Special Judge Webb has decided that the bill to authorize the sending of one regular Judge to other than his own district to hold Court when the Judge of that district could not for any reason preside, to be constitutional. The case will not be appealed.

W. H. Hone, of Moorefield, has some very interesting letters from and in regard to the late "Mark Twain". The celebrated humorist was born at Florida, Mo., where Mr. Hone's, and Polly Buchanan lived, and it was this good woman who put the saddling clothes on the future great writer. Mr. Hone has a letter from Mr. Clemens thanking him for assisting in the identification of the house in which he was born.

State Senator C. W. Mathers, of Nicholas county, was in town Monday. He is being prominently mentioned as a possible democratic candidate for Congress next year. Monday that he had made an announcement. The democrats seem to be entirely at sea at present as to the selection of their nominee, while it is generally believed that Congressman Bennett will be renominated on the first ballot in the republican ranks. Cynthiana Democrat.

Shaking Hands With Governors

On Friday last the editor of the MERCURY met ex-Governor Beckham in Frankfort and after shaking hands with him and talking a minute or two passed on only to meet Governor Willson. After a hand shake and passing the compliments of the day we took train for Lexington, where we met, the Hon. Wm. Addams, of Cynthiana, who is a candidate for Governor. It would be quite an incident if we should have shaken hands with the ex, the present and the next Governor of Kentucky inside of two hours.

Hon. Wm. Addams for Governor

Hon. Wm. Addams of Cynthiana, had announced on a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky. Our readers will remember that several weeks ago we ran an article in connection with the race for Governor, and we will do no more now than to add that Mr. Addams is decided to permit the use of his name. Mr. Addams is not a politician, or is he connected with any machine or identified with any faction of the Democratic party, but is a hard business man, successful in all the undertakings of life, and at near a self made man as it is possible to be. If the people wish to secure the services of such a man as they are always taking about, they have the opportunity now to secure him, and Mr. Addams' race depends upon the unanimity with which the people take hold of it. He is not an orator, but a conservative and competent business man. Do you want him?

BIRTHS

DURHAM—On Saturday morning last to the wife of John B. Durham, near Moorefield, a son.

Dress Tears is a reason for the broad smile that Captain James Dunn of Paris wears. Dunn's mission in which he is dispensing so unstinted hospitality among his wide circle of friends—it's a beautiful baseball boy, born on the 30th. The young Democrat arrived yesterday at 10 a. m. and mother and child are doing nicely this morning, but there is danger of a sudden collapse of the over joyful Daddy. Are you Dunn or not Dunn?—Maysville Ledger.

MARRIAGES.

BOWEN-ROBERTS—At the residence of R. B. Templeman, on the 4th inst., Mr. Wm. Bowen and Miss Mary Roberts, daughter of Henry Roberts.

WILMOTH-HUNTER—In this city, on Thursday, April 28th, by Rev. Dr. Bonner, Mr. Robert G. Wilmott, of Neptun, and Miss Hunter, of Cincinnati, formerly of Fleming County.

FARMER-KINNEY—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Kenney, Wednesday, Mr. Nathaniel Fyrman and Miss Lola K. Kenney, both of this county.]

BUTLER-MILLER—At the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Hope Miller, of this county. The wedding was one of the handsomest home weddings ever witnessed in this section. A large number of friends and relatives were in attendance. The Miller home is a beautiful country place, with commodious grounds about it. It had been arranged to make the marriage a porch wedding, but as the weather conditions were unfavorable these plans were changed the evening before. Representatives from all the surrounding towns were present, including the grandmother and aunt, Mrs. Catherine Butler and daughter, Miss Julia, of Covington.

As the guests assembled they were welcomed by sweet strains of music from an orchestra from Lexington, and when the vows were given and Miss Ada, the bride's mother, near the parlor, where they were met by President C. C. Fisher, of the Millersburg Female College, who is a beautiful but simple ceremony made them one for life. Miss Miller wore a traveling suit of grey.

Mr. Butler is one of Bourbon's most substantial and successful young farmers, and a member of the firm of Butler, Clark & Miller.
