Editorial Correspondence

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 13, 1912

DEAR MERCURY:

As the session draws to a close and but few bills yet passed in the Houses no doubt our readers are greatly serious about nothing being done. While there is no doubt about some bills being needed, yet it would be better for the Commonwealth if only a few got through. The Constitution has so hampered the Legislature with restrictions that it takes the first half of the session to get bills ready for action and the great "rush of business" is done in the last ten or fifteen days and always to the great detriment of the people. In the hurry it often happens that a "joker" is slipped in.

The laws that were promised in the Democratic platform are being given the right of way and it is safe to say that most of the rest of all bills will be put on the backers, the bills of March. The Carroll Jail bill, which interests us more will be finally passed in this week, and it is my candidate that the Prohibitionist will be the first to ask the people of the Court of Appeals does not deprive it unconstitutionally, because, as it was drawn by the Attorneys of the Anti-Saloon League we all voted for it as the Democratic party promised in its platform.

The primary election law and the corrupt practice act are having trouble since the big party managers are opposing it there. It is not amusing to see the Democratic leaders fighting the clause that provides for the nomination of candidates for United States Senator, but no surprise to those who entertained when it is realized that they recognized the fact that their power to manipulate elections will depart when the people have the right to go to the polls and vote their unbiased or unpurchased sentiments. These two bills will end the careers of the political bosses of both parties and bring about the rule of the people. May the good Lord help us in this work.

Among the good bills introduced the past week is the Attachment to the Revenue Law prepared by Senator Mathers and introduced by our honest servant, as it being a revenue bill had to originate in the House. If we can succeed in getting this bill through it will put at our disposal thousands of dollars annually in our County road fund. It proposes to turn all license tax into the road fund and at the same time authorized the County Authorities to adopt a license law on vehicles, etc., used for public purposes. Senator Mathers is one of the hardest workers in the Senate and is always on the job.

A CORRECTION.

The following report in the Louisville Herald and Courier Journal of the discussion of the appropriation for the Children's Home Society of Louisville is not full enough to give a correct idea of the position of the undersigned. The bill which I opposed increased the annual appropriation for the benefit of said Society from $30,000 to $50,000. By my effort the appropriation was cut down to $30,000 additional or $50,000. I did not oppose the appropriation because I much improved Mrs. Mike Ryan and family arrived here Saturday night Miss Pearl Singer spent last Thursday with Miss Bessie Barnett enterthe Society but because I did not think the Treasury was in such condition to stand the extra demands being made on it. I wish to say that while I am not posing as the watchdog of the treasury but I have already raised something like $25,000 and before the session is over I expect to put increase the amount to over $50,000.

The statements I refer to read as follows:

The Herald said:

W. V. Berry's bill increasing the annual appropriation for the Kentucky Children's Home Society, with local counterparts in Louisville, from $30,000 to $50,000, was taken up in the House as whole. A special order 20 hours.

Representative Brion Brown said he would be among the last to be found in opposing anything against the children of the State, but he would like to know just how much salary George L. Sebree, superintendent of the home, drawn annually and just how much money is required to run the institution.

Green Kelley, of Carlisle, also contended his colleagues against voting on the measure, asserting that it cost was a lot of money.

"We keep jumping and jumping," said, "and the first thing we know it will be a million."

Mr. Kelley then moved that the same go into a committee of the whole to hear from Mr. Sebree on the merits of the home.

The Courier Journal:

HOUSE FOR APPROPRIATION BILLS

Bills calling for appropriations had rough sailing in the House today. One of them appropriating $50,000 for the benefit of the Children's Home Society was trimmed to the extent of the one-fifth another appropriating $10,000 for the use of the Kentucky State Fair was voted down by a vote of 45 to 41.

The anti-appropriation spirit being dormant for the past few days appeared alive in its might this morning. The figures produced in the Herald today had the effect of causing both Republicans and Democrats alike to sit up and take notice.

When the Kentucky Home Society bill came up in the House of Representatives, Brion Brown said he did not wish to appear in the light of opposing any work being done to make good citizens out of indigent children. He was not willing, however, to vote for an appropriation he was not sure about. He wanted to know how much salary Superintendent George L. Sebree was receiving for looking after children placed in the home and bringing them to private families willing to accept for them and whether or not it was greater than that paid to superintendents of various other charitable institutions of the State where duties involved a wider scope.

"A day or two ago," said Col. Kelley, "we put up $75,000 for a Governor's mansion. Now this, so far as acting of $60,000. In a little while it will be something for the State fair. They want, and tomorrow appropriations for the State University and Normal schools will be asked.

"I was asked by Mr. Sebree to introduce this bill but I told him that I could not conscientiously do it. I may vote against the bill because I would need a vote for the appropriation.

