Henryville Church Holds Big Rally Day Sunday

The Henryville Methodist church enjoyed a most profitable day on Sunday, Sept. 15th. Rev. J. Henry Stewart, D. D., former pastor of this church, now of Louisville, was guest speaker at the 11 o'clock service. He brought with him 75 members of his church. Rev. I. D. Bloom and a number from Mt. Sterling were present in the afternoon. The sermons were very inspirational coupled with the singing of the trained choirs. The Dorsey compositions were sung solely by the choirs, quartet and the Gospel Singer, of Louisville. The citizens of Henryville will long remember this day. Dinner was served by the Missionary Society. 1t*

Maysville High School Will Abandon Football

Maysville dropped from the ranks of Kentucky towns with high school football teams Tuesday when the student body voted to abolish the sport. Following the decision of the students Coach Earle Jones announced that teams on Maysville's 1940 schedule would be released from their contracts.

Faced with a squad of only 14 players, Coach Jones issued a call for more candidates but he elved no response. The letter was then put before the students and they decided to abandon the sport. Following the meeting Coach Jones announced the school would have a six-man football team and games with southern Ohio teams will be booked for the season.

Maysville will have a basketball team and next spring will have a baseball team for the first time in the history of the school.

Only six women are now employed at the sewing room, Mrs. Paris said, but it is believed more will be added the first of October.

Independent Stores In State Show Increase

The number of independently-owned stores in the state of Kentucky has been shown a steady increase in trend in the state of Kentucky during the past 12 years while the number of chain stores operated in the state has decreased in that same period, according to a study of reports by the United States Census of Distribution and the United States Census of American Business for the years 1933 and 1935. The data, compiled by the Retail Trade Stores Council from these official reports, shows that the percentage of the total retail business of the state obtained by individually-owned stores has increased from 71 per cent in 1929 to 76 1-2 per cent in 1935.

In the boom year of 1929 there were 2,000 independently-owned stores in Kentucky. By 1933 the number had dropped to 23,311 and by 1935 it had grown to 26,826.

The 1771 chain stores in the state in 1929 had decreased to 1,749 in 1933 and by 1935 had dropped to 1,529.

Kilgore said 2,118 policy-holders were enrolled. Two thousand were needed. Operation will start Oct. 1.

Draftees Must Answer Over 100 Questions

The prospective draftee's first weapon will be a well-sharpened pencil or a well-filled pen. His first entrée into the compulsory military service program will be to attack a questionnaire more formidable than an income tax blank and as searching as a cross-examination of an impostor.

By this means the government expects hundreds of local Draft Boards to know how many of the 16,500,000 male citizens in that age group will be eligible and qualified for military service.

The questions number more than 100. They ask everything from the size and weight of a man's wife to whether he himself is in jail.

Reds Within One Game Of Winning Pennant

The Cincinnati Reds moved to within one game of the National League pennant Tuesday by nosing out Philadelphia 2 to 1 while Brooklyn was losing to St. Louis 5 to 0. The Reds must win but one more game of their five left to clinch the flag while is losing one of their twelve left to play to cop their second straight National League pennant.

Two Doctors Develop Vaccine For Measles

Discovery of a vaccine for measles was announced Tuesday at the bicentennial conference of the University of Pennsylvania.

The serum is good for both children and adults and in warfare would be used to protect soldiers from the fatal attacks of pneumonia that have followed measles outbreaks in military camps.

The vaccine is the first for any almost universal childhood disease. It was developed by Dr. Joseph Stokes Jr. of the University of Pennsylvania medical school and Dr. Geoffrey Blake of the Squibb Institute, New Brunswick, N. J.

Drive Opens Against Motor Laws Violations

The State Highway Patrol announced Tuesday inauguration of an "intensive campaign" to enforce the motor vehicle traffic regulations within school zones.

Declaring "the opening of schools has added greatly to the dangers of motor vehicles on the highways," Patrol Director Lake W. Nelson told patrolmen "it is our duty and privilege to be on the alert and see to it that speeding and drunken motorists are removed from the roads before they have had time to snuff out the lives of innocent children."

Visiting Ohioans Top State Accident List

Thirty-three per cent of the out-of-state drivers involved in Kentucky automobile accidents during the first six months of 1940 were Ohioans, the State Highway Department reported Friday.

