Opening Of The Tobacco Market

We would urge upon the people of Carlisle, and of the County, the importance of attending the opening sales at the local tobacco warehouses next Tuesday. Whether you be farmer or merchant or professional man, as a citizen of Nicholas County, you are interested in any event or institution which makes for the growth or financial betterment of town or county.

By your presence in town and on the markets on that day, you will be lending your support and encouragement to an undertaking, which from all indications, is destined to mark an epoch in the business history of the community.

A Plea for a New High School Building

This week in Louisville, there is being held a Child's Welfare Association of the State of Kentucky. It is the first meeting of its kind in this State.

As we stop to think, isn't it strange that for so many years we have been satisfied with the child's welfare? Isn't it strange still if we have not been satisfied, that we have not done something to help them and—their parents?

While we are interested in this meeting, we expect much good to come out of it, we are very much concerned about the boys and girls of Carlisle and Nicholas County.

We boast, and rightly so, that Carlisle is on a boom. From our county papers we have read with much pleasure the present increase in population, the many new buildings that have been and are being erected. We have seen the fruits of a few men's minds developed and ripened into one of the largest, strongest, and best tobacco markets in the State. With a feeling of pride we look upon our new City Hall, and the many new and modern homes in our town. All these things, we repeat, cause our hearts to swell with pride, and at this time of the year especially, lead us to say, "We are thankful we are citizens of this town and community."

May I, as one who is altogether interested in the welfare of the boys and girls of this town and County, not ask you through the columns of the MERCURY to pause and ask yourselves this question, "Are we doing all that we can to develop the jewels of our homes, our boys and girls?" I answer that question, we are not. What then can be done? Here is the thought. I wish each man, woman, and child would read and study.

In this progressive age, when Industry is carrying about in giant and unmatchable times that the youth of this town and County be as well equipped for the activities of life. I am prepared to say that this, under the present regime cannot be done satisfactorily.

We are are crowded, we need a new High School building, equipped from the basement to the attic with every modern convenience. We need such a building, that ALL the boys and ALL the girls may, under its roof, find something that may awaken in them a desire to develop those qualities to which they are best adapted—Manual training, domestic science, agriculture, music and drawing, a gymnasium and many things we are now unable to teach.

If I read the signs of the times aright, in five years there will be from 150 to 250 students in the High School. Remember this is sincerely hoped for the future. Is it not time we were planning for this? Shall we have come to the conclusion we must—that the time is now at hand for the erection of such a building, then let us not falter nor fail, but all let work earnestly and faithfully that our boys and girls may have the heritage which they so well deserve.

R. DEAN SQUIRES.

Let Us Not Neglect The Children

We wish to call attention to the able and timely article, by Prof. R. Dean Squires on the need of a new High School building in Carlisle. Of paramount importance in the building of Community, State and Nation are their school facilities. In this connection, the following extract from an editorial, appearing in the Lexington Herald, of Wednesday, November 27th, and dealing with the tremendous importance of the Child's Welfare Exhibit now in session at Louisville, may be aptly quoted.

"That the children of The Blue Grass should not be so well cared for as are the calves, should not be thought so valuable as is tobacco, should not be given the consideration that is the thoroughbred, should not be such a source of pride as is the whisky, may possibly pierce the shield of self conceit and dent the armour of indifference which too many of us in the Blue Grass wear as a badge of our knighthood."

Let Nicholas, that for the size of the town, probably the best graded school in the State, there is yet room for improvement in the way of additional facilities.

Mr. Squires' article is worthy of a thoughtful reading.

As Others See Us

As a newcomer in the field of country newspaperdom, we feel that we may take paderalate pride in the following opinion, expressed by some of our contemporaries:

Warren Fisher has purchased of the heirs of the late Green Kelley, the plant of the Carlisle Mercury and will continue its publication. The Mercury is one of the best known newspapers in the State. Mr. Fisher is a native of North Middletown, but for some time was connected with the Lexington Leader, and is a splendid young newspaper man. He is well known in this section and his entry into the journalistic field as a publisher will be of interest to many friends here.—[Mt. Sterling Gazette.

The Carlisle Mercury, one of the most widely known and read weekly papers in Kentucky, has been sold to Warren Fisher, a graduate of Transylvania University, Lexington, and a number of years connected with the Lexington Leader. The Mercury was for thirty years edited by Hon. Green E. Kelley, who died recently, and his son, Stanley V. Kelley, who was a partner in the business, decided to retire from the active management of the business, hence the sale of the property. Mr. Fisher will continue the paper under the name of the Carlisle Mercury. We wish for him much success, and for Mr. Kelley who retires.—[Bath County World.

