PRATHER HALL

The Lord Jesus was perfectly content of all that "God hath done." The knowledge of His sufferings did not dawn upon Him gradually. He had the cross before Him from all eternity. The shadow of the cross was upon Him as He sets His face like a flint to go to Jerusalem to die upon it; but His disciples still believed He would yet set up His earthly Kingdom, although He had been officially rejected by Israel. When that kingdom comes, at the return of Christ, those for whom it has been prepared will be given it. When He comes at that time, He will bring His reward with Him. Rev. 22:12. So far as the saints of the present dispensation are concerned, they shall be rewarded at the judgment seat of Christ, at His coming into the air for which the body was prepared. (I Thess. 4:13-17; II Cor. 5, 10; II Tim. 4: 8)
