HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

Hampton Institute Newspaper Syndicate

KENTUCKY NEWS BRIEFS

The Dry River Dam has refused for cause and $1,750 cost.

March 27 has been fixed as the date for a special election on the $250,000 road bond issue in Fleming county.

J. A. O'Hara, M. Wilkinson Rogers, attended a judge last week by Governor Fuller, ballot into brain.

Eleven students finished the high school which were indicted at Covington last week for fighting subject.

Ralph Tackett, three years old of Boyd county, died last week from a scratch on the cheek with the pimple on its cheek.

Centre College, Danville, enrollment of 500 students, the second semester, an increase of per cent over last year's enrollment.

Near Harper's Ferry, Ruth Jones, the large general store operated by Mrs. Ella Jones, was totally destroyed together with all contents.

Mrs. Mary Brown Bonner, mother of Evangelist Sam P. Jones, died at her home in Maysville on Friday following a paralysis stroke. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at the home of the deceased.

John Smith, prominent Democrat, Paducah, was fined $100 and costs and prohibited from voting in the primary and election for violating the Corrupt Practices act.

Mrs. Edward Carpenter, 45, was burned to death at her home in Paducah, when her clothing caught fire while she was sitting in front of a fireplace in her home. The woman, partially crippled, was alone in her home at the time.

After deliberating for more than an hour, a jury trying Lindsey Wilson, Negro, charged with dynamiting the home of H. H. Flanery, Pulaski county, of Ashland, failed to agree in Boyd circuit court last Friday and had to have stood 11 for acquittal.

Lee Sh, a naturalized China man, resident of Paris for about thirty years, died at the home of his wife in Paris Saturday night from a long illness. The China man joined the Christian religion years ago and was a faithful member of the Paris Presbyterian church.

Judge R. C. Stoll, in the Jefferson circuit court, Louisville, granted a jury trial to Mrs. E. C. Davis, charged in connection with the murder of William Nelson Fort. He is alleged to have shot Fort in Louisville, charged with the Bob are under death.

Ashland, which William H. Taft visited Friday, expects to be selected to seven years service in the Eighth district in the Republican congress, Congressman Ben Johnson announced last week on his return from the nomination of the Ninth district by President Coolidge.

Mrs. Mary Brown Bonner, mother of Evangelist Sam P. Jones, died at her home in Maysville on Friday following a paralysis stroke. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at the home of the deceased