Tickets Now On Sale For "The Green Pastures"

Drama and musical enthusiasts have awaited with patience the local advent of "The Green Pastures," Pulitzer prize play, which comes to the Woodland Auditorium, Lexington, Thursday, Feb. 22 for two engagements, matinee 2:15, night 8:15. Its world premiere occurred at the Mansfield Theatre, New York, on February 16, 1930, and 840 consecutive performances were registered before it departed Broadway for Chicago.

In Chicago the play achieved a run of 160 performances, and that engagement was followed by a Pacific Coast tour. Then came long runs in Boston, Philadelphia, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities of the East and middle West.

In 18 scenes "The Green Pastures" depicts the rise and fall of mankind as viewed by the simple plantation Negro in the deep South. Mr. Connelly, the author, found the helps for his play in Roark Bradford's collection of Southern stories contained in his book, "Ol' Man Adam an' His Chillun." The play is enacted by a cast of more than 190 persons, including the "Heavenly Choir," the splendid singing group rendering sirring Negro spirituals.

The prices for the night are $3.30, $1.65 and $1.10. For the matinee $1.65 and $1.10. The balcony is reserved for colored people the prices for the balcony are $1.65 and $1.10 for the night and $1. for the matinee.

Make reservations now to insure good seats.

VALENTINE TO ONE'S WIFE

(John Erskine)

Hearts and darts and maids and men,
Vows and valentines, are here;
Will you give yourself again,
Love me for another year?

They who give themselves forever,
All contingencies to cover,
Know but once the kind and clever
Bravadoes of love and lover.

Rather let the year renew
Ritualo of happiness;
Vows are valentines, are here:
Let me ask, and you say yes.

Love me for another year!
Here is heaven enough to climb,
If we measure, now and here,
Each delicious step of time.

The bride is a professional nurse, having been night nurse at the Johnson Memorial hospital for several years until her resignation several weeks ago. Mr. Kenton is one of the known farmers of that section. Both have many friends who join in wishing them much happiness.

DEATHS

ABRAMSITH

Mrs. Jennie Arnesmith, wife of Cyrus Arnesmith, postmaster at Bethel was found dead in bed Sunday morning at her home, five miles from that place. Mrs. Arnesmith had been a sufferer from heart trouble for some time. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon and interment was made in the Crown Hill cemetery at Sharpsburg. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Frank Dickens, and one son, Ollie Arnesmith, both of Bethel.

MYERS

Mr. Henry P. Myers, 91 years old, died Monday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. M. Blair in the Myers section as the result of a stroke of paralysis suffered a few days before while he was seated in a chair. Mr. Myers was a native of the Myers section, but resided for many years in Oklahoma. Beside his daughter, he is survived by four sons, all of whom reside in the West. One son, Thompson Myers, of Oklahoma, arrived a few days before and was with his father when he died. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Cassidy Creek church and burial followed in the Cassidy cemetery.

RITCHE

Mrs. Fannie Herrington Ritchie, 41 years old, died at noon Saturday at the Johnson Memorial hospital following a short illness from asthma and other complications. Mrs. Ritchie and her one week old baby were brought to the hospital from her home in the Headquarters section on Monday before her death. Mrs. Ritchie had been in a serious condition since the birth of her baby. Mrs. Ritchie is survived by her husband, Willie Lee Ritchie, and four children. Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon, conducted by pastor of the Salwell Methodist church, and burial followed in the Carlisle cemetery.

MYERS

Mr. John W. Myers, for more than half a century a resident of Carlisle and Nicholas county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lucy M Masters, in Lexington last Thursday night following a long illness.

Mr. Myers was born in Robertson county, the son of the late Peter and Rebecca Schwartz Myers. He spent most of his life in this county, and for many years was engaged in the blacksmith business here. For the past several years he had resided with his daughter in Lexington. His wife and two sons, Mason Myers and Newton Myers, preceded him in death.

Mr. Myers was a life-long member of the Methodist church and was for many years a member of the official board of the church. He was a leading Democrat here for many years and was one of the most widely known men in the county.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs Masters; two grandsons, J. M. Fuller, Lexington, and Whitney Myers, Cincinnati and one great-grandson, Billy Fuller, Lexington.

Funeral services were held at the Masters home Saturday at 12:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. B. O. Beck, pastor of the Nicholasville Methodist church, after which the body was brought to Carlisle and funeral services were held at the Carlisle Methodist church, conducted by Rev. E. B. Arnold, assisted by Rev. J. Burke. Burial followed in the family lot in the Carlisle cemetery.
