A SEWING MACHINE FOR $2.00

Who about this time will Jerome left us we have always found collecting rather slow to settle, and if he (the reason) that we offer a premium to those who will come in and help us at this time. We propose to give away a large fully warranted Sewing Machine, and several good books. Let Christians we did him and it brought us a nice sum of money at once, when we kindly needed it. We hope this year's work will prove more successful. If the person drawing the machine does not want it we will give $15 for it. The books will be of the most desirable. Now come in and help us and get a chance.

THE ELECTIONS.

Election took place in many States last Tuesday. New York went Democratic by a fair majority. Virginia was reclaimed from Mahoney; Maryland stands firm, while in Iowa the Democrats made gains. Ohio goes Republican, as does Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Taking all things into consideration the Democrats have done exceedingly well, and the re-election of Cleveland is almost an assured fact.

GOV. CHILDS has rescued several soldiers in the last few days from jail, evidence he has time to release executive clemency in the condemned Applegate case.

THE United States Supreme Court has unanimously decided that there is no ground for a new trial in appeal from the decision of the Illinois courts in the Anarchist cases, and unless the Governor of Illinois interposes executive clemency, the condemned men will be hung to-morrow.

A VIRGINIA farmer who has been offered $10,000 for a yearling colt has refused the offer. Now he and feeling happy finds that cattle eat with a relish, especially those men who thinkly that the colt's sire will larger than a mule's fly. Such a man is not likely to be easily fooled in any horse deals on.

HON. W. B. Kelley, the old Pennsylvania Congressman, said in his speech at Louisville, that the history of the world showed that more men and lands had saturated upon sorghum than upon wheat.

ACCORDING to the Louisville Times, the goose-bone predicts a warm, wet and unhealthy winter, with plenty of rain, wind and disagreeable features, but very few real cold days. In fact, a winter that will be prolific of consumptions, pneumonia, and other maladies of the lung tract. The coldest weather will be about the middle of January, while February will be more like spring. November will open the holiday, in the worst month of the whole lot.

It is now rumored that there will soon be an important cabinet change in Washington. Secretary Lamar is said to be mixed for the supreme court to take the place of Justice Woods. Postmaster General Vilas is to succeed Secretary Lamar in the department of the Interior, and Don M. Dickerson, of Michigan, is to succeed Mr. Vilas as postmaster general. Mr. Dickerson is a lawyer of Detroit with a large practice, is said in the dispatches reported to be an able man.

A WESTERN farmer who had five bushels of wheat to the acre, calculates that if plowed into $2 per bushel he would realize $10 per acre for his labor.

IT'S an old saying, but nevertheless true, that time makes all things even. For the past hundred years people have been eating the corn and pumpkins from the hogs, and now the hog's day has come to get in his work on the wheat that was made for man to eat.

HON. JOHN D. YOUNG, Railroad Commissioner, was here last Thursday looking after matters connected with the railroad. The only complaint we heard being some few that if the balance of the company to furnish cars for the transportation of coal. Col. Young promised to look after the matter. While on this subject we take occasion to say to our readers to consult the Commissioner's office when they have any complaint to make. Don't growl around and let your neighbors know your troubles, but go to the proper authorities and have them righted. If you have any complaint to make, or information to give, write to the Commissioner. He will be glad to hear from you.

THE order of the condemned Anarchist in Chicago jail were searched last Sunday, and a text of Ling, "The Anarchist Catechism," were found six gas pipe bombs, caps, fuses and dynamite in the cell. The Anarchist will of its inmates into fragments. The condemned men were transferred to other cells after a close examination of their belongings, and will remain under the constant scrutiny of jail officials until their execution or removal from jail by executive action. The finding of these bombs will double the result in chilling the leniency sentiment favorable to clemency which has characterized many Chicago people within the past few days.

THE ANARCHISTS.

To-morrow, at Chicago, seven men will pay the penalty of their lives for having murdered a number, and assisted for life others, of the Police force of that city. The men have seen fit to place themselves where they are, and they do not deserve the great amount of sympathy that is being wasted upon them. They are anarchists and nevermore from others, and when the law steps her stick about them they get howling mad. They are opposed to law, to the existence of God, and deny the right of men to make laws for the mutual protection of each other. They deny the right of property, the existence of honor or virtue, and would have the world return to darkness and blood. Do the people of this prosperous and happy Republic want such ideas to prevail, or such men to live? God forbid. Then what shall we do?

Why hang every mother's son of them, and when others rise up to take their places as society, let them also take their place on the gallows.

This is a government of law and order, a country of quiet and peace; a land to be desired, and when a few red handed murderers and infidels of either or countries come here, let them understand they must obey the laws of the land, hang or "git."

