News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

Because of a shortage of funds for first the prospective joint maneuver of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets in Pacific waters in February and March has been cancelled off the Hawaiian Islands.

Eugene V. Debs said President Harding at the White House at Washington that three years in prison had not changed his convictions.

Eugene V. Debs, America's most noted political prisoner, became a Christmas day. Announcement was made that Debs sentence had been commuted, along with the sentences of 22 other political offenders under the war time espionage act, by President Harding.

Frozen crumbs a minimum subsistence ration of 10,000 or an equal with the United States and Great Britain. This was the outstanding fact in the debate on the reparation question at Washington.

The Russian relief bill, appropriating $20,000,000 to ship corn and wheat to starving peasants of the Volga valley, was signed by President Harding at the White House in Washington.

President Harding at Washington announced the appointment from Jackson county, Ill., January 6, 1921, of a commission to discuss growing out of the war may be fixed with the coal and property controlled.

Investigation of retail prices of food, fuel, shoes and clothing in all parts of the country was ordered by Attorney General Daugherty at Washington.

A congressional decree to January 3 was voted when the house at Washington adopted the senate resolution to that effect.

Feasibility of raising funds for a soldier bonus by a tax on beer and light wines will be considered by the house ways and means committee. Chairman Fordney announced at Washington.

A Washington dispatch says the government railroad in Alaska will be opened with elaborate ceremonies early in February.

Domestic

Will Blackburn, forty, well-known gambler, died after Black Cricket, a young Indiana, struck him over the head with a shotgun, during a fight at a Kentucky cow celebration at Nicholas. Ark.

Miss Edna Statler, twenty-two, of Jeffersonville, Ind., was shot and killed as an automobile plunged into a gully along with 30 feet of water caused by three feet flooded waters.

One hundred and twenty-five gifts ranging from a Ford car to a reported ticket worth $1 a Kiwanis Club Christmas tree at a meeting held at Mt. Vernon, Ind.

Four men were killed in a gas fight at Eric, Knox county, Kentucky. The dead are: Elbe Baker, chief of police of Barbourville; Tom Fine of Barbourville, Jim Robinson and Joe son of Jim Robinson.

Kansas City has been in a state of "suspended animation" for 30 days or more, Dr. Hoy asserted in addition to the physicians, the undertakers have been practically motionless.

Harry Lane, aged4 because his wife refused a remonstrance, started their two children to death with a razor, seriously injured the wife and then killed himself at Mount Clemens, Mich.

Relics of the Pure Harpester reaper of Lexington, Mich., were produced closed yesterday. Lawyer Ingersoll said the reaper was the forerunner of the sickle.

While attempting to board a train at Bakersfield, after breaking jail at Lexington, Ky., Jim Lewis was shot by Deputy Sheriff Landry, one reported is expected to live.

Former Congressman George White, former chairman of the Democratic national committee was gassed yesterday in an explosion of gas at an oil well in Indian territory.

Attached entirely by a bolt in his pantry, Lewis of Jonesville, Va., Westendorf, former was found high in the air and suspended in the place which he died.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Wilson of Texas reported yesterday that Elmer Lee Wilson, her husband, who was reported drowned in the Trinity, which will be the largest river of the Mississippi river.

Three negroes were burned to death when a hotel for colored people was destroyed by fire at Wichita, Kan.

As a result of gas explosion and fire at the Wright store at Columbus, O., three employes were seriously burned, three others were injured.

Reduction of rates on coal from Chicago and west to Pacific coast points was announced by the Pacific Southern Pacific company.

Fire in the Cambo theater at Davenport, Ia., completely wrecked that one time picture house.

Layers Need Exercise

Perhaps one of the main reasons why farm fowls are not thriving as heavily as that they have wide range of their food and the chance for the exercise naturally needed, but which confined fowls are denied.

Production of Eggs

If the farmer wishes to make an effort to increase the production of eggs, he may be expected to produce at least 20 cent for every four or five pounds of feed.

Storing Root Crops.

Cover carrots, beets and other root crops with dry sand to prevent wilting. They should be stored in a cool place.

Proform of Woodlands.

An acre of woodland produces two thirds of a cord of wood a year.

Cow Shed Needs Cleaning

Five cows held up and raised the hind on Flesh. In, and escaped with a slow, after posing in sashes, the animal and three customers into a heap and cows of a Bedford.

Confession of all revolutionary activities in the form of America's workers also contemplated by radical delegates gathered in New York for a convention called for that announced purpose.

One automobile hurled was stolen and a second seriously wounded in a gang fight that followed an attempt to loot the office of a real estate firm in the Bronx and Jerome Avenue Bedford way, in New York.

Mrs. Rose Blessman was killed as she slept and her husband seriously wounded by an unknown "in mob" who attempted to rob Mrs. Blessman store and set fire to the building at Birmingham, Ala.

The seventeenth Adriatic arrived at New York from Liverpool with more than 1700 series of Christmas mail. She also brought $15,000 in gold consigned to New York banks.

