"FROM OVER THE LINE"

(J. W. Rosser)

"God give us men the time demands Strong minds, great hearts, and willing hands. A people free, and free and strong, world-wide, is now on the move. Let us be with me against me And he that gathereth not with me, scatteth abroad."

We can see, not far from the date visits of the Lord, the efficient new post office building in Carlisle, costing some $50,000 or far greater. It must have visioned it, architects have interpreted it, and workmen are constructing it. Veritably, it improvement stamped upon the wings of time.

We visited Mr. Homer Bryson in the Harrison Memorial hospital last week and Pale and emaciated from long illness, he smiled and exhibited a bright sense of faithful endurance, and expressed joy found in church meetings with friends and kindred. He is well known in Nicholas and Harrison counties.

Recently we heard Mr. Healy Myers, Carlisle, say "I consider my constant Bible study, and preparation of Sunday school lessons in the Harrison Memorial Class in the Carlisle Christian church, the most important work of my life." We agree. Such men we do not often see. The due to age and long service are. That could, the Bible says, be Christ's, if he lived. It teaches how to die.

Years ago there lived in Harrodsburg a Harrison Morning Glory. Nicholas county, county seat of the same was "U. R. A. Rattler." Now there lives "over the line" in Harrison a Nicholas county paper. His name is "I. No Who."

O February month of joy

We love your changeful ways

You bring us pleasures long desired

In glorious holidays.

The ground hog comes the second day

And Lincoln comes soon after

Then Cupid darts within the heart

To bring the young folks laughter

Then Washington, brave Washington

Whose name we all revere

He comes along with flag and song

Our country's father, dear.

But leap year does not come this year

Don't mourn, you lad and lass

For February brings this advice

After three more years pass.
