THE MERCURY.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

G. B. KELLER, Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One year, strictly in advance $1.00
Six months, in advance 50
Three months, in advance 25

Parties who printed slip on your paper and as that will keep paid since, be careful to leave it an ordinary letter, to be perfectly safe, send a postoffice or express money order or bank draft. Address all letters to

G. B. KELLER, CARLISLE, KY.

Entered in the Carlisle Postoffice as Second Class matter.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 27.....1888

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.

For Vice-President,
ALLEN G. THURMAN, of Ohio.

For Congress,
THOS. B. FAYNTER, of Greenup County.

Congress has passed a resolution to appropriate $100,000, for the relief of the fever sufferers, under the discretion of the President.

One hundred thousand dollars have been placed in the hands of a Privately man to bet that Cleveland and Thurman will be elected.

The Chinese empire is over. The formal rejection of the proposed treaty by the Chinese government has been received, and the bill prohibiting Chinese immigrants is in the hands of the President.

The last article written by the late Richard A. Proctor, the Astronomer and scientist, was on the subject of yellow fever, from which disease he died a few days after writing his article.

The Leader, which is a red hot Republican paper, publishes the above as an argument why people should vote for the Republican ticket, and we publish it as an argument why people should vote the Democratic ticket. It is evident that Mr. Calkin has changed his political affiliations because a Democratic Congress refused to rob the treasury in order to make it possible for Americans (Calkin & Co.) to compete with foreigners (Carnegie & Co.). It is exactly what the Democrats ought to do, and what Calkin & Co. should not want.

At Nashville, Tenn., a primary election is to be held to decide who shall be Representative in the Legislature that will support for United States Senator Bate, a Bourbon Democrat, and to direct opposition to the intention of the Cleveland men.

Lexington is welcoming the refugees from the Yellow Fever districts, while many other cities are closing their doors. When the time comes to have goods and return home, we hope they will not be forgotten by the southern people.

At a big Democratic rally at Cooper's Mills, Oswego County, a few days ago addresses were made by Hon. Thos. H. Paynter, Hon. S. E. Lisk and others. A 182-foot hickory pole was raised. The crowd fanned off a fine dinner and a good time generally was had. The appetite of the meeting were cured by D. W. Cooper. Mr. Cooper's all right!—Bulletin.

The Commercial of Cincinnati says: "The recent voter time since that the resident Chinese in this country had increased nearly ten-fold in three years, was not credited, but is true nevertheless. Such notice has been received by Mongolians in Cincinnati and the city. It was said at the time that the Chinese government was organizing and perfecting an army and navy for the purpose of making war upon these Heathen."

The Frankfort Capitol of the 22nd says: "Lieutenant Governor Jas. W. Bryan, whose illness has been so protracted past has varied serious concern for his recovery, is improving, as is but natural. Assurance is given that he is not to be on the ticket as a candidate for re-election, but will be a member of the Legislature from Lincoln county."

Texas is not so secure to be little, if any, doubt as Democratic headquarters that the Democratic majority will carry the State of Michigan in November next. In 1884 they carried it by upwards of 100,000 votes and Mr. Blaine received 182,000. This year the Democratic majority will be reduced by the removal of the native Republicans to other States, the death of prominent officials, and the substitution of Democratic officials in their stead. Then again the tendency of the State has been a Democratic direction for two years past, with a growing sentiment in favor of reform and against unjust and forms of Republican robbery of the people. The fact that the issue is squarely for tariff reform, the State is likely to be won from the Democratic Democratic.

Father A. Ryan, the editor of the Irish World, makes a strong appeal for the success of the ticket of the Democratic party this year. Patrick Ford is his name and he says he supported Blaine in 1884 and has been for the Democratic party ever since. Irish World," Thomas wheel, he could appeal to his fellow countrymen in words that would be brought home ever. Patrick Ford is a man of great influence among his people, and is trying mightily hard to do good work for his employers.

A Washington special says: "Congressman Breckinridge, of Kentucky, has introduced a resolution in the House to-day, directing the Secretary of War to appoint a commission, consisting of three army officers, to locate and report the best practicable route from Louisville, Ky., via the Cumberland river to the forks of the Ohio, thence to Cairo, and the Cumberland river to Nashville, and the Cumberland river to Burnside, Ky., and to estimate the value of the property there destroyed, ascertaining the names of the owners, value and description thereof, which report the Secretary of War will transmit to Congress as early as practicable."

GET THEE TO A NUNERY.

Rev. G. W. Young is somewhat excited over the fact that Mr. Paynter declines to waste his time with him (Young) while Democrat puts in his work securing votes for himself. Mr. Paynter like all thinking men, recognizes the respectability and honesty of Rev. Young, who is making the race purely for the fun there is in it. He doesn't have war a red cent to his party and was the cause of driving voters from him. He made a very funny speech, but one about as entertaining a member of the gospel as could well be imagined. He not only gave no satisfactory reason why he is a deputy disgusted there. He is now parading before the people and will make a week more at a Donnybrook Fair, during some one is going to be hit of his eye. He gives a tip to the chip on his shoulder. Mr. Young should secure his discharge and pray for more reverence, and if he should petition for a fair share of piety and earnestness, he would not ask in vain. If Mr. Young will allow him to say it, he would be a success if he would only preach the gospel and not think more of himself when he came forth, and would succeed quite as well as his ministerial deputy.

A DEMOCRATIC LEADER SPEAKS

Ex-Congressman Harvey C. Calkin, a life-long Democrat, who has been a leader in Democratic circles, was for a time active in his efforts to defeat Harrison and Morton. He has taken the stump and Mr. Calkin in a Tribune reporter that he had been induced to do so because he believed the principles of the Democratic party. I have long been convinced that the tariff system is a robbery of the people through unjust taxation on shipping, and I was no longer one to support it. Democratic successes in the past have been largely due to the Democratic Shipping League, an organization which has been of great benefit to the country. I have joined Congressman Breckinridge's movement to restore to the people their shipping, because I believe it is the only way to secure cheap transportation. If the Republican party of this country would stop long enough to consider the question, and at the Republican convention they would be perfectly satisfied with the state. I am sure that they would not support Harrison if they knew that your measures simply to get the money that had been taken from them by the tariff, and that they would vote for your measures simply to get the money that had been taken from them by the tariff, and that they would vote for your measures simply to get the money that had been taken from them by the tariff, and that they would vote for