FEED AND HOUSE WELL

TESTS FOR COFFEE PRODUCTION

Tests in feeding hens made at the Experiment Station of the University of Kentucky, and reported in a recent bulletin, indicate that there is no difference between maintenance of body weight and egg production. When body weight dropped, a drop in egg production soon followed in nearly every case. Likewise, sudden drops in temperature in the same way affected egg production.

The most, therefore, for those who would have good egg production during the winter, is to provide a dry, safe house and feed the layers well, points out J. Holmes Martin, head of the poultry department. He said the tests, which included the feeding tests, amounts of meal, scrap, the use of dulled gray and white, shiny limestone, and a comparison of all-mash and grain and mash feeds.

The bulletin, which is No. 294, entitled "Feeding Trials with Laying Hens," may be obtained by writing to Station at Lexington.

CARLISLE SURVEY TO AFFECT COFFEE IMPORTS

A survey now being made in Carlisle will play a major part in the future importation of coffee in this country. The survey is being conducted by a national grocery chain, The Kroger Grocery & Baking Company, in order to determine the coffee drinking habits of the American public. Carlisle is one of the few cities in Kentucky to be included in this nationwide survey.

The results will enable coffee importers for the company to determine what grade and blend of coffee is most desired. The survey is being conducted in conjunction with a coffee campaign now being carried on by the company's store managers throughout the country.

Facts to be brought out by the campaign will include "what goes on the public's taste for coffees from Brazil, Guatemala, and Colombia. The survey will also show the public's preference for blended or straight Burbon Santos coffees. The Bourbon Santos coffee now being imported is a sweet drinking Santos and is rapidly growing in favor in this country. Blended coffees are drunk by more than three million people daily.

A series of tests made recently have shown that coffee loses its body and flavor ten days after roasting. How this deterioration affects the public is to be determined by the Kroger Company. Managers of the Kroger Company's stores in Carlisle will assist in this national campaign.

"COOL KNIGHTS" TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Rollicking Musical Comedy Will Be Given In City School Auditorium

GOOD SHOW PROMISED

Marie Chapter No. 208, Order Eastern Star, will present a three-act musical comedy, "Cool Knights," in the city school auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock.

Miss Crouse, of the Triangle Producing Company, arrived in Carlisle during the past ten days directing the play and rehearsals have been held daily.

There are approximately fifty people in the production, and it promises to be one of the most enjoyable home-talent shows of the season. "Cool Knights" has been given in several towns in this section and in every town it has been produced it has been acclaimed one of the most clever and entertaining shows.

Gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and peppy dances are the features of the show, a lightning clip from the opening in the first act until the final curtain drops.

The opening scene of "Cool Knights" takes place at Oak Grove, where the boys have just lost the football game and the girls are so disgusted they decide to organize the Man Haters League. To realize the main purpose the girls elect Order of Cool Knights and decide to go to Mars Cabaret, the popular dance place in the Pacific where no civilized woman has ever set foot. In the course time, the women start on an ocean voyage, are marooned on the south coast of Moon Island and are there when the men arrive. Then the fun begins. Then was the time for a change.

Following is the cast of characters:

Betty Page, college boy, Mac Mabel Collins; Helen Marsh, keen on Betty, Miss Janie Kennedy; Dorothy Thorn, of studious mind, Miss Katherine Purnell; Tommy Lake, not so inclined, Miss June Thomas; Olive Branch, with a family, Miss Jane Moss; Miss Dean, of the faculty, Mrs. Tillie H. Perkins; Prof. Grey, who coaches football fame, Maurice Westfall; Stephen Carter, true to his name, Edgar Saunders; "Slim" Saunders, who has a bunch, James Smathers; Percy Hall, his sister's double, Woodson Knight; "Handsome" Harry, sleek of the bunch, Harold Waugh; Prof. Grey, who starts the trouble, Grimes Caywood; Sam, head steward at Oak Grove, Lucien Burton McCann; Lisa, Sam's better half, Charles McCann.

