FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,
RALPH SHELTON,
Of Nelson County.

THURSDAY, MAY ..... 22, 1879.

JUDGE HARDIS has about 3,500 majority in thirty-five counties. We hope to publish the official vote next week. He carries several Republican mountain counties, making up his loss in the blue grass region. The race has developed some very poor election prophets.

THE Republicans of Fleming are urging Hon. J. W. Anderson to make the two Criminal Judge.

THE Maysville Republican, one of the best printed papers in the State, having a large circulation and liberal advertising patronage, is offered for sale.

FOR President in 1880 we insist at present on the name of the two blue-eyed boys of the Owingsville convention, and pause to hear from Mason.

THE Danville Advocate, though long considered one of the best country papers in the State, has been enlarged and improved by the addition of a new steam press.

THE Maysville Republican blames the Radicals for not coming out stronger. It is not satisfied with the vote of 200 disaffected Evergreen Democrats, 800 negroes and 400 Republicans with all the bar rooms thrown in.

M. BYAS died at his residence in Winchester, Saturday morning, of typhoid fever, after a protracted illness. He was well and favorably known in Fleming county.

FLEMING County got everything in sight at the Convention except the nomination. She got the honor of having the Temporary Chairman and Secretary; and the Permanent Chairman and Secretary, as well as all the front seats. A little modesty is very becoming in a delegate.

IT is not more money the country is crying for, but less Congress. The next greatest affliction is the yellow-fever and the yellow fever, in legislation. There is much a superstitious dread of a United State and National legislation that it may be known by a name and an obsolete one.

DECISION REVERSED.

The case of the Commonwealth of Queen vs. Thomas F. Hardis, which came up in 1874, and was affirmed by the Circuit Court, but reversed by the Criminal Court in 1876, on being taken to the Court of Appeals in 1879 the decision of the Criminal Court was reversed. The case should settle the case.

THOMAS F. HARDIS has been elected a Judge of the Court of Appeals by a large majority, under all the circumstances, so might he cause his enemies to forever hold their peace in the future. Few public men have been so wantonly and bitterly assailed, and yet none have had a more faithful following or more complete and frequent vindication. That he will make a useful and brilliant member of the highest court in the State there can be no doubt.—[Courier-Journal.

THE editor of the Lexington Gazette is assuming a very strange position. Is not the editor in power enough to know that no one is required to prove a negative? The popular clamor of democratic proscription every time any shirt slinger dares to throw mud at some one, has fooled us to it in unnecessary. Why not investigate the dirt slinger? There's where you will strike paying dirt. It is not through courts of inquiry we can exhibit a blameless life to the world.

W. S. FRANK.

The nominee of the Flemingsburg Convention, William S. Frank, is a young man about thirty-eight, a bachelor and a temperate, never having drunk a dram. By his own industry and shrewdness he has succeeded in amassing a competency of between $25,000 and $30,000. He has been a lawyer for about seventeen years, and Judge Peterson is said to regard him as the best practical lawyer at the Mason County bar. Nicholas County should and will give him her majority.

THE FLEMINGSBURG CONVENTION

Democratic Court of the 43d Senatorial District met last Tuesday in Flemingsburg at the appointed hour, and had passage less consummation than any gathering for something in this part of the country for some years. The time for the convention has been fixed, and other men have been absolved parties attending.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock by Isaac Vanmeter, Chairman of the Flemingsburg Executive Committee, and after a brief but very appropriate address, nominated Hon. Thomas Hellard, of Fleming, temporary Chairman, and W. C. Gaines, of Fleming, temporary Secretary, who were severally called and duly elected, and Hon. Hellard was appointed for Attorney and accepted."

W. F. Howe, of Flemingsburg, was elected Secretary, and all the democratic editors of the district were invited to the Secretary's table, which included Colonel Tobin Craddock, of the Kentuckian, and Judge Williams, of the Maysville Bulletin.

The following committees were then appointed:

Credentials—Wm. H. Thomas, Fleming; Robertson, Mason; J. L. Lee, Lewis; Hellard, Mason; Nicholas; A. M. Keeling, Bracken; H. Asbell, Fleming.

Organization—P. A. Robinson, Fleming; Wm. Hall, Mason; Wm. Hall, Lewis; F. H. Morrow, Mason; J. P. Nesbitt, Nicholas; Hugh Clark, Bracken.

Resolutions—W. T. Irvin, Fleming; Geo. T. Hall, Mason; Wm. Hall, Lewis; J. A. Mc. Fleming; Wm. Hall, Lewis; Wm. Smith, Bracken. Nicholas was represented by the following gentlemen:

A. Cochran,	Jno. Hall,
Jno. Hall,	Jno. Hall,
Jno. Hall,	Jno. Hall,
Jno. Hall,	Jno. Hall,

In addition to the above, there were delegates, viz: Mason—Jno. Hall, Jno. L. Little & G. Bacon, A. J. Battle and Chas. Anderson. Harrison—Alexander, Wm. Hall, Jno. Hall & Jno. Hall. Lewis—A. Cochran, Jno. Hall, Jno. Hall, Jno. Hall
