MADGE KENNEDY IN
"LOVE-IN-A-MIST"

The original New York all-star cast of Madge Kennedy, Donald Meek Kennedy and Sidney Blackmer in leading roles, will come to the Woodland Auditorium next Monday night, March 28 at 8:15 o'clock. Miss Kennedy comes, not as star, but as a member of the company of Gertrude Lathrop, Alice John, Mary Marble, and Murray Bennett.

Miss Kennedy has appeared to great success in motion picture and screen drama and the comedy in which she is now appearing has been one of the outstanding successes in New York this season.

The play has its setting in the home of the author, Amelia Rives, in Albermarle County, Virginia, one of the famous old show places of the south, located in the Blue Ridge Mountains, and centers around the romance of an attractive southern girl who has learned to lie rather too prominently to be keen from wounding the feelings of her ardent admirers.

All in all, "Love-In-A-Mist"- is one of the finest, cleanest, and most delightful comedies appearing on the stage this season; situations and lines spring from characters as all good comedy should and there is a commingling of sophistication and freshness seldom found in native comedy writing. In few instances has the feminine weakness for prevarication been more cleverly exploited as is the case in "Mist" and Madge Kennedy proves herself a master in the art. Sidney Blackmer, strong, dominating, diction-proof in the young lover capacitated by the white lies of his sweetheart.

This unusual attraction is being sponsored by Miss Anna Chandler Goff, director of the Lexington College of Music. Reservations should be made at once as the popularity of the cast insures a large sale. Prices are $1.10, $1.65, $2.20 and $2.75 including war tax.

Apple growers have developed a new device for wiping apples, a cold contrivance with horizontal revolving rollers and 500 flapping pieces of canvas.

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

VOLUME LX. ESTABLISHED 1867 CARLISLE NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1927 PUBLISHED THURSDAYS NUMBER 13

DR. G. B. SPENCER SUCCUMBS AT HOME

Illness From Which He Had Suffered For Years Ends Career of Physician

WAS POPULAR CITIZEN

Dr. George B. Spencer, one of the best known physicians and citizens of Nicholas county, died at his home on the Upper Jacksonville pike in the suburbs of Carlisle, between six and seven o'clock last Friday morning following an illness of several years with Bright's disease.

Although he had been in failing health from this disease for many years, it was not until about two months ago that Dr. Spencer became seriously ill. For the past three weeks his condition had been critical and his death was expected.

Dr. Spencer was born in Nicholas county in August, 1868, the son of the late William and Sarah Bourquin Spencer, pioneer residents of Nicholas county. He received his primary education in the public and private schools of Carlisle, entered the Southern College of Homeopathy at Louisville, from which he graduated thirty years ago. Following his graduation he served as interne at a Louisville hospital for two years, after which he returned to Carlisle and located. For several years was associated with the late Dr. M. Dills in the practice of his profession. He enjoyed a large practice throughout his career.

Four years ago Dr. Spencer went to Pike county and took a position as company physician at a coal mine owned by the Ford Motor Company, holding the position until the first of this year when he returned to Carlisle to spend his closing years. He had recently completed and moved into a new home on the Upper Jacksonville pike. He served as commissioner in the United States Army during the world war because of ill health. Dr. Spencer volunteered his services to the United States Public Health Service and during the influenza epidemic in 1918 was sent by the Government to Mississippi to care for the disease in the civilian population.

Dr. Spencer was one of the most prominent Masons in Kentucky. He has served for about fifteen years as Grand Lecturer of the Masonic Grand Lodge, and was past Master of Dougherty Lodge No. 65, F. & A. M., past High Priest of Nicholas Chapter No. 41, R. A. M., and past Commander of Carlisle Commandery No. 18, Knights Templar. He was an active member of the lodge.

Keenly interested in all civic affairs, Dr. Spencer was one of Carlisle's most useful citizens. He was a man of commanding presence and of a splendid physique, a commanding personality, a brilliant conversationalist and a man who was a favorite with a wide circle of friends.

Surviving him are two sons, William Dudley Spencer, Paintsville, and George B. Spencer, Jr., Carlisle; and two brothers, Robert Spencer, Lexington, and James A. Spencer, Bardstown, and one sister, Mrs. Charles F. Norton, Lexington.

Short funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Henry W. Schwan. Masons at the grave were in charge of the various Masonic bodies. Members of the Knights Templar were active pall bearers, while Nicholas county physicians were honorary pall bearers.

