I met a little high school girl, aged sixteen she said; her hair was bobbed had pa-ucase curls, all disarranged on her head. She had a rustic, rural air, and she was pretty glad, her face and eyes were very fair; her beauty made me glad. Then I asked the student in your school? "Yes in all," said she; "Five are girls and five are boys," and wondering looked at me "Mildred Snapp the first left our school, the next was Leo McVey; then Bessie Lee and one girls, as you may plainly see." "If Luther Hollar left our school, some better man Dan Tate fix; down in the Carlisle graded school, then ye are only six." "If Luther did leave school you know, up go with his sister brother, he left his heart at Barterville, Glington to another."

Is There Any Difference In Fertilizer?

We were recently asked this question. There is so much difference in fertilizers that we would advise anyone who expects to use it to investigate thoroughly before buying. Note the analysis on the tag and be sure the contents are suitable for the kind of crop you want to grow. Be sure that the ingredients are derived from the proper sources and that they are properly proportioned for your particular needs.

ARMOUR'S Fertilizers

Are made especially for the different kinds of crops, with the proper ingredients for each particular crop, and are sold under the name for which they are to be used. The idea of fertilizing is to feed the plant, and it is essential that the fertilizer you use contain the proper amount and kind of plant food. If you are in doubt about fertilizer talk to us about Armour's.

EARLY SPRING

(Alfred Tennyson)

Once more the Heavenly Power
Makes all things new,
And drives the frost of winter's old hills
With loving blue;
The blackbirds have their wills,
The throstles too.

Opens a door in Heaven;
From the skies of glass
A Jacob's ladder falls
On greening grass
And over the mountain-walls
Young angels pass.

Before them floats the shower,
And hurry the buds
And shine the level lands,
And flash the floods;
The stars are from their hands
Flung thro' the woods.

O follow, leaping blood,
The season's lure!
O hearts, look down and up
Warm and secure,
Warm as the crocus cup,
Like snowdrops, pure!

For now the Heavenly Power
Makes all things new,
And thaws the cold, and fills
The veins with dew;
The blackbirds have their wills,
The poets too.

The preaching will be by the pastor with the following subjects for the week, beginning with Monday: "The World Must See Jesus", "The Call-But Ficient Christ", "The Approachable Christ", "The Uplifted Christ", "It Is Finished". SEVERAL STORES VICTIMIZED IN SAME MANNER BY THIEF

Several stores throughout this section have been victimized during the past ten days by two women and a man, Burns in Cynthiana, Paris, Georgetown and other places have reported losses.

That the thefts in each place have been committed by the same persons is evidenced by the fact that the same ruse is employed in each case.

The two women and men enter a store, usually at an hour when all but one or two employes are at lunch. One of the women selects a dress and asks to try it on. While she and the clerk are in another room trying on the dress the man and woman steal several more dresses or other wearing apparel.