Burley Meeting Monday

Large Crowd Present

As was to be expected, under the prevailing circumstances—a most successful loose Leaf Tobacco Market just lately opened in agreity—a large crowd greeted President Lebus, Mr. Secretary Bruce and Director Byron, of the Burley Ten Year Movement, at the Court House here last Monday. Nicholas county was recognized the fact that their one of the most enthusiastic in the Burley Pool and they will find our people ready and willing to boost the movement that they have now on foot to build a Loose Leaf Warehouse. Rodryer or anything else that will get to help our city and county.

There has been quite a lot of stock lost in this neighborhood lately. Ed C. Buntin had a very valuable milch cow to die last Sunday. Dave Hamilton had two young heifers to die with the new disease that is killing so many young cattle this winter. L. D. Wyatt lost a horse one night last week. Ben Dorman had a calf to get hung in his barn while he was away for a few days. Beley Sharp had a load of tobacco to run off the pike at Henry's bill last Tuesday and upset, one horse was slightly hurt. Elek Stewart has moved in the bluff where he will engage in blacksmithing.

Parks Hill

Mrs. Granville Barnett is some sick. Mrs. Elizabeth Payne has been quite poorly.

Mrs. Mike Ryan and family arrived here Saturday night Miss Pearl Singer spent last Thursday with Miss Bessie Barnett enterfamed a few of her friends Tuesday night with a candy party.

Mr. Ray Singer and Miss Lou Kimes of this place went to New-port Wednesday Feb. 7 where they were married in the bluffs of wed lock, the Rev. Maxwell officiating. They returned here Saturday and are now at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Singer. The bride is an attractive young girl endowed with many attributes of mind and heart which, fit her admirably for married life. The groom is a worthy young man and is to be congratulated upon his selection of a helpmate and companion. Their many friends wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Carlisle as a Loose Leaf Tobacco Market

The market the past week was a "hummer" several crops averaging $20 per cwt.

The highest price paid for any one basket being $40.

The farmers are just beginning to realize what this market means to them.

Below we give another bunch of "Carlisle Booters," also some kind words from our friends and neighbors of Millersburg and surrounding territory.

Personally, we understand, has suggested that the Carlisle papers should ask the farmers their opinion of the market, but we don't think it necessary—as anyone, who cares to see, will but have to look up and down the rows of wagons loaded with tobacco, which line our streets and alleys, waiting to unload, more than speak for their part if you bring fertilizer to a Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse for sales, don't expect it to bring tobacco prices.

The Loose Leaf House, to our minds, is unquestionably a good thing for Carlisle and Nicholas county. All progressive, wide awake business men SHOULD and doubtless WILL give it their loyal support. The "knockers" had as well throw away their little hammers. For men with red blood in their veins have put their shoulders to the wheel and will MAKE it go. SEE?

Chappell & Tune.

To day we can stand and gaze with admiration and delight upon one of, if not the most complete Loose Leaf Warehouses in the State of Kentucky, a work that has been accomplished by the untiring efforts of a number of our representative citizens, of the different trades and professions of our splendid little City and County, and from the present indications is destined to be one of the best LOOSE LEAF TOBACCO MARKETS in the Burley district, an enterprise of which our entire county should be justly proud.

So here's hoping that its success may reach far beyond the most sanguine expectation of its Promoters, Stockholders and Patrons.

T. B. Mathers, H. M. Potts, J. H. E. Ewing.

We have nothing just at the present to barter Loose Leaf Warehouse. Nothing is too good for our City and County.

C. E. Butler & Co.

It is hard to boast when not needed—the Loose Leaf Warehouse is its own boaster. Wm. E. Fuller, Blue Grass Grocery.

Our people don't fully appreciate what the LOOSE LEAF TOBACCO WAREHOUSE STANDS for and DOES. Every one goes to show that Carlisle is the practical point for a Loose Leaf Tobacco market.

D. Howe.

We notice decided improvement of last January business and we contribute it to the Farmers Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse.

Tilton & Allen.

"It was asked by Mr. Sebree to introduce this bill but I told him that I could not conscientiously do it, I may vote against the bill because I would need a vote for the appropriation.

County School News

We failed to give the names of those who successfully passed the County Diploma examination in January. They are as follows: Div. A—Calvert Thomas, Mt. Carmel, E. R. Sparks, teacher; Eliza Fretwell and Grace Patrick, Rose Hill, Miss Hester Patrick.

Div. B—Frank Scott and Elmer Fulton, Goose Creek, Miss Ella Mann, teacher. Ed Mann and Lucien Flora, Pleasant Valley, Miss Cordia Bell, teacher.

Div. C—Pearl Woodall, Nannie Minton, Locust Grove, Miss Minnie Highland, teacher; Rebecca Wade, Jordon, Miss Miranda Jones, teacher; Luther Thompson, Maude Grove, Miss Etta Bell, teacher; Lutie Ockermirn, Moorefield, Miss Bettie Durrum, teacher; Bassil Crouch, Brumbleit, Miss Ruth Davis, teacher.