Woman Burned In Polish Blast

Mason County Resident May Die From Injuries Received While Polishing Stove

Burns which may prove fatal were suffered Monday by Mrs. Lucinda Mapes, aged 60, when stove polish, softened by gasoline, exploded, the flaming fluid igniting the victim's clothing.

Mrs. Mapes was holding her twelve-old child in her arms while working on the stove at her home near Maysville, when the polish exploded the child's hair was singed and its body seared. A young son snatched the flames on the baby's garments with a carpet, while neighbors, attracted by Mrs. Mapes' screams, put out the flames on her clothes and prevented the house from being destroyed by fire.

Democrats Will Hold Primary

Party Leaders Meeting in Louisville Vote Unanimously To Select State Officers August 6

A primary election on Saturday, August 6, to select Democratic nominees for Governor and other state officers as decided on by the Democratic State Executive Committee last Friday afternoon at Louisville in one of the shortest meetings ever held. Judge Charles A. Hardin, Chairman, of Harrodsburg, called the meeting to order at the Seelbach hotel at 2:15 o'clock. Miss Maja Endsley, secretary, called the roll, which showed all members present.

William F. Klair, Lexington, offered a resolution calling for a primary. His motion for adoption was seconded. A hand raising vote showed the committee unanimously in favor of a primary, Mr. Klair moved to adjourn. The question was put and carried and the entire meeting that had lasted more than five minutes.

Democrats from every section of the state were present, including the three candidates, Ed. Prewitt, W. H. Shanks, Robert Y. Crowe and H. H. Denhardt, and candidates for other state offices.

NEGRO GIRL HELD ON FORGERY CHARGE

Quick Work of Joe Gordon Results In Arrest Of Leona Summers

WORKED OLEVER PLAN

A bit of detective work on the part of Joe Gordon, local merchant, which rivals the feats of Sherlock Holmes resulted in the arrest of Leona Summers, 18, a colored girl, Tuesday night on a forgery charge.

The Summers girl came into Gordon's store last week, making some purchases and giving a check signed "B. F. Reynolds," and made payable to Laura Wade, for $5.00. When Mr. Gordon deposited the check the forgery was discovered. The girl had endorsed the check as "Mattie Wilmans," and no negro of that name was known to local authorities.

Mr. Gordon did not give up the search, however, and accompanied by deputy sheriff Stamper, visited colored suburb and inspected all girls of the age of the forger, but without success. At last a girl named Mat Wilmans was found who one who had given him the check for a dance at a house on the Jackson pike. To make his identification certain, he told her that he would guarantee her safety and requested that she write it on a sheet of paper. The handwriting tallied with that on the check and the arrest of the girl followed.

Some weeks ago the same, darky, it is alleged, forged a check on Dr. Reynolds, payable to Laura Wade, cashing it at Sexton's store. The check was for $25 and the forgery was not discovered, until Dr. Reynolds looked over his pass book some time afterward.

Mr. Gordon caused an arrest for forgery last year, he held a Mercury representative, by getting a description of the people living in a certain neighborhood and securing a warrant for one whose appearance tallied with that of the man for whom he had cashed the "cold" check.

The Mercury representative suggested to Mr. Gordon Wednesday that he had "missed his calling" and should enter the field made famous by Arsene Lupin and Sherlock Holmes.

NEW JAIL BADLY NEEDED

Bourbon County Grand Jury Declares In Report To Judge

The Bourbon county grand jury, which adjourned last Thursday submitted its report to Judge Roy C. Williams, in which was declared the Bourbon county jail is a disgrace to the county and that a new building is imperative. The two corridors of the upper floor have no ventilation, and the air was so oppressive that it was impossible for the grand jury to remain just a few minutes.

The grand jury recommended that an investigation be made at once of the cost of constructing a new jail and that steps toward its erection be taken by the fiscal court.

LEAVES MACHINE BEHIND

Didn't Want To Be Burdened When He Was In Hurry

Late last Wednesday night City Marshal Ernest Sims arrested a young man from Bourbon county on a charge of speeding through town. The young man expressed a desire to pay his fine and leave town. Mr. Sims went into a store to call Police Judge Hardy Myers and while at the telephone the prisoner ran, leaving his automobile parked on the street.

The City Marshal put the machine in a garage, where it stayed two or three days, at the end of which time the Bourbon man came here, paid a fine of $15 and secured his machine. In making his escape the young man ran as if "Old Nick" himself were after him.

