Frankfort Letter

DEAR MERCURY:

There is much being said about the General Assembly having decided to purchase the publication known as the "Legislative Digest," at a cost of ten dollars for each Senator and Member. Before I say a word I wish to say that today I would be chief of the Senate but for the managers and publishers of this "Digest." They put the rollers under me good and strong and sent me down the toboggan in quick time; but with all this I wish to say that the "Digest" is the best thing in its line I have ever known. To a Legislator, or any one else who wishes to keep thoroughly posted on matters legislative, it is almost indispensible. For fear my readers may not appreciate my merits, I will give one sample from its pages. I take S. B. 77, which has passed both Houses and is now in hands of the Governor. The record reads:

"S. B. No. 77, C. M. Thomas, Rockcastle, Provides for which is known as indeterminate sentences for convicted persons. Jan. 12, date reading, ordered printed. Jan. 26, second reading, Printed and Engrossed. Jan. 28, passed, 27 yeas, 1 nay. Jan. 31, ordered printed. Feb. 1, ordered printed. Feb. 2, Engrossed Bill. House of Reform. Feb. 3, passed House. Feb. 3, reported to Senate, enrolled, signed by the Speakers and presented to the Governor for his approval."

Every bill introduced is thus followed up and published each morning, and when the Legislature adjourns the last day's Digest will enable any one to know the fate of any bill. I have known the Legislature to pay thousands of dollars for newspapers to publish each day's proceedings and when they were published a member had about as much information as a coffin man field hand could get from the hieroglyphics on an Egyptian monument. The Digest is the thing, but its publishers care no nothing, and I am indebted to them in the same amount.

Now let's get down to politics. The session is drawing to a close and the folks are talking of what will be the result on the Democratic party in the next election. Folks are talking loud about defeating the Democratic party because the County Unit bill was not passed. Of course, most of my readers know how I have been denounced as "no Democrat," but my record will appear as pure as the air of a May morning when compared with a Democrat who will vote to defeat his party ticket because three or four Democrats violated alleged pledges. I would like to know how they are going to support the Republican party when enough Republican Senators voted against the Unit bill to kill it. If these Republicans had joined the anti-saloon forces the bill would have passed the Senate. In the House the same thing happened. In a half-dozen attempts to get a Tax-Bill vote to call the bill out of its regular order enough Republicans voted "no" to defeat the motion. Those who are thinking of punishing the Democratic party and going over to the Taft, Cannon, Aldrich, Republican State administration party, are asked to stop and consider.

Then did they ever stop and think why men differ with them on the County Unit bill? Without endorsing their views I will give my readers some of the reasons why men think the County Unit bill ought not to become a law. In their argument they say "what's the use." Many counties outside of the cities have votes enough to overrule the city vote, and may vote "no license." The city is dominated by a majority, who do not want the law enforced, and no officer who will enforce the law can be elected, and law violation becomes a common thing, and young men grow up to be natural law breakers and perjurers, if not night drinkers. They say that cities like Carlisle, 5th class can enforce the law, but in cities like Paris, Lexington, Maysville, &c., the law becomes a farce.

I want it distinctly understood that I do not make this statement as my own, but it is what "they say." When it comes to whisky or no whisky, I wish there was not a drop on the earth, but when it comes to saying whether whisky shall be sold with or without license I am of the opinion that high license and strict regulation in time will be adopted. The Waggoner County Unit bill passed the House Saturday, being called up by a Democratic Committee and passed by a Democratic House. I would like to ask, the Anti-Saloon people if the Democratic party is not to be given any credit for this act?

I want to tell the Anti-Saloon people a solemn fact or so, and I don't want them to get mad at me for it. There are not twenty-five real, earnest anti-saloon people in the General Assembly. They are voting for the County Unit bill through fear or because of a promise forced from them during the campaign, and when they learn that one can be elected without making pledges and that the voting power are not so strong as represented, then look out.

Senator Mathers has introduced a bill to correct a number of errors in the school law passed last session, but it stands a poor show of passing. Among other things he provides for the election of white school trustees by white voters and colored trustees by colored voters, and also provides for children living along the county lines attending school at the nearest school house even if it is in another county. This is a very much needed and correct law, but as I said before it stands little chance getting a favorable consideration.

Some weeks ago I mentioned some of the bright young members I had come to know and at the same time I promised to mention others as I became better acquainted with them. Love-ing looked some off the best in the bunch. I desire now to mention as coming men, Victor Bradley, of Scott, one of the bright young Attorneys of the House; O. H. Brooks, of Graves, who is serving his second term with distinction; J. Frank Brown, serving his second term from Nelson; T. Buford, a second termer from Franklin; L. H. Carter, who does not lay claim to extreme youth, having served one term as Sergeant from Anderson, and as such was Speaker protem of the Senate, and acting Governor for a time; he is a prospective candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General; George G. Frazier of Metcalfe; C. W. Fulton, of Fleming; H. T. Martin of Marion; S. D. Hines, of Hardin; Green; L. Littrell, editor of the Owen Democrat, author of the bill to pension the Confederate soldiers, and one of the most attentive and efficient Representatives; Hugh Mahin of Jessamine; D. G. McVean of Kenton, Frank S. Moore of Fulton; Harry J. Myers of Kenton; M. F. Pogue of Crittenden County, served three terms as Assistant Clerk of the House, and is now serving his second term as a Member; J. F. Porter, of Webster, serving his second term in the House, having heretofore served a term as Senator; Samuel L. Robertson of Louisville; S. M. Russell of Todd, serving his third term in the House, and has a record second to no man in the body; G. C. Waggoner of Henry county, Author of the Anti-Saloon league fight, a minister of the gospel, serving his second term; L. W. Withers of Meade; R. L. Harris of Mercer; Lucien P. Nixes of Henderson, and others I have doubtless overlooked. With the exception generally heaped upon Members of the Legislature, I am sure a number of them will come to the front in Kentucky's future political contests, and some of them write their names high upon the roll of honor.

