THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1879.

Tomorrow Hazle will be in attendance at the opening of the Cincinnati Exposition and the Needle (Kentucky) Fair.

The old man's drunk again, and Mr. Sprague has left Natagunee pay with three of her children. Divorce is thought to be the best thing to order.

A SOMEWHAT CHARTER MOVED CONGREGATION was held by R. P. Myers, late where place of business he had gone, jumped on the counter and told Myers his time had come.

The ball opens in the Green-Hudson case in Carlisle next Monday—and a dozen witnesses have been summoned by the plaintiff. The depositions will be taken in Rose & Kinkaid's office.

THE COURIER-JOURNAL of Wednesday last got the balance of the two scourges, the yellow fever and Hayes, mixed. Though a disaster it was a real bit of satire.

We present elsewhere the report, of which we spoke last week as being ready, of John A. Caywood as Commissioner in the turnpike case. It is due to Mr. Gilbert, our Circuit Clerk, to state that no reflection is cast upon against him, as we had understood that the papers had never been filed in the case. On examining the record, however, the contrary was found to be the fact, and the papers were found in the office of Hon. Edward Mc. Kinney. It is a good officer, and his obliging disposition will not fail to conciliate considerable inconvenience.

LAND AND STOCK.

Robert Banner has purchased the bunting farm of Berton for $9,500.

Gen. M. Bedford's two-year-old ball, Bruce Hughes, has been sold to Mr. Bird of Hopkinsville, but does not like the terms. Both animals caught on a shooting tour of the bird.

Mr. Bonner says his purchase of Maggie has put an end to the popularity of that horse appearing in the West. He will not be seen there, and will be sold Mr. Bonner at a present price ruled whether he will exhibit Rarus in harness with Edwin Forrest in the East.

Of the Kentucky stables at Saratoga J. W. Hunt Reynolds, of Franklin county, has won $6,000; Lewis Ellis, $6,750; H. P. Mcintosh, $1 800; and $6 losses go hand in hand. Mr. Mcintosh is the new first one; second time and third four times, winning $6,000, a sweep. Mr. Ellis' $6,750 was given him by Aristides. A few years ago Ellis was the only Kentucky starter, but recently he has usually come off nothing. L. L. Lorillard, with $12,000 in stakes, and Pierre, with $6,000, and R. Morris, with $5,000, were next to Colonel Reynolds.

Echoes from Kentucky Exchanges.

There is a move in Boone County and Judge Tillett was dead until a few days ago.

In the next Legislature of Kentucky the Republicans will have only two senators and seventeen Representatives.

Near Smithfield, in Henry County, Wesley Tolle shot Will Reed, both escaped, for too much love between Mrs. Tolle.

The engineering corps of the Big Sandy Railroad has finished a survey from Morehead, in Rowan County, and the work is going on with all possible speed.

The Yeoman says that, at the present rate of operations, there will, in two years, be two thousand convicts in the State prison, and the cost of their being life prisoners.

The trustees of Bullock's bequest have appointed Judge Bullock, Judge Bullock and General Lindsey, an eminent lawyer of Frankfort, with the chairman in favor of the last named.

The temperance people of Kentucky are arranging to hold a Camp-meeting at Mount Sterling, to last from the Christian Sunday in September to the meeting September 19. The next distinguished Temperance orator of the United States are expected.

Seven men were arrested charged with the terrible murder and burning of the negro boy Jerry, who was found a few weeks since. Their names are Jesse Bell, Jim Bell, Jim Ferrell, Jack Bell and Jim Ferrell, sons of W. H. Bell and Jeff. Orne, all residents of Frank lin County.

The report of the appraisers of the estate of the late Vice President, Mr. Hendricks, prepared and filed. The total appraisement of personal property and choses in action is $50,000, and the real estate liable for taxation, $28,000. The widow will be entitled to one-third of $100,000.

Wm. Lee Davenport, The county has elected the Democratic nominee, and will do more town-to-town honor and reform than any Democratic county in the last twenty years. About half the Democratic vote was cast for Democratic nominees, their opponents having to vote of good Democrats and good Republicans.

Tom Buford occupies a cell with Dr. Bonifant's prisoner, and the two men are charged with murder, and A. Monday, the Democratic nominee, is also a former member of the Legislature who is confined in prison charged with having obtained money under false pretenses, and who is now awaiting a trial. Buford says that he is innocent, but he may convicted of the charge. The Court of Appeals may take to his case.

The Mt. Sterling Sentinel Xpress, that the suit of Mrs. Mary Ann Talbot, for custody of that portion of Meadow Lands, which was left to her children by Mrs. Talbot, to have the estate of which she claimed the Beth County by Mesa. Mrs. Talbot was awarded the custody by Beth County to the old Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad Company, has been settled by compromise. Meadow Lands will pay Beth $12 per year for seven years.

Col. J. P. Salyer, of Salyersville, Mt. Sterling Sentinel says: Mr. Salyer has been one of the most fortunate men of his age in Kentucky. He has made a lot of money in both mercantile and farming pursuits in Magoffin County, was elected and has been appointed by Mattt. Adams, which he filled acceptably to the close of the last session. He now has a clerkship in the Treasury Department at Washington, which work was assisted to one of the lowest and prettiest ladies in Eastern Kentucky.
