In Mason County Wadsworth ran ahead of Tomms, but in Nicholas and Fleming certain it elected Colyer. In Harrison there will not be much difference in the majorities for the two Curtis.

In Bowen, James W. Johnson is re-elected Circuit Clerk by a majority and Wyatt Dunscomb re-elected by a small majority.

In Mason, Pickett Democrat, defeats L. B. Goggin for Sheriff by a handsome majority.

In Anderson County W. T. Bige for Circuit Clerk was elected by 200 majority, W. H. Wells, Democrat, majority in between 15 and 25, Stewart Wilson elected Constable in No. 1 by 10, Jack Brewer in Mitchell Mills by 84, Geo. Linville in No. 2 by 6. E. Tilton in Pinkneyville by 20, Mr. Mellon in Crossville by a large majority. The Sheriff's election was not heard from.

"Morgan" Thomas was beat a negative profit.

Several cowskill-themselves Democrats voted for Thomas.

The Democrats carried the walled and scattered funds lavishly on Monday but to no purpose.

A bowling mob of drunken negroes greeted the coming of the train Monday. They fairly made the air ring with their yells, and the police had to be on guard. Our citizens may rest assured that a man in this city gets no working under its new ordinances that there will be no repetition of it.

THE Augusta Evening Chronicle has an article about Hon. J. C. C. Black, an ex-Kentuckian, of Georgetown, in which it says of a recent speech of Mr. Black on the Colquitt Administration will carry him to Congress.

We present this week a very interesting chapter of Carlisle history from the pen of our well-known local historian. It gives the minds of the campaign of 1840, when "Tippecanoe and Tyler, too," were rocketed, and so are are now on the verge of a heated contest it will be interesting to the young to know how things were conducted forty years ago, and to the old it would recall a very interesting period of their lives. Read it.

The defeat of Gen. M. Thomas for circuit Judge by 300 or 400 majority is a creditable victory for the true Democracy of this district. Considering the noble hand of Counterfeit and Tory Democrats with which we had to contend. It shows the people cannot all be purchased with gold. Hon. Thomas has gained—it could have been easily defeated, we openly say the corruption practiced by his enemies. Mason County has gone into the Republican column, while Bitte Bowen wheels into the Democratic camp. Nicholas did nobly, and all are surprised at the handsome Democratic majority of Greenup.

Town of Carlisle.

CHAPTER XXII.

—What final conclusion history of Carlisle was. Land cases. Fraudulent surveys and claims. Many settlers robbed and driven off. Others compelled to purchase their own land. Many stopped for one reason and another. Some left in disgust. Others died. Others moved away with it. But not all. Some remained. Some were made of sterner stuff and would not be driven away.
