Woman's Club In Last Meeting

The Carlisle Woman's Club met for the last session of the year at the home of Mrs. B. F. Reynolds on Sycamore Friday afternoon, May 7.

A short business session was held, with a review of the work done the past year given by President, Mrs. Frank Henry, following with the installation of the new officers for next year, Mrs. Walter Irvin, First Vice President, and Mrs. Everett Smith, secretary.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Cleo Dawson Smith of Lexington, delighted the audience with her informal discussion of her new book, "She Cows To The Yellow" which is now in the hands of publishers. Her journey to New York and her interviews with several leading playwrights, including Sunrise and Sundown, were most entertaining.

The review of the play, crowned play of the year, where "The Ear Of Mark" was well received. Dealing with the war, it is of much importance as it concerns the efforts and aspirations of the middle class with a splendid analysis of the conscription and deviation to a cause we know is lost.

Although closed to outsiders, but there was enough of the play to be in keeping with the occasion, was a fitting end of the year.

After the business and program was ended and roses were passed their appreciation, Mrs. South served a delicious salad course in Carlisle.

Mrs. Reynolds was pointed in entertaining for Mrs. A. T. Guthrie, Mrs. Marion Mahoney and Howard Irvin, who served delicious candies during the tea hour.