The friendship of Jas. E. Stone, the efficient Clerk of the House of Representatives are talking of him as a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and we think it is time for this splendid public servant something worth while. He served for years as deputy County and Circuit Clerk of Breckinridge County, is about the best scribe in Kentucky, and is fully qualified and equipped for the place.

Hon. J. Campbell Cantrill, Congressman from the Lexington district, has announced for re-election, and it looks non as though he would not have any serious opposition. Mr. Cantrill, is one of the best equipped men for the position he occupies, and taking the prominent part he has in behalf of the large agricultural interests he represents, he should be re-elected unanimously. He has some very important matters under way, and he should be given every opportunity to complete them. The Ashland district will do itself credit and the great farming interests of Kentucky a favor, by sending Mr. Cantrill back to Congress.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, Death has again invaded Carlisle Tent, No. 66, Knights of the Maccabees, and taken from us the spirit of our picket, Sir Knight James T. Laughlin; and,

WHEREAS, In the death of Sir Knight Laughlin Carlisle Tent, No. 66, has lost its most faithful and devoted official and member, its most energetic and untiring worker, and its most beloved member, to whom its members were most devoted and to whose merit and welfare and interest of the Tent and its members were closer; and

WHEREAS, We realize that in his death the cause of brotherly love and fraternity has lost one of its greatest champions; be it

Resolved by this committee on behalf of Carlisle Tent, No. 66, that we do hereby express to the widow and little son of our deceased brother our sincerest sympathy in the loss of their great heart of loneliness and sadness, and that we extend to them in our sorrow the assurance that in a higher home of their husband and father we lost our fraternal brother, and, with them, our hearts are bleeding in sorrow and our hearts bleeding with sorrow; be it further

Resolved, That in the death of Sir Knight Laughlin, who was for many years our picket, we realize we have lost an officer and a member whose place we can not fill but with difficulty; and, be it

Resolved, That the charter of the Tent be draped in mourning and that the members wear the badge of mourning for thirty days; that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow of our brother, copies be given the local papers for publication, and a copy recorded on a memorial page of our records.

J. GARLAND BLAKE, Carlisle, Ky.

H. S. WEAVER

Resigns as Member of Board of Control.

Other Notes of Interest.

At a meeting of the Nicholas County Board of Control Wednesday, H. S. Weaver, who has been a faithful standby to the Bursley Society, handed in his resignation as a member, and was succeeded by C. E. Sanford, of Moorefield. He also resigned as a Trustee of the District Insane Hospital for Nicholas County, and Hendy Myers was appointed to fill out the unexpired time.

Mr. Weaver was one of the leading spirits in the inception of the Society, and has been faithful in his efforts to better the Society's condition. All during 1906-07 he was one of the few who had placed their shoulders to the wheel that felt confident that the farmers would win out, and by his confidence, the farmers stayed in the ship until the victory came. In his retiring from the Tobacco Society in this county, the farmers will lose a man, who, it would be safe to say, has done more good for them than any other man in this county. He has benefited those who have pooled their tobacco this season year, and at the same time those who did not pool their tobacco have been benefited.

W. G. Sanders and Mr. Watson, of Lexington, met with the Board of Control Wednesday, looking after the general interest of the Society.

Up till this week over a million and one half pounds of tobacco have been received at the different warehouses in this county. The tobacco is not so slow to come in, but now it is rolling in as fast as it can be handled.

There have been several crops of tobacco dumped in this county this year, and at the same time there have been a like number of suits brought. The cost in the only case that has been tried amounted to more than the $200. There is no way of getting out of paying, even if you sell your tobacco, so you had better stay with the Society as long as you are in it. The Board seems to possess all those who do well, so take warning.

Changed Her Mind.

Miss Carolyn Ross, daughter of Grant Ross, of Headquarters, was married last Thursday at the Burnett House in Cincinnati to Mr. C. O. Bryson, mail clerk on the Main line of the L. & N. with headquarters at Covington.

On the Saturday before Miss Ross was to be married, and during ceremonies, announcing her marriage to Dr. J. A. Anderson, of Manchester, Ky., which was to take place the following Tuesday at the Kimbrough Hotel. But on Sunday afternoon we received a telegram notifing us not print them as other arrangements had been made. Miss Ross is a very attractive young lady and has many friends throughout the county. Mr. Bryson is a brother, of Postmaster H. B. Bryson this city.

On Tuesday night Constable Thos. Hazeleigg and Deputy Sheriff Wm. Parker captured four gallons of whisky and about one dozen bottles of beer, as it was being unloaded at the residence of Wm. Walker on the "Dude" Walker and Wm. Ginn were arrested as the wet goods were in their possession. Walker was tried before Judge McNew and fined $50, and costs, he was fined $100 and costs, he was taken to jail. He took an appeal. Ginn was tried in our court. The trial of Ginn resulted in a hung jury. The second trial will be tried next Saturday.
