THURSDAY, JAN. 29, ... 1891

THE Democrats with the aid of five Republican Senators have succeeded in adopting the Force Bill again.

GOV. HILL, of New York, has been elected U. S Senator. He may yet be President, as he has never been beaten for anything he started after.

O. J. WHEDON of Covington is a candidate for Secretary of State. Mr. Whedon is one of Covington's live men. If he wants the office he will get it.

THE Home Committee on public buildings has agreed upon a favorable report of the bill appropriating $2,000,000 for the erection of the new public building at Chicago.

THE Hon. William F. Vilas, ex-Postmaster General, and later Secretary of the Interior, in President Cleveland's Cabinet, has been elected to the United States Senate from Wisconsin.

THE Democrats are making a hard fight against the Force Bill in Congress. They are determined to obey the voice of the people as expressed last November.

THE Legislature of Tennessee has postponed action on the Kimball House prize money for a State exhibit at the World's Fair until the disposal of the Federal election bill in Congress.

IT is reported that the Minister of the Japanese parliament and the chief-justice of the supreme court of Japan, Christmas, which proves that in Japan country government Jags are taken as long strids beyond the United States.

THE report comes on from Frankfort that ex-Governor Knott and Governor Buckner have fallen out over Hardin dog, and don't speak as they pass by. It is also said that Governor Buckner has become so disgusted with the Constention that he will probably not be a candidate to succeed again.

THERE is a change in the Illinois Senatorial situation. The Alton Farmer members vote with the Democrats and prevent the taking of more than one ballot each day. The vote is as follows: Palmer, Democrat, 101; Oglesby, Republican, 92; Alton Farmer Alliance, 3.

THE Legislative Committee of the Cotton Con. has reported a clause providing that the Legislature shall not pass a full corpse a majority of all the members elected to each house. As a full corpse prevailed in the Con. Con. they would not allow a many thousand dollar new Constitution, for it is a fact that no new Constitution ever framed in Kentucky has ever received a majority of the votes cast at the polls, but has always been rammed through upon a roll-call.

FRANKFORT correspondent of Courier-Journal says: "Dr. Hatcher, of Bowling Green, is another one of the many members of the Legislature who has a mission stand for infection, and is not in a rush to his home paper to find it out. Dr. Mathews had the misfortune to lose his mission stand by fire, and the doctor has been unable to find another that will serve him as well as the one he had. He is now engaged in looking around for one."

A LOUISVILLE SOUR ATHLETE, Gr. Jas. Hill says: Senator ever Gordon, in an interview to-day, said he would not favor democratic Legislature for the Senate because it would prevent the appointment of Joe Atkinson's successor, but he would not, for he has put it out of his head that a good hatin was doubtful. Gordon talks strongly against the third party movement in the Legislature, but says that if the favorite of the White House gets the Democratic party, the next best thing is his brother-in-law, Governor Buckner. He gives Governor Buckner's brother-in-law, Governor Buckner's brother-in-law, Governor Livingston, who is chairman of the State Alliance a fair say by saying he does not think Alliance officers should be in politics.

On Thursday last we dropped down to Frankfort to look in on the Constention. We found that body in session. Its members barely cognizant of their work, and the committees hard at work to arrange matters so that nothing else in the legislative line would be needed for the next twenty years. Several members of the Convention thought the Mississippi Land act a fraud but with the Convention's work as it should have been.

We are glad to see them think so at last, but for the life of us we can not refuse to believe that they are not in position and consequently open to the charge of corruption. We are frank to say that have adopted a number of most excellent provisions, but many are not so good. We speak the minds of the people when we say that the good feature is that the Convention will do no more. Many persons have already made up their minds to oppose the adoption of the new instrument because of its proposed length, and through fear that they may vote something on there, agree that they may not again. We wish the Convention well.

BLAIR IN MORTON'S CHAIR.

The promise of Senator Blair in the place of the Vice President last week is a fine illustration of the fickleness of the Republican party.

Only a few months ago Senator Blair was a representative government, but so often as he is to all classes of people, even the complexion those Lion crawled and named Gallinger to be President pro tem.

It was natural for Ben Blair's return to Washington his Republican Friends should be glad to see him, and Senator Sherman and Governor of the Alleged election, 1888, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce that R. M. KENNEDY will be a candidate for Representative from the counties of Nicholas and Robertson, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Erwin's Error.

If President Erwin was really an authorities about the matters of his management of the Fair, he certainly should have raised the danger signal before it was too late. If people were upon facing the Force Bill upon the fourth, that action should have nothing to do with the Chicago Fair, or any other Fair north of the Ohio river. If the North will give Smithfield one half a show she will take care of herself, just like the original color soldiers have done.