BASEBALL SEASON TO OPEN FRIDAY

Mt. Olivet To Furnish Battle For Carlisle High in the Opening Tilt

GOOD TEAM THIS YEAR

The Carlisle high school base ball season will be opened Friday afternoon at Jackson's park with the Mt. Olivet high school furnishing the opposition.

Prospects are very bright for a winning team here this year, even better than in past history. Coach Autry has a wound of hard hitters and fast fielders to pick the team from. Such players as Rowe, Cook, Curry, Clark and Eastlywine, with Shaw in readiness, are candidates for infield positions, while the pitching burden will more than likely rest on the shoulders of Stone, Kerns, Snapp and Hinton. The outfielders are numerous and it will be hard to pick three men from the following first class candidates: Shaw, Linville Hastings, Barnett, Henry Perhack and several others too numerous to mention.

The field is in perfect condition, having been allowed this year and some lightning fast games are in the offing. Don't miss the opening game Friday and the others that follow.

Home schedule is as follows:
April 1—Mt. Olivet at Carlisle.
April 8—Paris at Carlisle.
April 15—Bourbon County at Millersburg.
April 26—Bourbon County at Carlisle.
April 29—Cynthiana at Cynthiana.
May 2—Open
May 10—Open
May 13—Cynthiana at Carlisle
May 20—Paris at Paris.

Old-Time Spelling Bee Here Tonight

P. T. A. To Sponsor Blue Back Contest At City Auditorium Tonight

What promises to be one of the most enjoyable entertainments staged here this winter will be held in the city school auditorium this night when an old-fashioned Blue Back Spelling Book spelling bee will be held under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association of the city school.

Words to be spelled will be pronounced from a spelling book used in Transylvania College in 1869. Many of the older residents of the town have declared their intention of entering the spelling bee.

Members of the P. T. A. have been asked to wear a costume worn by them in their school days, and in addition to a prize for the best speller a prize will be given for the best costume. A program of songs and recitations will also be given. A small admission fee will be charged.

The following will take part on the program: Mrs. Frank Henry, I. B. Rose, Mrs. Anna Pretts, Mrs. McIntire, Mrs. Henry Palmer, Mrs. Sterling Blake, Mrs. Bonar, Mrs. Riley, Miss Bines, Miss Patrick, Miss Colville and Mrs. Snelling.

Admission is cents each or 25 cents for family ticket. Come and see the costumes and hear the spelling—"Treat."

Howard Unthank Shot In Fight

Ex-Dry Officer Wounds Son Of Administrator In Row At Harlan Saturday

Howard Unthank, about 21 years old, Lexington, son of B. F. Unthank, Deputy Prohibition Administrator for Eastern Kentucky, was shot through the body at Harlan, Saturday night, by Henry Lewis former prohibition officer under the youth's father.

Young Unthank, it was said, met Lewis, now a deputy sheriff of Harlan county, on Main street, Harlan, and accused him of "putting the dogs in the paper" about his father. An argument is said to have resulted and Lewis backed away.

Unthank then fired, it was said cutting a chain on a watch worn by Lewis. Lewis replied, the bullet entering the youth's body, it was reported.

The wounded youth was taken to a Harlan hospital and operated on. He may recover.

Lewis surrendered immediately after the shooting.

ANXIETY FELT FOR FATE OF OGDENS

Missionaries In Remote Part Of Tibet May Not Be Affected However

AMERICANS TO LEAVE

While considerable anxiety is felt by relatives and friends in this county for the safety of Rev. and Mrs. James C. Ogden and two children, missionaries to Tibet, stationed at Batang, no dispatches have recorded uprisings against foreigners in Tibet as in other sections of China. Tibet is one of the most remote countries in the world and the primitive modes of travel and mail service may have delayed news of the anti-foreign sentiment reaching that place. Rev. and Mrs. Ogden have been in Batang for more than twenty years and have many warm personal friends whom, it is believed, would give them protection if the great anti-foreign wave now sweeping China should reach that country.

Despite an apparent lull in the storm of Chinese anti-foreignism, which burst at Nanking last week, official word was received at Washington Tuesday that the situation farther up the Yangtze River was worse and Americans in the Nationalist territory have been advised to withdraw.

Fifteen hundred more American Marines were sent to China last week to augment the large force already on duty to protect Americans.

Frost Fails To Injure Blossoms Lexington Man Says

The "Peach Blossom Quartet" has been rehearsing this week, but their rehearsals so far have been in vain. Hillenmeyer, of the Hillenmeyer nurseries, Lexington.

The blossoms on fruit trees were not in condition to be easily injured, due to the prevailing cold weather and the lack of rain just previous to the frost.
