FIELDS AND TICKET ELECTED BY 55,000

Louisville Gives 3,000 Majority In Democratic Landslide--Rock-Ribbed Republican Counties Carried By Fields

NICHOLAS GIVES FIELDS 1,147 MAJORITY

LATE BULLETIN

The Mercury called Esther E. Glenn, secretary of the Democratic State Campaign Committee, at 8 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Glenn stated that Mr. Fields would lead, and received 55,000 and stated that Fayette

The rest of the ticket, Mr. Glenn stated, was far ahead of Percy Jeffries, with the exception of Treasurer, who was Jeffries' leading ticket. Democratic majority in Fayette at 55,000.

Fields carried Louisville by thirty votes. Returns showed Wednesday afternoon that Fields carried the strong Republican counties of Grayson, Laurel, Knott and Wayne.

Two Democratic Senators held on to all the other representatives in the Fifth were elected by Democratic majorities in all counties of the district, and received 2,000 votes more than Frank E. Daniel, Republican candidate for Attorney General, Mr. Daniel's majority in the district, totaling 41 votes more than Dawson, who was the best man Fields in the county was 444.

Republican tickets did not take in the constitutional amendment, which was voted down on the same ballot with men on the statute books. Three proposed amendments were voted on by a vote of 184 for to 171 against.

Low water is no one of the spots in this county, the rainwater throughout the day preventing voters from coming. This accounted for both parties in the county although the Democratic majority was cut down. There were 865 ballots cast in this election and in the Presidential election in 1920, when a total of 2,012 votes were cast by both parties. Democratic majority 1,147 votes and by both parties.

Democratic loss from 1920 McCutchan received 18 votes and Mr. Clark 5 votes. Mesers. McCutchan and Clark, who are prominent members of the church, were not candidates for re-election, their names on the ticket being taken by Fields and Barton.

EAST END

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brandhorst spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Dwyer, of Nicholasville.

Miss Stella Tapp attended a Chapter Entertainment Committee at Flemingburg the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dwyer and baby spent Sunday with Mr. W. J. Dwyer, of Lexington.

Miss Mabel Stephenson visited Miss Julia Mae Redwine Saturday night.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Marion Taylor, a son, Sunday, November 4.

Miss Julia Hoss, Mabel Redwine, Elizabeth Hoss and Mr. Ed Falls Sunday at Cornelia Fields home.

Mesdames Tatterson and Hoss, William Stephenson and Frank Redwine visited Mr. W. H. Redwine Sunday (only Sunday).

A good crowd attended the Hallowe'en party given by the Christian Endeavor Society Wednesday night.

SUMMIT STATION

Miss Mae Earlywine visited her sister, Mrs. H. E. Mattox, Monday.

Mrs. Ella Mattox and Mrs. Ollie Mattox were the guests of J. M. Ford, one day last week.

Mr. Vonzo Mattox visited Mr. Jesse Earlywine Sunday.

Mrs. Jesse Earlywine is better at this writing.

Several attended the Halloween party at Mrs. Dora Stapp's last Wednesday night.

WILLIAM J. FIELDS

ELECTED GOVERNOR IN TUESDAY'S DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE

Semi-official returns from Nicholas county gave W. J. Fields, Democrat, majority of 1,146 votes over his opponent, Charles I. Dawson. He ran ahead his ticket, ahead of the majority of Stoll ticket, and received 246 more votes than Frank E. Daniel, Republican candidate for Attorney General. Mesers. Fields, Republican candidate for Attorney General, ran ahead of the ticket in the county, receiving 41 votes more than Dawson. Mr. Fields carried Fayette in the county by 444.

Rock-ribbed Republican counties of Grayson, Laurel, Knott and Wayne.

Two Democratic Senators held on all of the other representatives in the Fifth were elected by Democratic majorities in all counties of the district, and received 2,000 votes more than Frank E. Daniel, Republican candidate for Attorney General. Mesers. Fields, Republican candidate for Attorney General, ran ahead of the ticket in the county, receiving 41 votes more than Dawson. Mr. Fields carried Fayette in the county by 444.

Republican tickets did not take in the constitutional amendment, which was voted on the same ballot with men on the statute books. Three proposed amendments were voted on by a vote of 184 for to 171 against.

Low water is no one of the spots in this county, the rainwater throughout the day preventing voters from coming. This accounted for both parties in the county although the Democratic majority was cut down. There were 865 ballots cast in this election and in the Presidential election in 1920, when a total of 2,012 votes were cast by both parties. Democratic majority 1,147 votes and by both parties.

Democratic loss from 1920 McCutchan received 18 votes and Mr. Clark 5 votes. Mesers. McCutchan and Clark, who are prominent members of the church, were not candidates for re-election, their names on the ticket being taken by Fields and Barton.

Barbing

Although the majority of the Democratic ticket in a manner vote, many Republicans voted for Democrats.

Democratic leaders have predicted a majority of 12,000 for Fields, several surprises were sprung in the election returns in other counties, especially in the school district of Bourbon county. Hockenstiller, Taylor's Store and Mesers. Stamper Clarke and