WEAVER'S WISDOM.

His father came to the States in 1840, and was one of the first to settle in the West. He was a man of great energy and enterprise, and he was one of the first to see the possibilities of the West. He was a man of great vision, and he was one of the first to see the possibilities of the West. He was a man of great vision, and he was one of the first to see the possibilities of the West.
