"I don't want a better car than the Ford V-8"

said a Carlisle man this week. He is delighted with his purchase---its speed, silent gear-shift, ease of handling and economy of operation.

People who can afford to buy cars in the high-price range, see no reason for spending that extra money when they have tried out the Ford V-8.

Oh, well, I will see her at the Lyric.

LYRIC THEATRE

Mrs. Eda B. Taylor, County Superintendent, announced that a teachers' examination will be held in the circuit court room at the court house May 26 and 27.

Bernard Linville was painfully injured one day the past week when he was kicked on the leg by a mule he was shoeing near town. Fortunately no bones were broken.

Lambs are selling on the auction market at Sharpsburg this week at $0.80 per hundred pounds, according to market quotations. Wool is selling 12 cents per pound for first grade.

The regular monthly meeting of Mt. Sterling Post No. 17, American Legion, will be held at the armory Friday night. All members are urged to attend, as business of importance will be transacted.

Master Commissioner William Conley sold at public auction last Friday morning at the Harrison County court house door, the following tracts of land, the property of the late Mrs. Anna Sims Lee, and executed bond for $18500 J. W. Parker, Sterling Blake and H. K. Veach were appointed appraisers of the estate.

The banks and postoffice will be closed next Monday, May 30, in celebration of Decoration Day. There will be no mail delivery. Correspondents are asked to send their letters in Saturday, if possible, or bring their letters to town Monday.

The eighty-second annual commencement of Kentucky Female Orphan School at Midway was held Wednesday night at which time the diplomas were granted to the thirty-seven members of the graduating class. Miss Tempa Gaunce, daughter of Cleveland Gaunce, of this county, is one of the graduates. Miss Gaunce was giftorian at class night exercises.

Following his refusal to testify against Goebel Bussell in the circuit court last Friday afternoon, James Kelley was arrested on a warrant charging him with perjury. He had been indicted on a charge of selling whisky upon the testimony of Kelley. In county court Tuesday morning Kelley waived examination and was held to the grand jury under $300 bond.

Miss Nealya Thomas Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burgess, of Carlisle, will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree at the commencement exercises of St. Agnes College in Memphis, Tenn. Miss Burgess is a graduate of the Carlisle high school and has been a teacher in the public schools of Memphis for the past seven years. She has been taking summer training at St. Agnes College and attended night classes.

Pictures of the students who took part in the May Day exercises at the Carlisle city schools will be published in the rotogravure section of the Courier-Journal next Sunday. The pictures were sent in by J. Gaylord Blair, son of Mrs. J. O. Blair, who is in charge of the advertising department of the rotogravure section, and Mr. Blair wrote a letter here in which he stated the pictures would be in next Sunday's paper. The Courier-Journal will be on sale at the Carlisle Drug Company.

James Henry, local angler, Wednesday told the Mercury the best fish story of the year. While fishing Tuesday night, a bass weighing about a pound and a half jumped into his boat. Mr. Henry said he put his boat in the water, rowed across the stream and as his boat touched the opposite bank the bass made a flying leap into the boat. His story is vouched for by his companion, A. Jo Davis, fishing season closed, Mr. Henry, naturally, had to return his prize catch to the waters.

The court of appeals last week reversed the decision of the Nicholas circuit court in the suit of Joseph Dale against the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company, in which the plaintiff sought to recover an accident insurance policy of $1,000 on Walter Dale, colored school teacher, who was killed here in March, 1929. The suit was brought on the grounds that Dale had been killed for the purpose of robbery or accidentally, as verdict for the court rendered a verdict for the plaintiff. The court of appeals, in reversing the decision, ordered a new trial.

GROWTH

I put my ear against the ground
And felt a sudden wonder
That a thousand startled seeds
Burst in spring wide asunder.

I laid my finger on the grass
I was almost afraid
To feel the rush of rivers through
The center of each blade.

I knelt a moment to the earth
And turned a level eye
Upon the empty mountains
That struggled toward the sky.

Clover jostled clover;
I trembled at the sight
Of forty thousand warriors
Fighting toward the light.

METHODIST CHURCH

E. K. Arnold, pastor.

You will want to be at Sunday school Sunday at 9:30 to hear our Orphans Home children sing over the radio. A radio will be installed in the church for this program. We will come over WHAS. The entire school will assemble in the main auditorium. Come early, everybody. Remember the time, 9:30 sharp.

Preaching at 10:45, subject, "The Indwelling Christ." Evening service at 7:30. Epworth League at 6:45. Your presence helps. You need the church. The church needs you. Men are giving their services as teachers, ushers, and in other ways in the church. The least service one can give is attendance. This is service all can render. Surely one we should be willing to give. If you are a stranger in town or not in the church you are invited, if a member you are expected. Be in your place, be on time, come and help your church do its work.

BAPTIST CHURCH

W. M. Hammond, pastor.

RELIGIOUS

PRATHER HALL

Religion is man's thought about God, while Christ is the truth about God. All that religion claims for the present is mere morality, reform, the claim of Christ is a new creation. Religion is all kinds of forms of godliness; Christ is the fact of godliness; and as he is, so are we in his life in his God. Come at 9:30 and receive a welcome to worship with us.

METHODIST CHURCH

E. K. Arnold, pastor.

You will want to be at Sunday school Sunday at 9:30 to hear our Orphans Home children sing over the radio. A radio will be installed in the church for this program. We will come over WHAS. The entire school will assemble in the main auditorium. Come early, everybody. Remember the time, 9:30 sharp.

Preaching at 10:45, subject, "The Indwelling Christ." Evening service at 7:30. Epworth League at 6:45. Your presence helps. You need the church. The church needs you. Men are giving their services as teachers, ushers, and in other ways in the church. The least service one can give is attendance. This is service all can render. Surely one we should be willing to give. If you are a stranger in town or not in the church you are invited, if a member you are expected. Be in your place, be on time, come and help your church do its work.

BAPTIST CHURCH

W. M. Hammond, pastor.

The Sunday morning Bible School will begin in our church May 30. The hours are from 9:45 a. m. until from one till four o'clock p. m. If the children prefer to remain at the church during the lunch hour they may bring box lunch with them each morning. All children from ages four to seventeen years are welcome. Parents who have children not invited to attend this Vacation Bible School, if a member of some church last year has been an inducement to have their children to attend this Bible school, which will run for one week.

The mid-week prayer service is at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Text is "Part of the Good." Mark 7: 27 and Acts 12: 25 Subject, May 29, "Joseph the Dreamer," Genesis 37. Prayer meeting 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject "Three Days Prayer at the cross." Evening subject, "The Voice of the Silent Dead." Mark 5: 41 to 6: 7. This is a Memorial Day service.