Reserved seats are now on sale at Turner-man's or may be purchased at the door Thursday night.

SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNT REGARDED AS A FRIEND

By S. W. Strauss, President American Society For Thrift

"I have learned to rely upon my savings bank account as a strong, dependable friend, and I know of no friend that will stand by me if I should ever be in need. It is a friend that I can rely to know that I have a good friend of this kind."

The foregoing paragraph is from a letter recently received by this writer from a man who has been patiently saving money for a number of years. The idea of regarding the bank account in this manner is, we believe, a very beautiful one. Human friendship is one of the most splendid things in life. A friend who can always be counted on is indeed a priceless possession. We have had our share of ups in life but we never can rise above the friend who stands by us.

There is an old saying that "a friend in need is a friend indeed" and that is the kind of friend our savings bank account always is.

Human friendships are, of course, not fostered for the purpose of having a friend to refuge to in time of trouble. In the same way, a savings bank account should not be created merely for the sake of having something to fall back on when we have need. But when troubles do come to a man, he turns to his friends for sympathy and if need be, help. In the same way he turns to his bank account as a means of salvation when he might otherwise be swept down in ruin.

It also is to be remembered that one's bank account is a friend to whom one may turn for help when opportunities for self-advancement come along. Many a man owes his success in life to the fact that he was able to take advantage of an opportunity when it presented itself—an opportunity that could not have been utilized had he been without funds.

It is well to keep in mind the thought that a savings bank account is a friend and that every dollar we add to this account makes this friend just that much more valuable and much more able to help us when we have need or opportunity for assistance.

GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE AFFAIRS OF PARIS BANK

In the Bourbon circuit court at Paris Tuesday, Judge Ben G. Williams instructed the grand jury to investigate the affairs of the Farmers & Traders Bank, which was taken over several days ago by the Bourbon Agricultural Bank & Trust Company. An examination of the bank is said to have showed a shortage of approximately $20,000.

NEW HEADQUARTERS ELECTION BOARD

More Than One Thousand Persons Attend Dedication Of New Structure. Debt Paid Off

A crowd estimated at more than 1000 attended the dedication of the new headquarters building of the Democratic Committee Friday.

Rev. Ivor O. Hyndman, pastor of the Centenary Methodist church in Lexington, preached the dedicatory sermon, his subject being "Lowest Thou Art." Rev. E. E. Trent, superintendent of the district, read the ritualistic services. Rev. Charles Mitchell, pastor of the church, and Rev. I. S. Pincur, former pastor, under whose pastorate the construction of the church was started, also spoke in the afternoon.

The building, which has a seating capacity of 200, was erected on the site of the old church, built in 1888 and razed to make room for the new structure. The church is one of the most modern rural churches in Nicholas county, and has a large basement and Sunday school rooms.

The outstanding debt of $1,600 was completely wiped out by pledges of the county Democratic committee.

At the noon hour the women of the church served dinner to the visitors, approximately one thousand persons being served.

MAN IS ARRESTED ON ARSON CHARGE

W. D. Shankland, Of Myers Is Accused Of Burning Barn On Clay Farm

IS HELD TO GRAND JURY

W. D. Shankland, well known black smith of Myers, who was arrested last week on the charge of arson, waived examination when arraigned before Judge Paul D. Darnall in county court Tuesday morning and was held to the grand jury at the February term of the Nicholas circuit court. Mr. Shankland executed bond of $400 and was released.

Shankland, it is charged, "did on the 4th day of October, 1929, set fire to and burn a stable barn on the Clay Farm."

The barn burned was one of the finest in the county and was used as a place of farming implements, harness and other farm equipment. It was reported the State Fire Marshal was asked to make an investigation. The investigation made by a deputy fire marshal and the arrest of Mr. Shankland, who was taken into custody upon a warrant sworn to upon the affidavit of the deputy fire marshal.

Mr. Shankland resides near the Clay Farm, and has been in business in the place from the barn which burned.

