VINSON TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR TOBACCO TAX CUT BY CONGRESS

Expresses Hope The Summer Study By Subcommittee May Open Way

TAX IS NOT JUSTIFIED

Washington, June 27.—(A. P.)—Representative Vinson (Democrat, Kentucky) said today he was beginning now to plan a fresh attempt to obtain reduction of the Federal tobacco tax at the next session of Congress.

"Vinson's bill to cut the Federal tax on tobacco products 40 per cent received a favorable report from the House Ways and Means committee in the closing days of the session, but never was considered by the House.

"The congressman said he hoped a study of Federal revenues and income taxes by a new tax study subcommittee this summer might open the way for the tobacco levy.

"The tobacco tax itself," he said "probably will not be the subject of any lengthy study by the subcommittee, but if the subcommittee succeeds this year in increasing revenues by eliminating inequities in existing common school diplomas at the examinations which were held in eleven classes in several years. When the county diploma examination was held here several weeks ago a total of fifty of the pupils who took the examination failed. Another examination was held last Thursday when twenty pupils, most of whom had failed in a previous examination, took the test and sixteen passed.

The program will be furnished by members of the class, and will consist of recitations and musical numbers.

Court Affirms Glenday Sentence

Court Of Appeals Upholds Death Sentence Imposed On Killer Of Isaac Chasteen

Unless granted executive clemency, Ernest Glenday must die in the electric chair at Eddyville for the murder of Isaac Chasteen, as the court of appeals Friday upheld the death penalty imposed on him by the Nicholas circuit court.

Glenday was convicted with Jesse W. "Birdsy" Tincher for the murder of Keenon while they were robbing the Farmers Deposit Bank in Sharpsburg Ground in November, 1932. Previously the court had affirmed the death penalty imposed on Tincher. Other participants in the robbery were Isaac Swanagan, Jimmie Tincher and Lonnie Harvey, who were sentenced to life imprisonment. Glenday was a native of Canada, while "Birdsy" Tincher was a native of Sharpsburg.

Glenday, "Birdsy" Tincher and Swanagan were members of the gang of bandits who held up the Farmers Bank at Carlisle, J. H. Wilson, cashier of the Moorefield Deposit Bank, Mrs. Bessie Reed, Clara M. Shaw, Carlisle with Mr. and Mrs. McQuilly, who resided near the bank, in an unsuccessful attempt to rob the Moorefield bank a few weeks before the robbery of the Sharpsburg Ground Bank. Mr. Wilson was placed under forced at the point of pistols to accompany the bandits from their home to the bank where they were kept prisoner for several hours. Mr. Wilson convinced the bandits that the safe containing the bank's funds was a time-lock which would not open until 8 o'clock and the bandits, at the approach of daylight, decided the robber plan to remain until it opened.
