Public Sale of Land

February 6th

On February 6th, 1915, at 10 o'clock a. m., we will offer for sale on the premises to the highest and best bidder, the tract of land known as the W. W. Herron and Eleanor Hamm farm, containing 56 2-3 acres, being at the forks of the Maysville & Lexington and Carlisle & Sharpsburg turnpike roads in Nicholas County, Kentucky, about 2 1-2 miles from Carlisle.

There is located on this farm a seven (7) room dwelling house, all necessary outbuildings, a large tobacco barn which contains a ruble of brick scales, and also a small tenant house. All of which farm is under fencing, and all in grass, no part of same having been plowed for twelve years, and the greater part of same being suitable for cultivation in tobacco. This is one of the best watered farms in Nicholas county and is splendidly located for a home.

TERMS—One-half (1-2) thereof cash; and the remainder due in one and two years, bearing 6 per cent interest from March 1st, 1915. In default of any deferred payment being paid when due, the payee of the notes may declare all due and payable, at their option. Said notes are to be executed, one-half (1-2) thereof to Mrs. Annie Deerwester and one-half (1-2) thereof to Mrs. Lizzie Campbell. The purchaser has the right to pay cash if he so desires.

Possession of said farm to be given March 1st, 1915.

was that of the sonofabitch, a sullen mountaineer. It was the same breeze of heathen hatred, who recognize in man, other the head of a serious foe.

The boy and the girl, under Lincoln's direction, packed the assist and stored the canoes in the protecting top of the box. Then, while Sally turned and strode down creek in search of Lee and his best mount, the two men redoubtoriam in silence. Finally Samson spoke slowly and deliberately.

"Stranger," he ventured, "of hit hain't asinin' too much, yill yer let me see yo paint one of them things?"

"Gladly," was the prompt reply.

Then the boy added concerning Lincoln's generosity, "Dad's mighty fond of his gun—and a strange man had jolted dad another."

"Evenin', stranger," they greeted him, gravely, when he again lifted his hat, and in their silence was evident curiosity.

"This bear man's a furriner," explained Samson, briefly. "He is often a rock on yer gut hitch. I knew a fur-trim fellu home yer afor yesterday."

The objects man who had hailed the boy modeled his with an awkward caution. It seemed that to him the

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Cedar Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for its prompt, and quick action. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without