Fifteen per cent were from Indiana, 13 per cent from Tennessee, 10 per cent from Illinois, 3 per cent from both Missouri and West Virginia and 22 per cent from "all other states."

Patrol officials credit Midwesterners' familiarity with curving roads such as Kentucky's for the high accident involving Ohioans and Indianans.

Sunday 130th Anniversary Of Ky. Sunday Schools

The 130th anniversary of the first Sunday school in Kentucky will be observed throughout the state next Sunday, September 22. Many counties in the state have arranged elaborate programs for the observance of the occasion.

The first Sunday school in the state was conducted by Mrs. Margaretta Brown on the lawn of her home in Frankfort. After the death of the little daughter of Mrs. Brown, she devoted her life to Christianity and on September 22, 1810, she organized Kentucky's first Sunday school in the parlors of Liberty Hall in Frankfort.

MONEY TALKS

Frederick W. Stamm, Economist and Director of Adult Education University of Louisville

Loan sharks are enjoying a boom in many communities in many banks and personal loan companies are unwilling to lend to any of the 5,000,000 potential drafees for the Army and Navy.

Many personal loan companies have frankly told the unmarried man between 21 and 35 that he doesn't have a chance to secure a loan unless he can put up security or secure a cosigner who is either married or over 35 years of age. Most of these loan companies are corporations regulated by state laws, and they cannot take a chance with their stockholders' money.

Many banks find themselves in an unenviable spot. If they refuse to lend to these possible drafees, the Government may charge that they are not cooperating in a national emergency. But the banker is not lending his money, but yours, and one which we have on deposit. And I am sure we want him to be prudent in the way he handles our money.

All this hesitancy in making loans to potential drafees is caused by a bill which is under consideration in the House of Representatives Committee on Military Affairs. This bill would "suspend the enforcement of civil liabilities, in certain cases, of persons in the military service of the U. S. in order to enable such persons to devote their entire energies to the defense needs of the Nation." For instance, the bill provides that the installment plan could not be repossessed although the drafted man did not keep up his installments. This would be hard on the automobile or refrigerator dealer who has sold cars or refrigerators on the installment plan and who has received no payments on them. Then could he sue the soldier is in camp or off to war and then collect in hot competition.

Banks look at a person's willingness and ability to repay a loan when due. They must, for they are simply custodians of our funds. They are likewise under strict state and federal regulations.

Loan sharks do not operate under such laws. For high interest rates and exorbitant fees they are willing to take chances. The drafiee has helped their business.

The Government should make some provision to take care of the financial needs of these potential drafiees, but it should not expect the banks to accept the risk. That is not good commercial banking.

If the juice from an apple pie runs out into the oven, shake salt on it. It will burn crisp on the bottom of the oven and may easily be removed.

Keep a dozen or more cans of soup, meats and fruits on your pantry shelves. You need them have no fear of the arrival of an unexpected guest.

$52,900 Bid Is Submitted For Postoffice

Lowest Bid For New Structure Submitted By Busboom And Rath Of Salina, Kansas

Busboom and Rauh, of Salina, Kansas, submitted a low bid of $52,900 for construction of the postoffice at Carlisle when bids were opened at Washington last Friday. Other low bidders were the Langlois Construction Company, Berwyn, Ill., $53,900, and John R. Redding, of Whiting, Ind., $55,000.

No announcement was made as to whether or not the bid had been accepted, but it is believed the Postoffice Department will accept the bid, as this is approximately the same cost as other postoffices being constructed throughout this section.

Mrs. B. F. Reynolds, Postmaster, said she did not know when work would be started on the construction of the building.

The first work will be the razing of the two buildings on the lot. Plans for the building call for a brick and stone structure, one-story high, with basement.

The new post office for Carlisle will be a one story building of Colonial design to be erected on the northeast corner of Sycamore and West Main streets. Containing more than 102,000 cubic feet of space, the building was planned to meet present postal service needs as well as to provide facilities for an expanding business.

Under the Federal Public Buildings Appropriation Act of 1938, $35,000.00 was allotted to cover the purchase of the site, construction costs, and the administrative expenses incurred by the Public Buildings Administration.

Outstanding features of the design include brick facing for the exterior walls, trim of stone and wood, and a pitched metal roof surmounted with a wood cupola for the front portion of the building. A flat composition roof inset with a large skylight will cover the work space in the rear.