During the past three or four years several barns and a house on the farm have been burned, incendiarism was suspected in each fire.

The Clay Farm contains approximately five thousand acres of land and belongs to Mrs. W. B. Sharkleford, of Richmond, and her sister.

ECHOES FROM ELECTION HELD LAST TUESDAY

A Democratic gain of two members in the lower house of the general assembly was indicated in returns of the election held Tuesday. The House will be composed of 64 Democrats and 34 Republicans, as against 61 and 37 last year. The official count in Fayette county gave Judge Henry S. Hall, a majority of three votes over his counsin, Judge Lewis Rosenstein.

John Messer, Democrat, was elected county judge of Johnson county, the first Democrat elected to that office in the county in sixty years.

John Cornett, Pulaski, Democratic administration candidate, was elected Governor of Virginia by a majority of 70,000, official returns showed, over his opponent, Dr. William Mosley Brown, standard bearer of the coalition ticket of Republicans and Anti-dmin. Democrats.

Boston county defeated the $200,000 bond issue to build a new jail.

STOLE AUTO, ELOPED WITH WIFE OF OWNER

Alva Henderson and W. Walt, accompanied by two young women from Flint, Mich., were arrested at Maysville on Thursday night and placed in jail at Maysville on charges of stealing Mr. Henderson's automobile and with stealing an automobile from Andie McCurtney, of Flint, Mich., and eloping with McCartney's wife. The young woman accompanied Walt and refused to give her name. The four left Maysville and were found at Paris about three weeks.

FARMERS FAVORABLE TO TOBACCO MARKET

Much Interested In Announcement That Market Here Will Be Re-established

FIRST SALE ON DEC. 5

Announcement last week that Carlisle will have a tobacco market this season has been received with much favor by farmers throughout Nicholas county, according to reports.

A force of men has been at work for the past two weeks making necessary repairs on the warehouse and details say everything will be in condition for the opening sale on December 5.

All that is needed to make the market here a success is the support of the farmers, the men interested in the warehouse here say. There is no doubt but that the farmers will support. There are three large brick home full houses here, assuring plenty of floor room at all times with no crowding.

Before the formation of the Burley Association, the Carlisle market was one of the leading sales centers in Kentucky, sales exceeded in the amount of sales only by Lexington and Maysville, and the averages received here were as high as on any market in the state.

Since the reorganization of the association two years ago, there has been no delivery point here, causing much inconvenience to farmers, who have been forced to transport their tobacco to other towns. With a home market, farmers may now sell their tobacco without the expense of trucking it, if they so desire and by re-establishing a local market can keep their money in Nicholas county.

MORGAN'S MEN KEPT IN PRISON

Old Records Found By Convicts Disclose That Officers Were Confined There

One hundred and eighteen Confederate officers, captured with Gen. John Hunt Morgan in Ohio in 1862, were confined in the Western State penitentiary at Pittsburgh, during the Civil War, it has been revealed in a search of ancient prison records made by convicts in the employ of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Confederacy. The officers were attached to Kentucky and Tennessee cavalry regiments.

That war prisoners were confined in Ohio prisons was denied by Union authorities after the war, although their confinement was said to have been mentioned in official records of the War Department.

Imprisonment of the Confederate officers in the Western penitentiary was made at the request of General W. T. H. Brooks, in command of the department, during a threatened invasion of western Pennsylvania in the summer of 1863. The officers remained in the prison Aug. 3, 1863, and in 1864 the penitentiary was abandoned and the officers removed to field prisons, according to the records. Later the penitentiary was reopened.

When first placed in the prison, a rule was set for the officers, outside the walls, from after three months' confinement, the men planned a method of escape. The plot was exposed, however, and afterward strict discipline was enforced by Major John Birmingham, then warden of the prison.

The records obtained at the prison will be turned over to the Kentucky Convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Biloxi, Miss., Nov. 11.