The friends of the condemned men are trying to make the whole nation sad, for if these men are hanged. They will have an opportunity to live over again. But they will not. When the law asserts herself criminals shrink from public view, and when those seven murderers pay the penalty, then will the scare it their business and quit it.

In Illinois the fact that a man has had a lawyer accused of a killing has not shelter him from serving on the jury. We do not know whether it is on the ground that no one believes that he can be a juror, or whether it is a compliment to the intelligence of the public.

FIFTEEN years ago, Mr. Pearl Fergason, while passing through a button-hole in a fence, Mercer county, observed a dog engaged in a fight with a number of hounds over the carcass of a sheep. The hounds, with one exception, were those of Mr. Fergason. Approached. The one which remained true to his dog until Mr. Fergason arrived. Seeing a bell on the dog's neck, he took it off and added it to the neck of the hound, which he then released. Mr. F. had never heard of either bell or hamed since then and they were sure by. He now receives a few days ago, and he was greatly surprised when informed by the newspapers had frequently mentioned "the belled hound" during the past fifteen years.

Our farmers are somewhat uneasy in regard to the wheat crop.

Indian summer is still with us, much to the alarm of hog butchers.

Several of our sporters have been hunting in Robertson this week, where they report game plentiful.

Mrs. Mollie Dotson and daughter Miss Lilda, have returned from a pleasant visit to Bracken County.

Charlie Linville and sister, Miss Hattie, have been visiting friends this week.

John Beagley, of Paris, an ex-citizen of this community, will wed a Miss Wells of Bourbon county, this week.

Brown Allison has built an ell to his house, which adds greatly to its appearance.

Ike Ritchie Jr., of Batterville, was married on last Saturday to his sweetheart, Miss Mollie Ritchie, Rev. Wilson Mann, who officiated.

Uncle George Linville attended the funeral of Uncle Tom Kenton, at Mt. Thompson church, in Robertson last Saturday.

Joseph and Marion Wagoner of Lewis County, are visiting their brother-in-law, George Linville.

Our correspondent was the last week for the nomination of Hon Hiel Robertson, Methodist Church. It will be built at Bild Hill next year.

Mrs. Dr. Wood, of Paris, has been visiting relatives here for a few days, while the Dr. was enjoying a hunting excursion in the woods of Robertson.

Mark and John Dotson sold their crops of tobacco to Mr. Ed Hinton, who will have the opportunity to feel Uncle Sam's fist. But they will not. CITY CASH STORE.

James A. Chappell.

FOUNDED IN 1825.

"ESTO PERPETUA."

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 7, '87.

To the mixed host of readers of this column:

Dearly beloved:

Once more I send hearty greeting from this great and mighty city. Arrived at Philadelphia Saturday at 5 p. m. Stayed all night with Mr. Lewis Ziegler, 1618 North 16th street. Had a good nights rest and splendid city breakfast next morning.

Went to the Baptist Church on Broad Street, heard Dr. Wayland Hoyt preach a bountiful sermon. Went to the Methodist church, and the Pastor, Dr. Humphreys, went with Mr. Lewis Ziegler and myself to the home Mr. Ziegler on 15th street, where we had supper. Methodist Governor. At 5:28, left on the New York Express and reached New York hour 29 Went the excitement runs high. The City Store will not take any part in this election, but will quietly slip around among the Mammoth Dry Goods Houses, and wherever we can slip up on a bargain we are going to do so. On Monday we hands. In the mean time we shall try to have some of our new purchases ready to show on Tuesday by the help of the Adams Express Company.

It should be a matter of pride to all my friends to know that no other town has been represented in New York this Fall, near to Carlisle, except the City of Lexington alone. Patronize the City Store are they for sure of getting the latest styles, the best goods and the lowest prices. It is also a strange that people come 15 to 20 miles to buy goods at this big store.

Now I want you all to look out for some nice new Dress Goods, Cloaks, Shawls, Muffers, Cloaks and Shawls, Table Damasks, Towels and Napkins. Hosiery and Hosiery and Gloves. Hoods and Tobeggans. Notions, Fancy Goods, Plaids, Cantons, Jeans, and all sorts of goods for the Winter trade. Thus you see my trips here represent the fore seasons. The Fall trade was a boomer, now let us give the Winter trade a grand send off. Our whole force will be on hands next Monday, myself included—each one with "coal in hand and eager for the fray." All this week I will be "marching that Broadway down"—with the flying artillery of the City Store firing at short range and keeping the bridges down my game and bagging it ready to be served up hot and savory to the heat set of customers on earth.

Let every body who likes the City Cash Store speak a good word for us, for none of us appreciate fully the value of a good word. We are working for you all, will you not join in the good work.

J. A. CHAPPELL,
City Cash Store.
