CITY CASH STORE

James A. Chappell

FOUNDED IN 1853

"BESTO PERPETUUM"

A song of Thanksgiving from the City Store, another year has passed away.

By this time the people of Lexington are beginning to feel the effects of the cold weather.

The cold weather has been with us for some time now, and it is not likely to abate for some time yet.

It is a pleasure to see the people of Lexington so well prepared for the winter season.

The City Cash Store has a large stock of winter goods, and we are glad to see the people so well prepared.

Our stock of winter goods is complete, and we are glad to see the people so well prepared.

SPECIAL SALE AT URBANSKY'S

Having expected more severe weather than we've had up to date, we overstocked ourselves with Overcoats. Now in order to reduce our stock we offer all overcoats at 10 per cent. less than former prices.

If you need an Overcoat don't neglect this opportunity. We will also reduce the price of Ladies' and Children's Cloaks. We shall not wait until after January to do this, but after Saturday, November 24th. Overcoats and Cloaks must be sold regardless of the prices they bring.

G. L. HEYMAN, Manager

City Store holds on her way through Winter's storms, and Urban's Cloaks, through all the months of the year, with its complete variety of goods.

It is a pleasure to see the people of Lexington so well prepared for the winter season.