Flanked by two windows on either side, the main entrance will be decorated with wood pilasters, separate cornice, hollow metal door and frame, and transom and ornamental eagle above. Grande gray and buff brick, as well as metal railings and lamp standards.

Arrangement of interior space provides a fourteen foot wide lobby across the front of the building, containing five service windows and almost 200 lock boxes for the convenience of the public. Decorations of this area include marble wainscot, and plaster walls and ceiling.

Postmaster's office, offices for the financial section, and a large work room occupy the balance of the first floor. The ground floor area will be utilized to provide offices for Extension Service of the Department of Agriculture, and work rooms and furnace rooms.

The Public Buildings Administration is the office in charge of the Government's permanent organizations for the design and construction of buildings. Its operations reach from the "Treasury Department office to the departmental buildings that make Washington one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

Thanksgiving Is Set; Date Is November 21

You can tell the butcher now you want your Thanksgiving turkey for November 21.

Receiving many queries as to the "probable" official date for 1940 Thanksgiving Day, the White House indicated that President Roosevelt shortly would proclaim the third Thursday in November as the day of thanks, a week ahead of the traditional last Thursday in November.

Last year the Chief Executive moved the date ahead one week and aroused a national furore.

Draft Rules Put Into Effect By President

Detailed Instructions Given For Conscription Program

President Roosevelt put into first peacetime draft into effect Monday, prescribing minutely detailed rules to guide an army of civilians in handling the conscription of men for the nation's expanding armed forces.

The Chief Executive called on the 48 state governors for the "every help."

In identical letters, he wrote to them:

"The procurement and training of our manpower under proper administration, fairly without fear or favor, is undoubtedly the most important single factor in our entire program of national defense."

The President asked them to fill their respective quotas by one system in their states and to submit to him immediately the names of those they wish as state draft directors and members of local boards and selection boards.

A national director of selective service probably will be nominated in a few days, White House officials said.

Millersburg Man Accused Of Rape

Orie D. Fryman, about 30, of Millersburg, was arrested Monday by Bourbon county officers on a charge of raping a girl less than 13 years old, Sheriff Silas Bedford said. Sheriff Bedford arrested Fryman on the Charles Jones farm near Millersburg.

Fryman was placed in the Bourbon county jail at Paris in default of $1,000 bond to await examining trial.

MAY SEND 30 DRAFTEES

According to War Department calculations approximately 30 Nicholas county youths may expect to be drafted in the next year. Figures are The Mercury's, based on the War Department's formula for arriving at the number to be called from a given community.

The formula is: Take 14 per cent of the total population, then divide by 40.

Every volunteer, however, can be credited with one by one.

While only this number will be called for the first draft, War Department plans call for the training for one year of every able-bodied male citizen between the ages of 21 and 35, who has no dependents, before 1945.

Musketeers Defeat Georgetown 18-0

Local Team Scores Easy Win Over Visitors Friday Night

The Carlisle high school Musketeers took their second consecutive game of the year in defeating Georgetown high 18 to 0 here Friday night. The Musketeers were the best all the way.

Carlisle scored twice in the second quarter and once in the fourth. The first touchdown came when Cardill broke through left tackle and raced 20 yards to the goal line. A short time later Shearer faded back to his own 40 and strike, tossed a 30-yard pass to Cardill, who ran for the touchdown. The third touchdown was made by Chambers on a plunge from the seven yard line.

The Musketeers made eight first downs to six for Georgetown. The visitors made a determined effort to score on the final minutes, but Carlisle put up a spectacular defense against them.

In the football game the Musketeers looked better than any Carlisle high school team in several years. While some of the linemen are a little green, the 1940 edition of Jackson Coaches Johnson and Fair have the heaviest and fastest backfield to wear a green and white uniform here in several years.

Between now and the game Miss Helen Keene Veach Girls Coach presented a sweater of the team for the season. Miss Veach was elected sponsor by an election held by members of the team. Misses Anne Burnam, Thomas Hardwick, Mary Knapp were named attendants to the sponsor.

Only One Of Six Fugitives Still at Large

Three Of Jail Breakers Surrender, Two Others Captured At Homes In County

Only one of the six prisoners who escaped early last Thursday morning from the Nicholas county jail is still at large, five having either surrendered or been captured since.

