DRY GOODS CO. URBANSKY'S CLEARING-UP SALE

New York City, Aug. 21, 1891. By the time this reaches you some of our earliest purchases will have been shipped to Carlisle, and may be seen at our store.

While in New York we intend to purchase our Dress Goods, Trimmings, etc., then proceed to Boston for our stock of shoes and rubbers.

In the meantime, if you are in want of any Summer Goods call at our store, where they will be sold at cost, or very little above that.

Yours Respectfully, B. H. HEYMAN, Managing Partner.

N. B.—We will sell you Lexington Yarn, all shades, at 75 cts. per pound, by weight or count.

The Soap that Cleans Most is LENOX.

GANTERS CHICKEN-GOULDS CURE

ATTENTION—FARMERS.