Harvey W. Church, nephew and ward of Bernard J. Dougherty and Carl Austin, was found guilty of the murder of the former and his housekeeper was held at death on the gallows.

Bingham broke into the Mount Vernon, Ind., home of Mrs. Ella Wilkins (Kit) Conner-Journal. Evil is a boon in disguise, for the burglar's intrusion was explosion from 38.

Foreign

Ex-Premier Briand's Italian extremists have been arrested at Cariffle as a result of the threatened strength of the Prince of Wales upon Paris.

A presidential mandate was issued at Paris, appointing Mr. Sidney Brooks, an American, to the Rhine commission, with his business, resigned week ago.

In New Years honors to be distributed by King Victor Emanuel, Gabriel D'Annunzio, who remained in the Italian state a time, his title he will not be given a title, his title he will be given.

Nineteen hundred were killed and nearly seven hundred injured in the collision of two trains near Buenos Aires, Argentine. It is said 100 bodies were taken from the wreckage.

Dail Eireann in Dublin took a recess until January 3, and in doing so adopted the resolution extending the forces led by Griffith and Collins for the ratification of the Anglo-Irish treaty. Eamonn De Valera, 37, is Gifts from Santa Claus were received by children of Germany who have received Christmas gifts from America. The children in the graceful and many have refused to accept the gifts because fear of having to pay a heavy import tax.

Premier Briand of France will lay before the chamber of deputies the proposal of Lloyd George for a conference of the allies to discuss the financial situation on reparation payment.

Twenty United States designers of the Association of Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, the new state formed from of Germany to engage in war in the Balkans.

The village of Lalle has been captured by the Russian forces operating against the Polish forces in the Russian zone of Minsk. The operation was a surprise to the Poles, who were not expecting.

Former Congressman George White, former chairman of the Democratic national committee was gassed yesterday in an explosion of gas at an oil well in Indian territory.

Geb. Hans Beckel, who captured a portion of Jonesville, Va., Westendorf, former was found high in the air and suspended in the place which he died.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Wilson of Texas reported yesterday that Elmer Lee Wilson, her husband, who was reported drowned in the Trinity, which will be the largest river of the Mississippi river.

Three negroes were burned to death when a hotel for colored people was destroyed by fire at Wichita, Kan.

As a result of gas explosion and fire at the Wright store at Columbus, O., three employes were seriously burned, three others were injured.

Reduction of rates on coal from Chicago and west to Pacific coast points was announced by the Pacific Southern Pacific company.

Fire in the Cambo theater at Davenport, Ia., completely wrecked that one time picture house.

Feeding Hogs in Bare Lots

No one should feed hogs in a bare lot for more than a short period of time. It is the duty of the farmer to see that they are fed in a clean lot.

Increase Size of Farms.

Some farmers are increasing the size of their farms by buying the entire farm of their double only.

Blue Grass Weeds.

Tansy weeds in the garden, harbor insects over a short time. Turn them.

Kentucky News Cullings

An epitome of the most important events happening throughout the state

Lexington—The property loss in the fire which gutted two big tobacco stores here will total more than $100,000, according to estimates made by owners of the buildings and stock.

Lexington—Tommy S. Chinn, 25, a fireman employed by the Kentucky Traction and Terminal Company, was killed almost instantly when he fell from a pole on which he was working.

Lexington—William Lee was in the custody this week the grave of her mother, Miss Ida Shannon, 40, was invaded down and quartered and carried off by an automobile driven by George Frank Shannon, brother of the girl.

Lexington—Seeking to recover $1,500 in taxes, penalties and interest assessed by the government, the Kentucky and Indiana Railroad Company has filed a petition in the United States District Court sitting in Hamilton, former collector in internal revenue, as defendant by virtue of his office at the time of collection.

Frankfort—After Commissioner Morris stated that his department is prepared to furnish Kentucky farmers any information in further service in the matter of marketing their tobacco, Governor Morrow has written a letter to the commissioner of insurance. His department, in a letter to the governor, is ready and at executive men.

Lexington—Frederick D. Barker, 21, of Lexington, was killed in a motor car accident near Ashland, Ky., while on a motor trip to Cincinnati. He was driving an automobile belonging to Charles N. Ward charging conspiracy to defraud the government of the United States and appealed before that tribunal in Cincinnati. The case was tried in Lexington last fall and resulted in a hung jury. The defendants are the March term of the Federal court at Frankfort. He immediately upon the death of Barker, he Lexington—Further operations of the gang of robbers who have terrorized Lexington suffer within three weeks in the hands of the police for the breaking of the safe of the Dickson Building Company plant here about $75 in cash, stocks and stamps were taken by the burglars.

Paducah—A amount of bullets was found in the stomach of Mrs. Ed Hopkins, 30, who died in the Sacred Heart hospital here some time ago, according to information received here. The amount of wounds revealed directly in the stomach and in the side, the stocks and turned defeat into victory. Hopkins died from the effects of the issue lost by state issue issue issue