NEIGHBORING COUNTIES

ROBERTSON

The Mt. Olivet circuit of the M. E. Church, South, raised $1,200 in the educational drive of the church.

Charlie H. Stone of Cynthiana purchased the residence of Col. W. A. Dudley on Mt. Olivet for $1,925.

H. N. Rankin, of Carlisle, bought last week of Charlie Bradley, of Paris, a horse known many for $90, and from Carlie Woodward, of Central Ridge, a brown mare for $125.

BATH

The proprietors of the meat shops and groceries in Owingsville have decided to keep their places of business closed all day on Sundays.

The Owingsville chautauqua begins on Wednesday, June 29, and will continue for six days.

Lightning struck and killed Minor, a 20-year-old mare, at the home of Thomas Wells last week.

Miss Ruth Bishop, Mrs. O. B. Bishop of Greater City, a daughter, was married—to Edna Sweigart and Mrs. Burton Goldich, and Miss May Spencer and Mr. Rudy Butcher, all of Bath county, at Winchester.—Miss Ella Tapp, of Owingsville, and Mr. Virgil Peterson, of Bourbon county, at Winchester.—Miss Minnie Sharpe and Mr. Charley Mann, both of Bath at Owingsville.

Mrs. Robert Elder Kline, 50, at her home in Sharpsburg.—Mr. A. J. Garrett, 82, at his home at Stepstone.

FLEMING

J. W. Myall, merchant at Nepton, was severely burned about the hand and arm last week when he attempted to turn off the gasoline lamp at his store. When Mr. Myall turned out the light, gasoline ran onto his arm and burned him.

The summer normal school for teachers of Fleming county opened at the graded school building in Flemingsburg last week with about thirty teachers in attendance. Prof. Oliver of Middlesboro, and Prof. Arnold, of Flemingsburg, are instructors.

Fleming county has issued 748 automobile licenses and 51 truck licenses, according to a report issued by the county clerk last week.

Burton—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Story, of Sherburne, a son.—To Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Tally, of Poplar Ridge, a daughter.

Married—Miss Jodie Fryman and Mr. George Jolly, bothof the Cowan vicinity.—Miss Elizabeth Owens and Lee Coulter Jordan, both of Flemingsburg.

Died—Mr. F. E. Hazen, 56, of Fleming county, at a Lexington hospital.—Mr. Marshall Markwell, 60, at his home in Flemingsburg.

Near Moon Mills, Sam Ratliff was severely injured when he fell from the top of a house.

HARRISON

John Stubert, colored, narrowly escaped death when his wagon in his driving was struck by a passenger train in Cynthiana last Thursday morning. He jumped from the wagon just before it was struck. The horse was killed and the wagon was demolished.

Richard Ancmerman of the freshman class of the Cynthiana high school, won the medal for the highest mark in first year Latin at the Latin tournament held in Lexington recently.

Mrs. George Sanbaumer, aged 80 years, fell at the home of her daughter in Cynthiana and fractured her hip.

Robert Conway, member of the 1921 graduating class, has been elected assistant secretary of the Cynthiana Chamber of Commerce.—Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams, of Cynthiana, a daughter.

Married—Miss Mary Pearl, of Pleigh, and Mr. Boyd Faulconer, of Bradley, at Cynthiana.—Miss Marguerite Reed and Mr. John Alvin Grover, both of Cynthiana, at the home of the bride.

Died—Mrs. Will P. Conway, formerly of Cynthiana, at a Lexington hospital.—Mrs. George Tucker, 80, a native of the civil war, at the home of her's house in Dayton, Ohio, where he went two months ago.—Mrs. Cynthia Jane Moore, 57, at her home in Claysville.—Mr. Felix C. Lake, 55, at his home near Robinson.—Mr. David Poindexter, 80, at his home in the Republican vicinity.

BOURBON

An affirmed judgment of the circuit court of Bourbon and Nicholas counties in favor of Mrs. Mary Lee Bennett, of Fayette county, last March in which Mr. G. Wagner, of Paris, was Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Grizzle and William Dove were injured, there will have to be filed against the L. & N. R. R. Co. for damages aggregating $97,000.

William A. Jones, twenty-year-old boy, fired and missed on the farm of John Wiggins, near Hutchison, was sold a mule by Mr. Wiggins, for $175 and the mule died within the $175.000. Mr. Wiggins disposed of the horse as a year for $1500.

At the recent meeting of the Bourbon county board of education, Mr. Robert Bell was re-elected tract of Paris.

Fire of an unknown origin was set to the home of Mrs. Ann Hunter on the Paris pike, near Lexington, the morning of June 5, and the entire dwelling was burned to the ground. Mrs. Hunter was not injured.

Military services were held at the home in the Paris cemetery last Tuesday for the American Legion for Luther Blanche, who was killed in action in France on October 1, 1918.

Married—Miss Bess Edwards and Mr. Charles Edwards, both of Paris, Miss Ruth Letton, of Paris, and Mr. Thomas Letton, of Paris, formerly of Paris.

Died—Mr. Joseph A. Lyons, aged 67, at his home in Paris.—Mrs. Mary Tolen, 80, at her home in Paris.

MONTGOMERY

While returning home from church last Sunday evening, Mrs. Ed Bell had her ankle severely injured when the horse she was driving became frightened at a passing automobile.

At a meeting of the Montgomery county board of education, Mr. Fred J. M. Coombs was elected county superintendent.

Montgomery county grand jury presented the case of Mr. Ed Bell, a prominent young man, charged with the murder of Mr. Ed Bell, a prominent young man, charged with the murder of Mr. Ed Bell, a prominent young man, charged with the murder