Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted one, two and three days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anything. In 6 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weeks years! Could relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Letters From Our Friends

Somerset, Pulaski Co., Ky.
Feb. 3, 1912.

Dear Editor:

Religion is in good shape in this section of Pulaski. Brother Mercer is now in a protracted meeting at Mt. Zion church and is doing the preaching himself. Brother Mercer is a good preacher and a good man. He is a good man to have in a community. He is a good citizen and a good neighbor. He is a good husband and father. He is a good man all around. He is a good preacher
