Choose From a Wide Variety Of "Greens" for Your Salad

By ALICE DENHOFF

GONE, perhaps, is the day of hunting dandelion greens and the seeking out of young mustard in the fields where "pieces of meat". No venturing into the meadow, armed, better yet, with knife and sharp eye, in quest of the piquant "mess of greens" that delighted our ancestors the first weekend in May.

Now, however, improved agricultural methods, quick transportation have combined to bring us the greens that we relish, chicory, endive, romaine—ones strangers to our tables years ago but now they are our good friends. Spring is the season for trying out these greens with promises of to celebrate the arrival of Spring to add crispness, vitamins, fun.

Boiled Greens

If you are serving boiled greens, serve with a sharp mustard sauce. Remove roots, coarse stems from greens (beet, turnip, dandelion greens, kale, escarole, chicory). Wash, and lift out of water to drain and remove every trace of sand. Cook in a large amount of salted water, for 5 to 15 min., or longer, until tender but not over-cooked. ● To prepare ¼ c. of liquid for 4 c. of greens add 1 tsp. salt to 2 egg yolks; beat thoroughly. Add to greens & of sealed milk in top of double boiler. Blend ¼ c. prepared mustard, 2 tbsp. vinegar and dash of salt. Add to greens, mix lightly with milk mixture. Place over boiling water; cook until thick, stirring constantly.

Leafy Salad Spring

A green salad bowl will look like Spring and taste good, too. To serve 4, wash lettuce, chicory thoroughly and dry well before shredding. Use one c. shredded lettuce and one c. chicory cut in small pieces. Combine greens with tbsp. crumbled Roquefort type cheese, 4 tbsp. grated raw carrot, ½ c. cut grapefruit sections and tbsp. chopped green pepper. Add special French dressing; toss salad lightly.

To prepare the dressing, rub the bowl with cut garlic clove. Add 3 tbsp. wine vinegar, few grains pepper, ¼ c. salad oil, ¼ tsp. salt and ¼ tsp. paprika. Stir vigorously with fork and beat dressing thoroughly before serving. Serves 4.

Combine bananas and cabbage for a good slaw that is different. To serve 4-6, shred fine ¼ head cabbage; mix with one chopped green pepper, one c. diced celery, and one c. finely-shredded lettuce. Add one c. diced ripe bananas; mix together with French dressing. Serve as a salad in cabbage cups.