The Carlisle Mercury, one of our most valued exchanges edited for 30 years by the late Green R. Kelley, has been sold to Warren Fisher of Louisville.—[Dover News.

The Carlisle Mercury for a number of years has been one of the most widely known and read weekly papers in Kentucky, but under the direction of Colonel Kelley, his son, S. W. Kelley, who was a partner in the printing business, decided to retire from the active management of the paper, and today the deal was closed. Mr. Fisher is a graduate of Transylvania University of Lexington and was for a number of years connected with the Lexington Leader. He is one of the most promising young newspaper men in Kentucky.—[Lexington Herald.

The Carlisle Mercury, for thirty years edited by Green R. Kelley, has been sold by S. W. Kelley to Warren Fisher, son of John I. Fisher, and the new partner has taken possession.

During the life of Mr. Keller the Carlisle Mercury has been one of the ablest and the best conducted newspapers in Kentucky, and now with Mr. Fisher as editor, we predict a continuance of the prestige and enviable place the Mercury has enjoyed for many years among Kentucky newspapers.

We have known Mr. Fisher for several years. He was the able editor of the Transylvanian while the college publication was at its best. Afterward he was connected with the Lexington Leader. At all times he has shown exceptional ability, and we know Mr. Fisher will be a worthy successor to the distinguished gentleman who raised the Mercury to the high position it now occupies.—[Paris Democrat.

Bank Overdrafts

Owing to recent rulings of the State Banking Department, the Frankfort, we find it necessary to discontinue the privilege heretofore granted many of our depositors of overdrawing upon their accounts; and we therefore take occasion to this publicly give notice that such practice can no longer be allowed.

Aside from the banking Commissioners' disfavor, experience has shown that the custom has been a source of inconvenience and more or less worry to the banks—to give the details of which would make this notice too lengthy—and has also encouraged a degree of business inattention, sometimes even improvidence in expenditures, which has proven unsatisfactory to many customers.

We kindly ask for the co-operation of our friends in this matter, which will be fully appreciated.

Very Respectfully,
Deposit Bank of Carlisle, Ky.
Deposit Bank of Moorefield, Ky.

An enjoyable musical program will be given at the Graded School Auditorium Thursday night by Miss Esther Neil, violinist, of Millersburg, and Miss Blair, assisted by Miss Katherine Harper, and the Carlisle Orchestra.

The boy's appetite is often the source of amazement. If you would have such an appetite take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only create a healthy appetite, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. For sale by Chas. E. Butler & Co.

The usual chapel services at the Carlisle Graded School, wednesday, were varied with exercises appropriate to the Thanksgiving season. The exercises were given by pupils of the Primary Grade.

A collection for the benefit of the Kentucky Childrens Orphan Home, at Louisville, was taken, during the Chapel hour.

Only A Fire Hero

but the crowd cheered, as, with burned hands, he held up a small coal but, "Fellows!" he shouted, "This Rockin's Arnica Salve, I hold, has everything beat for burns." Night also for boils, ulcers, sores, pimples, eczema, cuts, sprains, bruises. Surely the cure. It subdues inflammation, kills pain. Only 25 cents at All Druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCunnaghan, of the Jackstown neighborhood, gave a dinner party last Monday in honor of their daughter, Pauline Hawes's, seventh birthday. The invited guests were: Claude Crouch and wife, of Mt. Sterling, L. P. Hamm and wife, Hugh Jas. Smith, Andrew McCunnaghan, Mrs. Sarah Lawless and Dr. Frank Reynolds. The little lady was the recipient of a number of pretty gifts.

Public Sale Of Land
Saturday, Nov. 30, at 10:30 a. m.
Having decided to move from Nicholas county, I will offer at PUBLIC SALE my farm of 233 acres lying within 3 mile of Moorefield, Ky., 100 acres of this farm has been in bluegrass for many years. The balance of this land is in clover and timothy meadow and in a high state of cultivation. Much of this land is comparatively new.
This farm has no improvements but one tobacco barn which will hold seven acres.
There are on the front of the place 30 acres of woodland containing two of the most beautiful building sites in Central Kentucky.
This farm lies on the Carlisle & Sharpsburg turnpike six miles from Carlisle and less than one-half mile from churches, graded school, stores, etc. Telephone and rural delivery. An ideal place to erect a country home.
This farm will be offered in two tracts and as a whole. Sale on premises at or near tobacco barn. Will be glad to show the farm to any prospective buyer at any time prior to the day of sale.
TERMS 1-3 cash, balance in two equal payments, one and two years, with lien retained on land for deferred payments or purchaser may pay all CASH.
For any further particulars address me at Carlisle, Ky.