Div. D—Howard Willis, Russell Willis and Oscar Duncan, Mt. Vernon, Miss June Berry, teacher; Mathew Shannon, Moorefield, Miss Mollie Woodall, teacher; Claude Sapp, Taylors Creek, Miss Anna Mathias, teacher; Tom Feather and Robert Thompson, Wilson School, Miss Nellie Clancey, teacher.

The first honor was won by Ed Mann, Pleasant Valley, whose average was 95.3-10, second by Frank Scott, Goose Creek, 84.4-7, third by Claude Sapp, Taylors Creek, 83.3-10.

Most distant pupil to school, Mt. Vernon, 83.1-5, Rebecca Wade, 82.5. All of the applicants in May make higher general average than the above then the honors will change.

Next week we shall publish the number of pupils second in graduates now in the county giving the number in each division.

Most of the teachers have turned in their sixth month's report, their annual report and the Nicholas County Board of Education would have been in the hands of the Board if we had agreed with the Board when we came into office and had agreed and furnished transportation for the Barterville and Moorefield consolidated schools. But we held out that it was not fair nor practicable and we opposed it until we won a majority of the members of the Board on our side thereby saving the members of the Board from being called back money which would have been illegally spent. We are for good schools, and we are sure that every citizen of Nicholas county knows that we have worked very hard for better; and we have had the hearty support and co-operation of our County Board; and we have always held that the most careful judgment should be used by those handling the county school money derived from a general tax, and to use it so as to benefit the entire county, rather than to use it in certain parts of a county and let other parts go, because we should not be money enough to do the same for all. We think that all should share as equally as possible.

Miss Lena and Maggie Hopkins left Monday to enter State Normal Bros. Corders.

RELIGIOUS.

Eld W. G. Eldred's subject for next Sunday morning, at the Christian church is "The Glory of Christ." No service at night on account of the Revival at the Methodist church.

The services at the Methodist church, which have been continued for two weeks to large crowds, and great interest is now in a mild revival. Mr. Hopper preached two able and interesting sermons Sunday, and everybody is delighted with him as an oratorical evangelist. Much good is expected to result from this revival. The music is fine, and the Evangelist's solos add much to the interest in the meetings.

OUR NEW CITY BUILDING

The above cut is an excellent likeness of our proposed new City Building, on which work will begin as soon as weather will permit. It will be built on the old I. B. Piper lot adjoining the Methodist church, on Maple street, and will be one of the most complete and up-to-date buildings in our city.

Fire Wednesday night

The two story frame residence of W. F. Megeman, on West main St., was totally destroyed last Wednesday morning at about 2 o'clock. For a while the residence of Dr. G. F. Spencer was in much danger and everything was moved out, but after the fire engine got to work it was soon out of danger. The dwelling was insured for $1,500 by the Home Insurance Co. N. Y., represented by Jno. Mosaic Big Foot Fire Agency and was promptly adjusted and paid in full last Monday.

The Carlisle Fire Company is certain to be complimented for their quick and efficient work at the fire.

A Deserved Promotion

The following is a copy from the Advocate last week. It were too modest to make any note of the compliment to our boy. Our account of our show family relation.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Ingold Bank, this city, W. R. Ratliff was elected President to the ensuing year. M. C. Business, Vice Pres., and Jas. Fox, of the board. Mr. R. R. was continued Cashier, C. L. Ford and W. A. Parker, bookkeeper. Henry M. Potts, who has held the position of Teller, was appointed Cashier and Teller in succession of his many years straightness and faithful service. This promotion will pass on to our friend Potts; and also to succession of approval of the action of the board.

Two Hurt in Wreck

As a result of a wreck which occurred Saturday morning near New Forrest, a flag station on the Maysville Division of the Louisville Nashville, Conductor Ed Tingle, of this city was injured about the head and shoulders and Miss Georgia Atkinson, of Carlisle, had several teeth and suffered several severe bruises.

The wreck was the result of rear-bound passenger train No. 2 "sidewiping" the westbound freight which was taking the siding at New Forrest.

The passenger train was in charge of Engineer E. R. Rogers and Conductor Speed Hisker, and was due to arrive in Paris at 1:22. The trains had meeting orders at that point, and the fact that a more serious wreck was prevented was due to the passenger slowing up speed.

The freight train was entering the siding when the passenger train on the main line struck the caboose, overturning the engine of the passenger and the freight cars loaded with merchandise.

Conductor Tingle suffered several severe bruises, which are however not of a serious nature. He was brought to his home in this city. Miss Adam Cat, who is cashier of the Nicholas Home Telephone Co., in this city, was coming from her home at Carlisle. None of the other passengers or trainmen were hurt. A wrecking crew was sent to the scene from this city and it was several hours before the track was cleared.