Gone Ahead, 21, alleged bank robber and his 23-year-old wife, daughter of a Jeffersonville, Ind., police sergeant, were arrested by a posse of officers Monday after the woman had come to Jeffersonville to see her mother. They are wanted for several bank robberies.

MUSKETEERS WIN FROM MAYSVILLE

Carlisle High Takes Last Conference Game Of Season 25 To 6. Play Newport Friday

(By John Parker Ross)

The Musketeers closed their conference season here last Friday by defeating the Maysville high school football team 25 to 6. The Musketeers made 17 first downs to Maysville's one. Never did Maysville get in a scoring position. The Musketeers owned their first marker in the middle of the first period when, after a sustaining drive from the 45, Barnett went off left tackle for the score. Payne hit the line for the extra point. One minute before the half ended Payne, playing the fullback, went off tackle 9 yards for another score, and Waugh failed at the extra point. The last two markers were made in the last quarter, after Barnett and Richie had carried the ball down the field, assisted by both Payne and Waugh in each case. The first one was made by Barnett when he slid off tackle 3 yards for the score. The last score was a pass from Barnett to Payne, who raced 45 yards for the final score. All the team played a great game of ball, but Barnett deserves special mention, playing the greatest game of ball he has played or deserves mention. Our All-Conference selection, Payne, Durham and Gaffin, played their final great game. Waugh did a good job of calling signals in his first attempt at calling a full game. No one on the Maysville team was outstanding, they being so far outclassed. The Musketeers will journey to Newport Saturday morning, 25 strong, to do battle to the team of that place. Newport has one of the strongest teams in this section and a hardgame is in the offing.

ARMISTICE DAY IS CELEBRATED HERE

American Legion, City School And D. A. R. Give Programs Monday

F. W. WALLIS IS SPEAKER

Three meetings in celebration of Armistice Day were held in Carlisle Monday. In the morning the students of the Carlisle city schools gave an interesting program, consisting of a talk by members of the sixth grade, a song by the eighth grades, a recitation by R. L. Norton and several patriotic songs by the high school glee club under the direction of Miss Mabel Collins. Approximately forty members of the American Legion and a detail from the local National guard unit attended the exercises. A large number of Carlisle citizens were present for the program. The students were given a holiday in the afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon Frederick W. Wallis, of Paris and New York, made an interesting address in the Christian church under the auspices of the Major John Pitman Post, No. 5, D. A. R., which sponsored a patriotic meeting. Mr. Wallis spoke on the problems of immigration, with which he is thoroughly familiar, having served as commissioner of immigration at New York.

Monday night the annual American Legion dinner was held in the armory with approximately seventy-five members present. A short program followed, army-style "slum," army-style baked beans, coffee, etc., was served. A collection taken up to pay for the dinner showed a surplus of $10, which was donated to the Johnson hospital. At the meeting Monday night the annual campaign for members was started.

GIRLS ADMIT SENDING THREATENING LETTERS

Students In Both County School Demand Money From Business Men

The source of letters threatening destruction of private property and injury to members of the families of three Owingsville business men if they refused to comply with demands for a payment of money and finally with the admission of three school girls, the oldest 14, that they had written the letters for "excitement."

Last week J. Ed Parker, county farm agent; E. M. Shrout, furniture dealer and undertaker, and Roy Spencer, grocer, received letters demanding that they leave town varying up to $100 at specified places at specified times.

Sunday the girls, students in the Tunnel Hill school, admitted when questioned that they had written the letters which they were in school. The girls' parents were surprised when admitted their daughters had written.

One of the schoolmates of the three girls, Monday morning, received a letter the threatening letters had been received by Stanley Reed, of Maysville, Ky. The board has selected Mr. Reed as substitute to serve until that date. He was formerly with the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association.

The post to which Mr. Reed succeeds pays a salary of $10,000 per year. Mr. Reed, a Democrat, served in the Kentucky legislature from 1912 to 1918 and is a member of a law firm at Maysville and one at Ashland.