Shafe Hobbs, of Lewis county, charged with Harlan Hamlin, also of Lewis county, with stealing four tires from the garage of Eugene Boots on the Flemingsburg road, is the only one of the fugitives still at large.

Two of the men surrendered to Jailer Will Owings last Thursday night. They were Ben Bromagen, of the county, charged with murder, and Ernest Bowles, charged with stealing an automobile. The men told Jailer Owings they went to the home of a relative of Bromagen in Paris and that the relative persuaded them to return to Carlisle and surrender.

Marvin Stanfield, charged with stealing an automobile, was arrested Saturday night at the home of his father, John Stanfield, who resides on the farm of Mack Ritchie on the Lower Ackstown pike. Sheriff L. B. Barton, Deputy Sheriff Floyd Clark, Jailer Will Owings and Allen Howe drove out west to the Stanfield home and arrested the fugitive.

Raymond Gray, charged with stealing an automobile, was captured Sunday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Gray, on the Pleasant Springs road. Officers who arrested him were Deputy Sheriff Clark, State Patrolman Paul Cameron and Jailer Owings.

Harlan Hamlin, of Lewis county, was brought to the jail early Monday morning by his brother and an uncle and turned over to Jailer Owings.

Deaths From Falls In Past Year 25,800

If consistency is a virtue, it would be fitting to prove it by appraising the clumsiness that makes people fall down and kill themselves.

Americans are the most consistent amateurs in accidents, at the business of falling down, the 1940 edition of Accident Facts, the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, reports.

Drownings reach their peak during summer months and more people burn to death in December than in any other month. Most accidents happen have their peaks and low points in July. Falls keep about steadily along at a steady, deadly pace.

Accident Facts reports 25,800 deaths from falls last year—8 per cent of the total, and 1 per cent in January, the lowest totals for any month.

Form Militia To Take Guards' Place

State Civil Defense Director John J. Greenleaf said an organization of an "active militia" of 1000 to 1800 men to supplant the National Guard when that body is called into active service had been started.

Greenleaf's announcement came as it was learned the first Kentucky Guard unit to be called, Company H, Louisville, is now at Camp Shelby, Miss., where it will be used to be a tank company of five officers and 86 men with headquarters at Hopkinsburg. Greenleaf said he had heard two medical units at Richmond soon would be called.

Population Of U. S. Is Now 131,409,881

Gain During Past Decade Smallest In History

The census bureau announced Saturday that the population of the United States on April 1 was 131,409,881. This was a gain of 7 per cent since 1930—the smallest percentage increase in any decade of American history.

The 48 states and the District of Columbia reported 8,634,667 more residents than they did 10 years ago, but individual states had widely different stories.

By percentages, Florida gained the fastest of the states, 27.9 per cent, while South Dakota lost the most, 7.5 per cent. The District of Columbia, where the number of government workers has doubled outpaced all the states with a 36.2 gain.

In actual numbers, California gained the most, 1,196,437, and Kansas lost the most, 81,862.

Kentucky's gain was 8.9 per cent, from 2,614,589 to 2,839,227. Tennessee's was 8.6 per cent—from 2,616,556 to 2,916,992.

The 7 per cent national gain was less than half the ratio in the previous decade. Census Director William L. Austin said this was due to a declining birth rate and a virtual stoppage of immigration during the last 10 years. From 1910 to 1920, the gain was 14.9 per cent, and from 1920 to 1930 it was 16.1 per cent.

LEAF CROP IMPROVED

Nicholas county's tobacco crop will produce a yield of at least one-fourth more than was believed the middle of August, before the rains, Nicholas county farmers say. In some sections the tobacco had become so burned up by the drouth that farmers were beginning to cut it. In many fields the plants did not cover the ground.

After the general rains the middle of August the leaf started growing and the production in Nicholas county will be about three-fourths or more normal, farmers say. The quality of the leaf is good.

Taking advantage of the favorable weather of the past ten days, farmers have cut and housed their crop and most of the Nicholas crop is in barns.

One of the best records made by any saddle horse in American show rings this season was that compiled by Speakin' Desire, a plantation horse owned by Dr. A. B. Plummer, master of Orchard Grove stable at Millersburg.

Speakin' Deacon showed at the recent Kentucky state fair in Louisville, winning the Kentucky-owned class and the gelding class and being reserve champion to the world's champion mare and also reserve champion to the world's champion gelding.
