The Sunday law went through the Senate on Friday. The vote stood 21 to 8. This will practically move the postage by the House.

CINCINNATI was all alive yesterday with the excitement from along the Cincinnati Southern railroad. This is a grand fad for Southern trade, and primary election for put-rage, as it were.

We publish the proceedings of the Nicholas County Republicans in this issue. We were unable to get the report last week, while the Republicans seemed to think we did not desire to publish. But we always publish the news, and all notices of public meetings find a welcome place in our columns.

THE Green-Hagdon case took a new turn on last Thursday by the introduction of THOMAS M. GREEN, the plaintiff. Judge HARDIN, in his testimony, was very hard to answer to questions, while Mr. Green is very prolix in his answers, occupying a column long in small type. The trial will probably last till the middle of April.

A SHOCKING case was made to assassinate Mayor Baxter, of Louisville, last Saturday, but fortunately no injury was done him. The would-be murderer was Samuel Reid, formerly boss of a gang of street scrapers. A day or two ago Mayor BAXTER discharged Reid from the force on account of habitual drunkenness.

THE Republicans of Mason, like the Democracy of other counties, seem to dwell in unity. At the Convention Messrs HUTCHINSON offered a resolution instructing the county for GRANT, but the Editor was voted it down, when Messrs took the floor, only to be given the floor finally enough to read the vote of the county for the forenoon down on account of alleged drunkenness.

THE OFFICIAL VOTE.

Several having expressed a desire to see the figures on the recent primary election, we present the vote, showing the total vote cast in each precinct, with the majority received by the successful candidates.
