PROGRAM

Tonight, Thursday comes Spencer Tracy and Doris Kenyon in "YOUNG AMERICA." It is not a kid picture nor a sin and jazz story of red hot youth, but one of patriotism and mind a strong story. It might happen to your boy. Dangerous, risk, don't miss this one. Also MOVITONE NEWS. Saturday—Ginger Rogers in "MARK OF THE SPUR." A red hot Western, full of good entertainment. Also a comedy, "LOVE PAINS." Monday—Comes Jackie Cooper and Chic Sales in "WHEN A FELLOW NEEDS A FRIEND." Here is one of the best pictures you will have seen in a long time. It is full of everything that it takes to make good entertainment. Don't miss this one. Chic Sales is the man you listen to over the radio and you like him so come and see him and Jackie together at the

LYRIC THEATRE

Miss Nelle Craycraft has taken a position as bookkeeper at the local Standard Oil Company office.

Dr. H. T. Brisner is attending annual school for health officers of Kentucky being conducted at the University of Kentucky this week.

Wheat and rye harvesting has started throughout the county. Wheat crops were damaged by the drouth but according to farmers will produce about an average yield.

The home of Prof. Joe T. Embry in Stanford was damaged to the extent of about $75 last week when the house was set on fire by pulpers using a blow torch to burn old paint off the house.

Master Commissioner William Conley sold at public auction at courtroom house door Monday afternoon the farm of Scott Blanton on the Taylor's Creek section to Estell Clark for $22 per acre.

Six rustic pillars are to be erected at the entrance of Blue Licks State Park. The contract for the construction of the pillars was awarded by the State Park Commission last week to M. J. Cain of Mt. Sterling.

Four of the persons who signed hospital pledges for the next three years have been placed at the Johnson Memorial hospital since May 1 and their pledges have been applied on their hospital accounts.

The John P. Ballenger farm, containing 160 acres and located in the 4th Zone section of the county, was sold at public auction Saturday afternoon at $47.50 per acre to W. W. Downing and Richard Lyons for $28.20 per acre.

In the list of bankruptcy petitions filed at Richmond last week was that of H. F. Cameron, formerly merchant at Myers Station, the county records show assets at $4187, with exemptions, and liabilities at $3203.

A frame cottage on Mantell avenue in Mt. Sterling, belonging to Frank Mann, of this county, was destroyed by fire last Friday morning with a loss of $1,000. The house was unoccupied and the origin of the fire unknown.

Berry & Kelley, contractors on the Carlisle and Flemingsburg road, have leased a tract of land on the farm of James Gaunce for use as a rock quarry. The quarry has been stripped and metal will probably be hauled on the road in a short time.

The drouth which has prevailed in this section for several weeks has been partially broken during the past few days with rains in various sections of the county. The first rain of any importance in the vicinity of Carlisle in several weeks fell Tuesday. Other sections have been visited by local showers.

The home of Van Thornsbury at Sprout was completely destroyed by fire last Thursday morning. No one was at home at the time and when the fire was discovered it had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the buffiting or any of its contents. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

James T. Clay and Miss Lillian Harrison escaped with minor cuts and bruises about noon Sunday when the new V-8 Ford coach of young Clay's father, Joe Clay, in which they were driving overturned on the Moorefield road near the Cane Run lake. Forced off onto the soft shoulders of the road by another car, the automobile skidded and turned over. The car was considerably damaged.

Thurman Williams, negro, charged with breaking into the house of Tom Holland in the suburbs of Carlisle on June 2, was acquitted at his examining trial before County Judge Paul D. Darnall Tuesday. As a result of testimony introduced at the trial, a warrant was issued for Walter "Frog" Harris, negro, charged with breaking into the Holland home and stealing a ham and other articles.

