A NEW EVENT.

THE MERCURY enters upon its fifth year of existence with the present issue. It has been a struggle for the office of Commissioner to a majority of the Democratic delegates elected to the Convention.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

We take pleasure in announcing that we have made arrangements to publish, in connection with the MERCURY, the Cincinnati Weekly Times, one of the most reliable and influential newspapers published in the United States, containing the latest and most important telegraphic news, and a full report of the Cincinnati Market. To those who are not familiar with the character of the Weekly Times, it would say it is the best representative of independent journalism in the West.

The Weekly Times is a large eight column folio, "stands full" of telegraphic and general news, has numerous articles each issue, and all the political matter on the topics of the day, and is conducted with such marked ability that it has become a favorite with the people wherever it has been introduced. Without in any way, without its columns, and does not in any way hinder its hands member of the Democratic party. "A newspaper for the people." Let us do more, equal to the occasion.

We feel that all our readers will appreciate the opportunity of securing a weekly paper of such high character, and we have no doubt that many will take advantage of the offer.

Specimen copies of the Weekly Times will be sent to any address on application.

Subscriptions for the Weekly Times will be received at this office.
