THURSDAY, JUNE 12,1879

We have no usury elections. We had one too many last Monday week.

We now have a Republican Criminal Judge and a Republican Circuit Judge, both elected in a district with 1,500 Democratic majority. Now let us have bayonets at the polls.

Music is a "case by point." A Detroit editor got drunk the other day and told all the secrets of his printing office, and then wondered how they got out. Last week DAVIS went into the Republican office after a long absence,
