PROGRAM

Tonight, Thursday, opens Spencer Tracy and Joan Bennett in "MEN AND MY GAL," a comedy that will keep you laughing. Listen, if she doesn't neck she is old fashioned and if she does she is wicked. Well, anyway, what am I to do? Well, come and see what she does.

Saturday—Comes Tim McCoy in "END OF THE TRAIL," a new good Western of life on the old western trail. Also a comedy.

Monday—Comes Constance Cumming and Lee Tracy in "WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND." You'll gasp in amazement at daring young congressmen who challenge and defeate the Big Shot, and he's aided by a girl who knows her onions. Don't miss this one, you will like it. And don't forget the benefit show Tuesday, Feb. 7, for the undeveloped children of our school. We know you will be happy you want to do your part in this benefit.

LYRIC THEATRE

Rev. J. E. Moss, of Mt. Sterling, was the principal speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Lions Club held at the Prewitt Hotel Tuesday night.

Leonard Alexander qualified in county court Saturday as administrator of the estate of his father, the late Walter Alexander, and executed bond of $1,500.

Mrs. Margaret Minihan, of Lexington, qualified in county court Saturday as administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Mary McBrayer, with Mrs. Charles Lavin and Will Minihan sureties.

Up until noon Wednesday only 490 automobile licenses had been issued. Last year a total of 1,258 passenger car licenses were issued. We have but six more days to operate cars on 1932 licenses.

R. W. Neal, who opened two "durk" pin alleys in the Sims building on Main street a month ago, is installing another alley in the building, the increasing business necessitating the additional alley.

Rollie Scott, well known local carpenter, suffered a painful injury to his eye last week while a piece of emery wheel which he was operating at the home of Onzy Gifford in Robertson county slipped off and he struck him in the eye.

During the past two weeks, numerous inquiries have been made of The Mercury office for furnished rooms, suitable for light housekeeping. Persons who have furnished rooms for rent may find a tenant by the use of a classified ad.

A part of the offices of Harper's Garage is being remodeled and will be converted into sales and display room will be used as a tire room. The new arrangement will be large enough to display several cars.

Work was opened by the State Highway Commission on Friday and Wednesday afternoon for the grade and drain and surfacing of the Carlisle and Sharpsburg road from the Fields highway to the Nicholasville line, a distance of 3 miles.

One of The Mercury's county correspondents says the robins remained with us all winter, staying in thickets and sheltered places. This probably accounts for the fact that a number of them have been observed in Carlisle.

At the Neal Duck Pin Alleys Tuesday night, the Doctor's team defeated Sexton's Cash Store team by a score of 1526 to 1511. The individual scores were as follows: Doctors—Lambert, 304; Nash, 296; Osborne, 288; Smith, 347; Smiser, 291. Sexton's—Clifford, 346; Miller, 279; Campbell, 310; Jones, 327; Sexton, 327.

Within the thirty-six hour period from Friday night until Sunday morning, the heaviest rain which has fallen in this section in many months put all creeks out of their banks and caused considerable damage by washing fences and washing gaps in various sections of the county. No damage was caused in Carlisle. The total rainfall was said to have been approximately four inches. Licking river was higher than at any time in the past three years.

Dr. Clarence W. Kash suffered minor cuts about the face and head Friday afternoon by being thrown when his automobile and a wagon driven by Earl Veach Delaney, of the Headquarters section, collided at the Chestnut and Elm streets intersection. Kash was driving on Elm street and Mr. Delaney was driving the team of horses and wagon down the hill by the Christian church. Both were unable to stop in time and the tongue of the wagon ran through the window of the Kash car. The accident was unavoidable.

The past week has been disastrous for the Carlisle high school basketball team. Three games having been dropped. The team made a six weeks end trip to Pulaski county and lost two games. Last Friday night Somerset defeated the local quintet 21-19 and the following night Science Hill administered the second dose of the season by a score of 43-12. On Tuesday night Nicholasville came here and defeated the Musketeers 30-23 in an overtime period. At the close of the game the score was 22-22, but the visitors quickly drew away from Carlisle in the overtime.

The Smiths are truly as happy a pair
As I am familiar with, anywhere,
And the reason their life is "Perfect Purse"
They put on their Company Front at home!

He doesn't appear in a negligee
That hasn't been cleaned in many a day;
And she never has curl-papers on display,
She puts on her Company Front at home!

He never barks at her—he's polite
As though he only knew her by sight,
He's a model for Emily Post—at home—
He puts on his Company Front at home!

They thus avoid real marital dangers
By being as pleasant as perfect strangers,
Yet peace in the house—from roof to sand—
They put on their Company Front at home!

PROTESTANT CHURCH

E. K. Arnold, pastor.

Services Sunday morning at 10:30. Sunday school at 9:30. Young peoples meeting at 6:15. Splendid last Sunday. Specially fine audience Sunday night for the educational talk. The young people take part in these services to the delight of all. We will join in the evening in the union services and will be held at the Christian church.

PRATHER HALL

The Servant—but, though He was the Holy Lord Jesus, visited with publicans and sinners in order that they might receive the unmerited grace of God. The synagogue of the olden days held a good many sinners and there has been no change since. The Pharisees made the Sabbath day a burden instead of a day of rest, as the Lord God intended it should be. Come at 9:30. You are always welcome.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

H. W. Alexander, pastor.

Midweek service at 7:00 Wednesday night, "How Auld, God overtook Hezekiah." A God executeth His decrees in the works of Creation and providence. Sunday school Sunday morning at 9:30, topic: "Jesus and the Sabbath." Morning service at 10:30. Text: "Have I been so long time with you and yet hast thou not known me?" Union service at the Christian church Sunday evening at 7:00. At this service we will hear a speaker representing the "Allied Forces" in behalf of Prohibition.

BAPTIST CHURCH

W. M. Hammond, pastor.

Sunday school at 9:30. Subject, "Jesus and the Sabbath." Scripture, Mark 2:23 to 3:6. An interesting lesson for all. Come and give us your personal view of proper Sabbath observance. Morning hour of worship 10:45. A union service will be held with the Christian church and pastor at the usual hour Sunday evening and with an out-of-town speaker. See announcement elsewhere in this issue of Mercury, and be sure to attend which you read. A large congregation expected. Go early and be sure of a seat.

Our young folk meet at 6 p. m. Sunday evenings. Prayer service Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. Come and bring others with you. Bring a Bible or New Testament that you may have a bigger part in the program for the evening. Try it.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

S. H. Cunningham, minister.

Bible school, Sunday, Bruce Bell, 10:30 a. m. sermon: "The Offense of the Cross." People seemingly think much of the cross today as the symbol of Christianity. But, is the cross still an offense today? We think it should be. Come and hear why.

7:00 p. m. sermon: "What They Told Us Back in Main Street." Measure it in any town is interesting. Jesus walked on Main street in His day. And so they tell me he walked on Main street—but come and hear what they tell.

9:30 a. m. Bible school. There are fifty-two Sundays in the year. Is one-third or one-half of these means only seventeen or thirteen hours of spiritual training per year? Is the soul of a child of less importance than the mind? If rain and cold does not keep him or her from school, nothing should keep him or her from a Bible school where consecrated, volunteer teachers serve for the sake of souls which are soul and life. The responsibility is with you, and not with us, in the matter of attendance.

6:00 p. m. Jr.-Int. and Sr. C. E. meetings.

Wednesday at seven, special Bible training for all.

There is always a welcome at all services
