration which had...

There is all doubt as to the passage through the Panama by a two-thirds vote, of the Silver Bill. It is the better opinion, perhaps that the necessary two-thirds is sure to carry the measure through over a veto, will not be forthcoming.

Secretary Sherman and Controller Banks will receive subscriptions for the 4 per cent Government bonds to-day. Subscriptions will be received at eight depositories from any bank in sub-...

Subscriptions will be received by the Secretary of the Treasury to-day.

During a thunderstorm two days ago the steeple of a church at Lexington, Ky., was struck by lightning and killed. Howling dogs attracted out this and gave an alarm in time here.

An Indian woman 100 years old died at Cincinnati recently, not so...ed in the interment of an Arapahoe woman whose last week, leading a procession of a dozen to mourn the...

During a thunderstorm two days ago the steeple of a church at Lexington, Ky., was struck by lightning and killed. Howling dogs attracted out this and gave an alarm in time here.

An Indian woman 100 years old died at Cincinnati recently, not so...ed in the interment of an Arapahoe woman whose last week, leading a procession of a dozen to mourn the...

Mr. Sumner, of the Chicago Times, is the latest authority for the fact that the Chicago fire was not caused by Mrs. O'Leary's cow. He says that the cow story was...

Senator Harding, Chanfelford and Bonner.

"Duncan Harding, Horace Robertson, counsel for Mrs. Bonner, Feb. 1, 1872, to Horace Harding. He early education to...

...ation to lower degree...

...ation to lower degree...

...ation to lower degree