PROGRAM

Tonight, Thursday, comes Elisar Landi in "DEVIL'S LOTTERY." What was the curse that went with her love? The dramatic heartaches of ill-gotten wealth but her love on man could win. Boy, don't fail to see this one, also Movietone News.

Saturday—Green Bob Custer in "QUICK, TRIGGER LEE." A rapid-fire western, the action fastest and most exciting he man. A clean thrilling western. Also a comedy, "TRADER HOUND." Don't miss it.

Monday—Comes Marion Davies and Clark Gable in "NOLLY OF THE CIRCUS." Don't fail to see this delightful picture it is the kind every one likes to see, full of romance, comedy and thrills. Don't miss it, it after you see it as it is one of her best pictures. Be sure and see it.

LYRIC THEATRE

In county court Monday Arthur Muldkin qualified as administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Maggie Herndon.

Photographs of the members of the graduating class of the Carlisle high school have been placed in the window of Brumley's jewelry store.

Attached to the mail of Will Arthur Green in progress at the court house, one of the oldest men seen in Carlisle on court day in months was here Monday.

Miss Ruth Bonner, who has been school, suffered a badly twisted ankle Tuesday afternoon when he slipped and fell while running after a fly ball during the ball game.

Strawberries have been selling on the local market during the past few days as low as 15 cents per quart. This is far lower price in many years. The berries being sold here are shipped from Southern states.

In this issue is published the report of County Judge Fred D. Darnall of receipts and disbursements on the roads of Nicholas county for the past year. The report shows that the sum of $17,502.70 was spent on the roads.

196 votes were cast in the school election held here last Saturday when Mrs. B. H. Brown and W. F. Clack were re-elected as members of the Carlisle graded school district for terms of three years. Mr. Moss and Mr. Clack are unopposed.

Commencement exercises of the Henryville colored school were held in the Old Fulton Hill in Henryville Tuesday night. The four members from Carlisle were Mrs. Ethel Hutchins, Mary Ann Jones, Katherine Timberlake and Clarice Williams.

Stanley Hardin is confined to his home on the West Dickerson pike with his foot in a cast. Mr. Hardin fell about two weeks ago near his barn, when his foot slipped in the mud, and suffered a fracture of his foot. An x-ray made at the local hospital on Saturday revealed the broken bone.

Defeating the Cardinals by the one-sided score of 11 to 1 Tuesday afternoon, the Giants are now tied for second place with the Reds in the Twilight League. The Cardinals are still leading with three games won and one lost. The Reds and the Giants have won two and lost two each and the Cardinals have won one game and lost two.

In the Bath circuit court at Owingsville Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Ward, 18 years old, was given a sentence of fifteen years in the Frankfort reformatory on a charge of killing William Gilvin, 38, at the home of Mrs. Bertha Gray near Salt Lick, Bath county, on the night of last January 2. Mr. Gilvin was a former resident near Sharpsburg in this county.

Preaching weather during the month of March brought considerable rain but it kept fences in Carlisle and throughout this section. These hedges remained green throughout the winter and the heavy rains of March and the sap was rising, killing the tops and in many instances the entire plant. Some of the fences have been cut off to the bottom and are growing from the root.

George McCarty, of the Myers section of the county, was arrested Monday afternoon shortly after he had cut Arthur Crawford, of Millersburg, one of his tenants, in a quarrel on Main street. McCarty was given an examining trial in police court Tuesday morning and was held to the grand jury. Crawford is a son-in-law of Arthur Brashears, of Carlisle.

The annual spring reunion of the Kappa's Mrs. Association will be held at the Lafayette hotel in Lexington, Saturday, May 17, beginning at 10 a. m., according to announcement made by Frank C. Taylor, of Lexington, secretary of the association. Approximately twenty veterans of the Confederate command of General John Hunt Morgan will be present to attend. Mr. Z. T. Alexander and Mr. Neal Wagoner are the only surviving Confederate veterans left in Nicholas county and it is probable that neither will attend.

George D. Scott, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Scott, of Carlisle, took one of the principal parts in the play, "Daddies," given by the dramatic club of Bereathea College Friday night. Young Scott is prominent in the dramatic circle of the college, being president of the Bereathea, the dramatic club which produced the play. Besides his dramatic activities he is associate editor of the Trail Blazer, the college newspaper, humorous editor of the Raconteur, college annual, president of the junior class and a member of Peri Ekonos, college press club.

BECAUSE OF THY GREAT BOUNTY

(Grace Noll Crowell)

Because I have been given much, I too, shall give,
Because of Thy great bounty, Lord, Each day I live.
I shall give of my gifts from Thee
With every brother that I see
Who has the need of help from me.

Because I have been sheltered, fed, By Thy good care,
I cannot see another's lack
And I not share
My glowing fire, my loaf of bread, My roof's shelter overhead.
That he, too may be comforted.

Because love has been lavished so Upon me, Lord,
I shall love love to those in need, The cold and hungry clothe and feed,
Thus shall I show my thanks indeed.

RELIGIOUS

PRATHER HALL

A real vision of the Lord always brings a blessing to the beholder. The believer who knows the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ is really rich and generous.

God is always true even to the greatest. The vagabond Jacob deceived the venganee of God, but instead God gave him a vision of Heaven. Meet with us at 9:30 and enjoy the inspiring studies of God's chosen but wayward people, Israel.
