CALL FOR A DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

To the Democracy of Kentucky:

At a meeting of the State Executive Committee, held at Louisville, March 17th, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That a Democratic State Convention be called to meet in the city of Louisville, on the National Democratic Convention be held in Cincinnati, to select delegates to the National Democratic Convention, called to meet at Chicago, on Tuesday, June 22, 1880, at 12 o'clock, M.

Resolved, That in accordance with the decision of the last State Convention, prescribing that the representation in the several County and State Conventions should be based upon the vote cast throughout the State, we hereby appoint delegates to the State Convention to be apportioned among the several counties on the basis of one delegate for every two hundred votes cast for Governor at the last election, and that the vote cast for each county shall be determined by the vote cast for the Democratic candidate for Governor, and that the primary elections be held on the same day and the same hour for each county, and that the basis of representation be announced.

J. EDWARD JOHNSON, Chairman.

THE NOMINEES.

After a week of slow progress the Chicago Republican Convention has finally named its favorite son JAMES A. GARFIELD, of Ohio, for President, CHESTER A. ARTHUR, of New York, was nominated for Vice President on the first ballot. GRANT'S friends did hard. GARFIELD attended the Convention as a delegate, and nominated SHERMAN, but from the very hour he received the one vote from Tennessee on the second ballot it was apparent that he was the dark horse and hereafter upon the ballot dodged Presidential aspirations. He was nominated on the thirty sixth ballot by receiving 305 votes.

THUS IS fifth memorable Convention for Chicago.

IT WAS very appropriate that HOAR was made Chairman of the Republican National Convention.

THE LAYNE Democrats passed a resolution congratulating Judge HARGIS on the result of the great trial.

HAD BEN INGERSOLL held the Republican Convention on Sunday he could not have fractured the commandments more than was done.

PRINCE LEOPOLD, descendant of the GEORGE III., of whom the Declaration of Independence speaks so lightly, was a guest of the Chicago Convention. He thought they would introduce royalty.

THIS IS a great country where an orator, can, while at a Convention to nominate a candidate for President, make the toast: Ben BUTLER, of Mississippi, was in the chair temporarily.

ON Wednesday last General WM. PRESTON and Hon. LUCIEN CRAIG were riding on a Louisville street car, and discussing politics. General PRESTON found that Uncle TOMMY, Craig's favorite, went off with Greenback lecture, when a man shook his fist under the General's nose and said no man should say UNCLE WAS not a Democrat, when the General pulled his slip in the other end of the car. Fired knocked down for TILDEN.

THE sad expenses incident to the long trial through which Judge HARGIS has passed has crippled him financially, and friends of his will add a little of what belonged to them. Judge HARGIS is worthy of more than this by the manner of the press and the bar, and they should be instrumental in helping him out of his embarrassment. Many expenses have been paid by somebody else, and now let us all help to swell the paper for HARGIS. Who will head the list?

THE Chicago Exposition building, at which the Republican Convention was held, is a set frame, capable of holding ten thousand people. The band of the far end sounded like it was a quarter away, and only one man was found with a voice to fill the hall. The distance from the speaker to the nearest delegate was about sixty feet. Only the daily press could gain admission, and the editors of weekly papers swore they would defeat the nominee. Adjourning the building was the headquarters for all the railroads, and the whistling and ticket brokers of course was terrible.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Pursuant to a call of the County Committee the Democracy of Nicholas County met in Convention on Saturday, June 5. Grove Chatham was elected Chairman and W. J. Kelso was elected Secretary. On motion the Chairman appointed J. H. Piper, Millard Berry, Wm. Squires, J. F. Miller and G. C. Fatts a committee to select delegates and report resolutions, and said committee retired and their report as follows:

Delegates: T. A. Johnson, W. J. Kelso, J. F. Miller, G. B. Bayles, W. J. Berry, J. H. Piper, C. Bennett, Alternates, J. M. Chism, Wm. Squires, Millard Berry, G. C. Fatts, Jas. Bennett, J. D. Holliday and Wm. Robinson.

Resolved, That we endorse the action of the Democracy of Nicholas County in selecting Judge Hargis as their candidate for President of the United States, and that we pledge the delegates from this county to vote for him in the State Convention.

Resolved, That Hon. E. F. Pritchett, of Boyd County, is recognized as a worthy candidate to represent this district in Congress, and we pledge the delegates from Nicholas to support him.

Resolved, That Hon. T. J. Glenn and Hon. Richard Reid, of Mt. Sterling, be supported the State as Electors at large, and our delegates are instructed to vote for them in the State Convention.

CARRY THE NEWS TO ROWAN!

Hell Was Played in Rowan. But Hargis Didn't Play It.

AN UNBIASED JURY IN 25 MINUTES!!EAR DOWN WHAT IT TOOK SIX YEARS TO FABRICATE.

The "Eagle" Turns Into a Pigeon.

THE announcement of the acquittal of Judge HARGIS was received here by wild exclamations of joy by his friends. We have advocated his cause for three years, and often against pledged, but we feel that justice has at last triumphed. Some fears were entertained of a hung jury, but there was no ground for it, as that body only remained out long enough to take a vote and write the verdict. The action of the 30 Christians-tavern's defense as an ignominious farce and failure. Those who clamored for a trial should be satisfied as the acquittal is clear and complete on all points. The verdict robs a few of their political capital, and will place the object of their hate in the United States Senate where he belongs.

Judge Stiles immediately read to the jury the instructions he expected them to find by, and then read the verdict. All the questions and told them that they could have any paper they desired. At 10:45 they sent into their room. Some people thought that would be the last heard from them for hours, but as it was completely agreed upon, the case in this action produced a sensation in the court room. Many left the room and crowd filled the lobby, the reporters and the father of Judge Hargis were in the hands of their dear friends to hear the decision
