CALL FOR A DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

To the Democracy of Kentucky:

In accordance with the action of the State Committee, held at Frankfort, March 4 inst., the following State Convention is called:

Resolved, That a Democratic State Convention be held in the city of Louisville, on Wednesday, June 23, 1880, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Auditor, Treasurer, Register of the Land Office, Attorney-General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Register of the Kentucky Statistical Bureau; and for the election of Presidential Electors; and also to select three members of the Democratic National Committee, and to transact such other business as may properly come before said Convention.

Resolved, That in accordance with the usage of the last three years, the basis of representation in said Convention shall be one delegate for each Senatorial District, and one for each Representative District, and one for each county not embraced in a Senatorial District, which is entitled to a Representative, and one additional delegate for each 500 votes cast for Governor in 1879, and one additional delegate for each fraction of 500 votes cast for Governor in 1879 exceeding 250 votes.

Resolved, That the Democratic Executive Committee of each county be requested to call primary meetings to be held on Saturday, May 15, 1880, at the usual places of holding elections in the several voting precincts of the county, for the purpose of electing delegates to said Convention, and that the Democratic Executive Committee of each county be requested to call a county convention to meet on Monday, May 17, 1880, at the county seat of each county, for the purpose of appointing delegates to said State Convention, and that the basis of representation in said county conventions shall be one delegate for each 100 votes cast for Governor in 1879, and one additional delegate for each fraction of 100 votes cast for Governor in 1879 exceeding 50 votes.

Resolved, That the Democratic Executive Committee of each county be requested to report the delegates elected to said county conventions to the Democratic State Executive Committee, at Louisville, on or before the 10th day of June, 1880
