FOR CHOICE OF THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

HON. T. F. HARGIS,

OF NICHOLAS.

FOR LEGISLATOR,

DR. B. F. REYNOLDS,

THURSDAY, MAY ..., 1879

GRAND RALLY!!!

—AT THE—

COURT-HOUSE

IN CARLISLE,

On Saturday, May 3.

The Democrats of Nicholas County will have a grand rally at the Court-house on next Saturday, at which the following speakers are expected:

Hon. John M. Rice,
Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge,
R. F. Pritchard,
R. H. Stanton and others.

Everybody invited, especially the ladies.

THOMAS F. HARGIS.

Pursuant to our prediction of last week, we have the exalted pleasure of announcing at our mast-head the name of Kentucky's gifted son—one whose honor has never been questioned, and whose record will always reproach—THOMAS F. HARGIS, the decided choice of a very large majority of State for the highest office within the gift, that of Appellate Judge. It is a place of honor worthily bestowed, and, if it does not lead new lister to the Appellate bench, we know not the man. As the recipient of an honor a compliment of the hands of the Democracy, Judge HARGIS is fully alive to the responsibility and solemn duties of the office, and in accepting it reserving the call to party, while in finding his faithful in time fifteen places him over good and many.

That he will be elected by an increased majority we do not doubt. We voted for old Nick's memory, and he will do the whole duty, and give for Lecteric not 2,500 to 3,000 majority. We should show the Democrats of the district who have so favored us and stood by the record thick and thin in the great Democratic battle at Owingsville that we will fulfill all our promises and cast ourselves at the polls on the 3rd day of June. We owe it to the Democracy of forty counties, more better nearly forty thousand Democratic voters. They reposed a trust and confidence in us that we will not betray. We have placed the banner in our hands, and we must bear it proudly and bring it back to victory.

HON. R. H. STANTON, of Mason, will probably be a candidate for Circuit Judge.

HERALD'S Bob. Nicholas ought to her sister Mason, and we assure you that both is manner hasn't ruled by Hon. Nicholas.

MALICE TOWARD NONE.

"Will we be too much encouraged by the 31 Democratic majority in Kentucky?" her Democratic sister counties will not be lax in rolling up a rousing majority for the gifted HARGIS.

DEMOCRATS, remember your motto—Come solidly out and vote on May 3rd, and vote for Judge HARGIS. The Republicans have no candidate, and it is not necessary to secure his election. They will help you to victory. Democratic votes are running upon their own personal responsibility. Republicans vote look pretending to be silent politics.

BRETHREN all of this judicial district, vote for Judge HARGIS. He is a citizen of the honor of the law. You know how true he treated you when he got into trouble with him. Don't go off after Independent who should "pull" your leg. Democrats, Hall doesn't receive the word Hypocrite as his address to the people. We suppose he is "too pure to do that" and too good to be Democratic.

DEMOCRATS, remember that we are dealing with a political enemy. They have nothing but Judge HARGIS to fight, and all fight rule, hoping that our confidence in success will induce many Democrats to stay away from the polls. Our majority in this district, upon a full vote, and at a regular election, is a solid one, and our only danger is that the vote a special election. Rally to the polls in our county and be on time.

K. F. PRICHARD.

This gentleman, among the leading lawyers of the district, was in Carlisle last Sunday, being on his way to Frankfort to take charge of the prosecution of Hall and Robertson, on which they have been indicted by the Grand Jury.

H. L. Stone made a flattering report in the Legislature yesterday which will bring remember his gallant fight—and brilliant victory—in Fleming. Long may he wave them on to victory.

MELLIFLUENT MAGIC.

We are confidently informed that a communication from many of Bourbon County's most distinguished Democrats, addressed to Judge Hargis, nominated Governor, Mr. Beggs, Bath called for consultation. Mr. Beggs, Bath called for consultation. Mr. Thomas H. Pendleton, Mr. Lloyd Tarlton, and Judge Jacob Swope attended it. Mr. Pendleton was nominated by the Democrats of Bourbon for the Legislature, and Mr. Swope was the Democratic candidate for Circuit Judge. This settles it. Hargis is the choice of the district, and Democrats will rally to his support. Bourbon has spoken, and John H. Hume, of Clark, nominated it, himself by the nomination. Mr. Hume, who was nominated by Mr. Hume, his partner, for Appellate Judge. The result of John ing with their hearty approval and where Judge Hargis can receive 2,000 majority. The business men of Bourbon believe as we have every reason to believe that we will. Let Mason march up to the help the ball! Let Mason march up to the May be masterly.

THE OWINGSVILLE CONVENTION.

The Appellate Convention which assembled in Owingsville on last Monday was very few men of note and reflected the intelligence and physique of about one-third of the male population of the county. The leading men of the district were not present, and in saying that it was to gauge to particulars.

Little of Madison, the Chairman, made a common-sense address, and called the roll. He was made one, but in his absence Mr. Bush was elected in his stead. The secretary of a motion, or lengthy speech, and saying that it was the duty of Democrats to support every nominee of the Democratic Convention instead of a candidate for Congress who, after taking nearly 100 ballots, adjourned for one month. The Hon. Thomas F. Hargis finally nominated at midnight.

It was decided that the People of each candidate respectively nominate for each committee.

The committee on credentials took a call of each district there, as it evidently held into a Returning Board and retired behind the curtains on the question of Robertson, Bell and Lockhart. Bell, it was claimed, was not a Democrat because of John Goodloe was attached to the proceedings instead of the real Democrats. It was proven that Goodloe, though over that county Judge, could not write a letter and Bell Cassius made no return of their official votes to Little, the Democratic representative. Robertson County's Chandler displayed more effrontery than the Executive Committee delegation refused.

The Committee on Credentials were out twenty-four hours.

The special committee on resolutions reported the following:

Resolved, That the members of the Democracy of the 31st Appellate District, in Convention assembled, this 26th day of April, 1879, place in nomination the name of Hon. THOMAS F. HARGIS, of Nicholas, for Judge of the Court of Appeals and tool ourselves to the support of the Democratic party, and pledge ourselves to use every honorable effort to secure his election.

Resolved, That the Democracy of this district are entitled to the thanks of the Democracy of the State for the highest office within the gift, that of Appellate Judge. It is a place of honor worthily bestowed, and, if it does not lead new lister to the Appellate bench, we know not the man. As the recipient of an honor a compliment of the hands of the Democracy, Judge HARGIS is fully alive to the responsibility and solemn duties of the office, and in accepting it reserving the call to party, while in finding his faithful in time fifteen places him over good and many.
