SALTWELL CHURCH

We hereby desire to announce that on next Thursday night there will be a Christmas tree at Saltwell church. On account of the bad weather and unfavorable health conditions our church work has been somewhat retarded, and we are endeavoring to put forth every effort to "strengthen our cords and lengthen our stakes" that the work of God may prosper in our midst. We cordially invite you therefore all the people of the church to come Thursday evening and join us by giving us your presence and assistance for this Christmas service, as well as for our regular church exercises. We invite the church, the unchurched and everyone to be present on Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the preaching service at Saltwell church.

Warner P. Davis, pastor.

THE BIBLE REVIVAL AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Evangelist Percy George Cross, of Winston-Salem, N. C., is bringing to our community real messages of practical worth to all citizens young and old. He announces as his sermons and subjects for Sunday, February 9, as follows: Sunday morning, "Is there a Hell?" Sunday evening, "Seven Things Man Can't Do"; Friday, Seven Things GOD Can't Do; Saturday, "What is the Anti-Christ?" Lord's day a. m., "The Man God Could not Kill"; 2 p. m. for all young people of grammar or high school grade a lecture on "The Lumber of Life"; 7 p. m. "God's Hymnal." At the lecture for the young people Dr. Cross will use a step ladder and two large saws as offered for the best description of the lumber of life. Admission was given by the manager of the saw mills to use the saws and to take notes. This permission does not hold good on the Sunday morning service. The song service begins at 7 p. m. sharp every night. The evangelist has one feature that he never fails to use in every lecture and that is his pulpit clock. He begins on time and closes at exactly eight
