HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

BY HEAR TELL BOUT A MAN WHUT KILT A WOLF WID HE HANDS BUT EP AND DAT STOUT AN WOULDN' FOOL WID NO WOLFS -- AND PICK A FUSS WID DE OLE MAN!

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

KENTUCKY NEWS BRIEFS

Twenty-nine persons were convicted and given prison terms at the recent term of the Breathitt circuit court.

Mrs. Turpin Abrams, of Versailles, was badly injured when gored by a pet cow which she was milking in her barn.

Berea College opened last week with 200 more students enrolled than have ever been admitted to the institution.

Mrs. S. T. Hom, of Louisville, paid $1,000 income tax last year, the largest individual tax of any person in the state.

Otto Hutchings, 19, was killed by shock by Ervin Bowers, 18, in McCracken county last Friday as the result of trouble over a girl.

Roy Elliott, 22, and Stanley Riley, 20, were seriously injured when the Cincinnati Limited struck their Jenkins, early Saturday morning.

John Trueman, 35, was instantly killed when he fell backward from a ladder as he was painting a church on the farm near Owensboro.

Frank Mingyard, 72, an employe of Fayette county for many years, was fatally injured last Thursday when he slipped and fell from a block.

Rev. W. F. Elsie, pastor of the Paris Christian church for the past thirteen years, has declined a call to the pastorate of a church in Nashville, Tenn.

While cutting timber in his farm near Mt. Sterling, Lewis Hamilton, Mills administrator, made the timber so dead he had eyes and the night was scattered.

Mr. Reuben Ewen Blackburn, 84, who died and was buried in Bourbon county, died at his home in Paris, Friday, Sept. 4, and was buried in several days alone.

Noble Adams, 19, fight in an contest in Louisville, Ky., Sept. 7, would over her heart, refused to declare to be dead and to the family of the man who shot her.

At the annual Kentucky Confederate Reunion, to be held at Camp Nelson, Sept. 30, Oct. 1, the last day of utilizing the two branches of the church was also very visited.

Mrs. Minnie Ann Fox, age seventy-one, died at her home in Paris, Sept. 7. She was the daughter of Rev. Jacob Ewing, who was the first pastor of the Paris Christian church.

Mrs. Thomas Burham, Jr., of Richmond, was killed and Mrs. Burham and John Burham were injured in her when she turned her car to the left to avoid a pedestrian.

Emil Bopper, 10 years old, of Grant county, is a Cincinnati hospital as a result of being struck by a gasoline wagon owned when he was unhurt. He is a lineman in the 13-year-old brother.

Two small boys while swimming in the Ohio river at Ashland last week saw an aged man bury a box, which when unearthed by them was found to contain the body of a three months old baby.

Miss Freda Turrington, of Fayette county, Miss Matilda Ferguson, of Bourbon, received painful injuries, and Mrs. Ray Triplett, of Bourbon, was seriously injured when the automobile in which they were riding was wrecked between Paris and Centerville. The wreck occurred, it is said, when Miss Ferguson, driver of the car, lost control when Crossing the Kentucky river at Clifton, Anderson county, the ferryboat, carrying a five ton truck and its cargo, a cow and several sheep, sank in the river. The sheep were drowned.

Embry Leslie, 24, of Bardstown, was fatally killed when a three pair of slippers with which he was trimming trees touched a high-tension electric wire near Crestwood last Friday.

Gale Wright, 21, shot and killed his half-brother, Lee Wright, 30, at a store near their home at Shelby Gap, Pike county, Friday night. The shooting followed an argument between the two men.

More than 500 mountain people attended the opening of the Robinson Agricultural Substation, a branch of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, at Quicksand, Breathitt county, last Friday.

More than one hundred students have enrolled in the freshman class at Centre College, the largest freshman class in the history of the institution. Young men from thirty states have matriculated at Centre.

Buck Pond, ancestral estate of the Marshall family of Woodford county for 142 years, comprising of 285 acres, was sold at public auction Saturday to Thomas McDowell, of Lexington, for $17,25 per acre.

Clarksburg to have been robbed while taking a picture in their car on Mulberry street, and Mrs. J. J. Wolfforth, of Hobcaugh, sold the same day for $40 in cash to the lady enough money to reach Florida.

Clara Elizabeth Sellers, eight year daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Sellers, of Fayette county, died at Lexington last Saturday from an infection of the foot, which resulted from a small splinter entering the foot.

Otto Hutchings, 19, was killed by shock by Ervin Bowers, 18 in McCracken county last Friday as the result of trouble over a girl.

Roy Elliott, 22, and Stanley Riley, 20, were seriously injured when the Cincinnati Limited struck their Jenkins, early Saturday morning.

Bedford Barrow and his seven year old son were probably fatally injured when the Louisville and Nashville passenger train struck their Buick automobile at a crossing in the 28-foot embankment near Burkesville, Cumberland county, Friday.

The 180 acre farm of E. K. and J. C. Ewart, located near Ricetta in Mt. Sterling and Fayette counties, was sold at public auction last week to Mr. Charles Ewart for $150.75 an acre. The farm is considered one and of the finest farms in Kentucky.

TRAIN KILLS CHILD

FATHER IS INJURED

Alva Gill, 6, was instantly killed and his father, Lewis Gill, 35, was injured when struck by a Louisville and Nashville passenger train near Burkesville, Cumberland county, Friday afternoon. The boy was struck by the train while crossing the track with his father, who was also struck by the train.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Several friends and relatives of Mr. Noah Fowler near Bryantsville, Jessamine county, last Sunday, in honor of his 70th birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fowler,