Seldom has any sale in Carlisle attracted as much attention as the furniture auction being conducted this week by the Lexington Sales Co., with C. P. Dowdalle as clerk for the Geo. T. Howe furniture store. Crowds thronged the building for the opening auction Tuesday afternoon and the building was packed again at the night sale at 7:30. Bidding was spirited and bargains plentiful. In his 20 years as a furniture merchant here, Mr. Howe has never held a special sale of any kind and his $28,000 stock of furniture and rugs is of the highest quality. Sales will continue at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. daily.

Annual Reunion Of Cousins

—E. K. Arnold, pastor.

Services at 10:45 and 7:30. Epworth League at 6:45. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Subject Sunday morning: "Has Christianity Failed?" This is a question in the minds of many of a certain class. We shall try to show that Church people still be interested in this discussion. The pastor will deal with things in this sermon that you should hear. How would you answer this question? Come and let us think together on this great theme. You are always welcome.

The following subjects will be discussed in this series of sermons: "The Rising and Falling of Nations." "The Rise of "Crime and Its Causes." This will be series of thought provoking sermons. Come and think up to the minute and on vital and burning issues. Come and think with us.

Preaching service will begin at 10:30 and closing at 11:30. Do not get confused—begins at 10:30 the 19th.

BAPTIST CHURCH

W. M. Hammond, pastor.

Sunday school at 9:30. Subject, "Our Children's Duty To Our Parents." Lesson text, Genesis 46: 1-7, 28-30, and 47: 7. Come and be present for several Sundays; let's be faithful in attendance.

Preaching 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Each sermon will be worth your time and consideration if you believe in and love God's Word. The exhortations and warnings, the promises and powers in the Scriptures have but little or no meaning for some people. To such, human life and soul is nothing on into the great beyond. Is life so commonly regarded this land of peace and plenty, yet they have made but little if any preparation for that journey. "And they will say unto them, cement begun to make excuse" (Luke 14: 18.) "If I have told you earthly things and you believe them, they had not have sinned; but now they have no excuse for their sin" (John 15: 22). Where and when does God accept excuses? Bring a written excuse, answer Sunday morning, if you can find one, and we will give you a free book. Mid-week service 7:30 p. m. and our June business meeting. Mrs. Mordecai Ewing will be by the children's quartett. Come and let us "Hear Something Good." Text for Sunday morning, "Why do Angels have many wings?" Text for Sunday evening, "Why do angels have many eyes." This is scripture.

DEATHS

MORELAND

Mrs. Malinda Moreland, 64 years old, wife of Mark Moreland, died Sunday at her home in the Stony Creek section. She is survived by her husband, Mrs. Moreland's twice married, her first husband being Ralph Lawrence, who died several years ago. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. M. Hammond, and burial followed in the Carlisle cemetery.

DE WEESE-ALEXANDER

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth DeWeese, of Lexington, and Rev. Harry Watson Alexander, of Carlisle, was solemnized at noon Tuesday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Pyatt in Kenilworth, County of Lexington. Dr. Pyatt, who is a cousin of the bride, was the officiating minister. The wedding was a very quiet and simple affair, according to the wishes of both the bride and the bridegroom.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. B. C. DeWeese, of Lexington, and is a charming and talented young woman. She is a graduate of Transylvania College and a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority. For the wedding she wore a charming ensemble with three shades of blue with hat, slippers and big big smile, and her shoulder bouquet was of pink roses and delphinium.

Rev. Alexander is the son of Mrs. W. S. Alexander, of Charlotte, N. C. He is a graduate of Centre College and the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Louisville, a member of the Phi Delta Theta social fraternity and Omicron Delta Kappa honorary fraternity. While a student at Centre he was prominent in all activities. For the past two years he has been pastor of the Carlisle Presbyterian church and during his stay here has made many friends who regret that he has taken a leading part in civic and religious activities of Carlisle.

After a wedding trip the bride and bridegroom will be at home at the Manse in Carlisle.

Those attending the marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. DeWeese, mother of the bride; Miss Jane Mast
