manner and applied to the same purposes that fines and forfeitures against tavern keepers are recovered and applied.

SEC. 4. That all money paid for license, under the provisions of this act, shall be applied to the liquidation of the debt of said town and the improvement of the streets, &c.

SEC. 5. That in case of any violation of any of the provisions of this act on the part of any of the Trustees, they shall each be fined not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars for each offense, to be recovered by warrant before the County Judge, Police Judge or any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction, and applied to the same purpose as in section 4.

All acts, or parts of acts, in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. No license shall be granted under this act until the State tax is paid either to the County Court Clerk or the Trustee of the jury fund.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect from its passage.

LAST August the announcement of the sudden death of Judge Bland Ballard, of the United States Circuit Court, of heart disease, was made. On the 9th day of September Hon. W. H. Hays, of Springfield, Washington County, was appointed and duly qualified as United States Judge. His health began to fail almost immediately. He was suffering from heart disease, and has been under medical treatment ever since. Last Saturday the Judge was feeling better than usual and walked around the yard. He ate his dinner, laid down in the dining-room, read the paper and at 3 o'clock went to his room to take a nap. At 4 o'clock Mr. S. L. Davidson went in to the room and found him lying on the bed, dead. Judge Hays was fifty-nine years of age and unmarried. He was born and raised in Washington County, and at the breaking out of the rebellion entered the United States service as Colonel of the Tenth Kentucky Volunteer Infantry.
